Compiled and translated by W E Gladstone, these speeches cover a range of topics reflecting the challenges and changes facing the Church during the 19th century. From pronouncements on religious doctrine to commentary on political events, Pius IX's words provide insight into his vision for the papacy and its role in a rapidly evolving world. of Pope Pius IX. Pope Pius IX, 18?? Speeches of Pope Pius IX (Classic Reprint) William Ewart Gladstone, 2015-07-14 Excerpt from Speeches of Pope Pius IX. It can hardly be policy; it must be a necessity of his nature which prompts his incessant harangues. But they are evidently a true picture of the man as the man is of the system, except in this, that he to use a homely phrase blurts out when he is left to himself what it delivers in rather more comely phrases overlaid with art. Much interest therefore attaches to such a phenomenon as the published Speeches of the Pope, and besides what it teaches in itself, other and singular lessons are to be learned from the strange juxtaposition in which for more than four years his action has now been exhibited. Probably in no place and at no period through the whole history of the world has there ever been presented to mankind even in the agony of war or revolution a more extraordinary spectacle than is now witnessed at Rome. In that city the Italian Government holds a perfectly peaceable though originally forcible possession of the residue of the States of the Church, and at the same time the Pope, remaining on his ground by a perpetual blast of fiery words, appeals to other lands and to future days and thus makes his wordy yet not wholly futile war upon the Italian Government. The mere extracts and specimens which have from time to time appeared in the public journals have stirred a momentary thrill or sigh or shrug according to the temperaments and tendencies of readers But they have been totally insufficient to convey an idea of the vigor with which this peculiar warfare is carried on of the absolute apparently the contemptuous tolerance with which it is regarded by the Government ruling on the spot or of the picture which is presented to us by the words and actions of the Pope taken as a whole and considered in connection with their possible significance to the future peace of Europe Between the 20th of October 1870 and the 18th of September 1873 this octogenarian Pontiff he is now aged at least eighty two besides bearing all the other cares of ecclesiastical government and despite intervals of illness pronounced two hundred and ninety Discourses which are reported in the eleven hundred pages of the two volumes now to be introduced to the notice of the reader About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works     Speeches of Pope Pius IX Gladstone W E (William Ewa 1809-1898,HardPress,2013-06 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy     Rome and the Newest Fashions in Religion William Ewart Gladstone,1875     ROME & THE NEWEST FASHIONS IN W. Isis Unveiled: A Master-Key to the Mysteries of Ancient and Modern Science and Theology (Complete) Helena Petrovna Blavatsky,1919-01-01 The work now submitted to public judgment is the fruit of a somewhat intimate acquaintance with Eastern adepts and study of their science It is offered to such as are willing to accept truth wherever it may be found and to defend it even looking popular prejudice straight in the face It is an attempt to aid the student to detect the vital principles which underlie the philosophical systems of old The book is written in all sincerity It is meant to do even justice and to speak the truth alike without malice or prejudice But it shows neither mercy for enthroned error nor reverence for usurped authority It demands for a spoliated past that credit for its achievements which has been too long withheld It calls for a restitution of borrowed robes and the vindication of calumniated but glorious reputations Toward no form of worship no religious faith no scientific hypothesis has its criticism been directed in any other spirit Men and parties sects and schools are but the mere ephemera of the world s day Truth high seated upon its rock of adamant is alone eternal and supreme We believe in no Magic which transcends the scope and capacity of the human mind nor in miracle whether divine or diabolical if such imply a transgression of the laws of nature instituted from all eternity Nevertheless we accept the saying of the gifted author of Festus that the human heart has not yet fully uttered itself and that we have never attained or even understood the extent of its powers Is it too much to believe that man should be developing new sensibilities and a closer relation with nature The logic of evolution must teach as much if carried to its legitimate conclusions If somewhere in the line of ascent from vegetable or ascidian to the noblest man a soul was evolved gifted with intellectual qualities it cannot be unreasonable to infer and believe that a faculty of perception is also growing in man enabling him to descry facts and truths even beyond our ordinary ken Yet we do not hesitate to accept the assertion of Biff that the essential is forever the same Whether we cut away the marble inward that hides the statue in the block or pile stone upon stone outward till the temple is completed our NEW result is only an old idea The latest of all the eternities will find its destined other half soul in the earliest It was while most anxious to solve these perplexing problems that we came into contact with certain men endowed with such mysterious powers and such profound knowledge that we may truly designate them as the sages of the Orient To their instructions we lent a ready ear They showed us that by combining science with religion the existence of God and immortality of man s spirit may be demonstrated like a problem of Euclid For the first time we received the assurance that the Oriental philosophy has room for no other faith than an absolute and immovable faith in the omnipotence of man s own immortal self We were taught that this omnipotence comes from the kinship of man s spirit with the Universal Soul God The latter they said can never be demonstrated but by the former Man spirit proves God spirit as the one drop of water proves a source from which it must have come Tell one who had never seen water that there is an ocean of water and he must accept it on faith or reject it altogether But let one drop fall upon his hand and he then has the fact from which all the rest may be inferred After that he could by degrees understand that a boundless and fathomless ocean of water existed Blind faith would no longer be necessary he would have supplanted it with KNOWLEDGE When one sees mortal man displaying tremendous capabilities controlling the forces of nature and opening up to view the world of spirit the reflective mind is overwhelmed with the conviction that if one man s spiritual Ego can do this much the capabilities of the Father Spirit must be relatively as much vaster as the whole ocean surpasses the single drop in volume and potency Ex nihilo nihil fit prove the soul of man by its wondrous powers you have proved God In our studies mysteries were shown to be no mysteries Names and places that to the Western mind have only a significance derived from Eastern fable were shown to be realities Reverently we stepped in spirit within the temple of Isis to lift aside the veil of the one that is and was and shall be at Sa s to look through the rent curtain of the Sanctum Sanctorum at Jerusalem and even to interrogate within the crypts which once existed beneath the sacred edifice the mysterious Bath Kol The Filia Vocis the daughter of the divine voice responded from the mercy seat within the veil and science theology every human hypothesis and conception born of imperfect knowledge lost forever their authoritative character in our sight The one living God had spoken through his oracle man and we were satisfied Such knowledge is priceless and it has been hidden only from those who overlooked it derided it or denied its existence     Hugh Melton
