If a rapid but low intensity response is needed to help diffuse a potentially explosive or sensitive situation, the highly trained units of the Special Operations Forces are called in to take on the mission. Doing battle from the air on land and in the sea, these men must demonstrate the highest levels of strength, endurance and intelligence to combat any enemy under every imaginable circumstance. They are called upon to undertake such varied tasks as airfield seizures, ambushes, guerrilla warfare, hostage rescue, intelligence reconnaissance, psychological warfare or counterterrorism, often against an elusive or scattered foe. For each unit, author Fred Pushies offers inside information to explain every aspect of the work and history of these experts in unconventional warfare. Each chapter covers a specific unit with sections on history, structure and hierarchy, training, weapons and equipment and missions and tactics. More than 200 photos accompany this in depth and essential guide to America's elite fighting forces. Gulf War Air Power Survey: Weapons, tactics, and training and space operations, 1993. Non-state Special Operations Ian Rice, Craig Whiteside, 2025-07-25. This book examines how violent non state actors (VNSAs) emulate and develop military special operation capabilities. Building on previous research on Islamic State special operations, the book develops a theoretical framework surrounding a typology of VNSA militants, proxies, criminal cults and mercenaries to explore variations of non state special operations with multiple cases for each category of actor. Understanding when and why VNSAs use special operations provides insights into the inner workings of such groups and how they campaign, and also has implications for the proliferation of special operation forces around the globe and its influence on non state behavior. This volume contributes to research on the recent trend of non state actors surprising and in some cases humiliating their state opponents. This book will be of much interest to students of military and strategic studies.
