explicators of Paul de Man's writings Rodolphe Gasché a philosopher by training demonstrates for the first time the systematic coherence of the critic's work insisting that de Man continues to merit close attention despite his notoriously difficult and obscure style Gasché shows that de Man's reading centers on a dimension of the texts that is irreducible to any possible meaning a dimension characterized by the absolutely singular Given that de Man and Derrida are both termed deconstructionists Gasché differentiates between the two by emphasizing Derrida's primary interest in writing and postulates that the best way to come to terms with de Man's works is to read them athwart the writings of Kant Fichte Hegel Heidegger and Derrida He shows his respect for the immanent logic of de Man's thought which he lays out in great detail while revealing his uneasiness at the oddness of that thought and its consequences

Controlling the Thought Life Barrington C. Hibbert, 2019-02-01 The mind is where most of the battles in your life are won or lost If the thought life is obedience to Christ you can live a more spiritually fulfilled and successful life In Controlling the Thought Life author Barrington C Hibbert helps you look at your negative thoughts in light of God's word and discusses how to experience better outcomes in many areas of your life Hibbert addresses the thought life from a biblical perspective rather than from a psychological one While psychology provides many insights and offers some solutions it is inadequate to solve the human problem for at the heart humanity's problem is the sin nature which only God can fix Controlling the Thought Life provides an inspired straightforward and easy to read discussion on an array of dysfunctional thoughts It examines these chosen thoughts applies God's word to them and encourages you to obey what Christ's word has to say about them rather than letting these thoughts dominate you Hibbert shows that you can be transformed by a renewed mind and can strengthen your walk with Christ
