A Meditation of Fire Kippira D. Hopper,1999 Among the highlights of this book documenting twenty years in the life and work of a major Texas artist is Watkins s creation of the double walled caldron that has become his forte Offering an extensive photographic explanation of Watkins s techniques the book shows how the vessels are built how various materials are used to create different surfaces how clay slips are made from organic materials collected at the various sites Watkins often visits in Texas and how both technology and serendipity are part of the firing process Describing the construction and the aesthetics of Watkins s pottery the book also illustrates the influence of place and experience both externally and in dreams and memories Drawing upon his love for the land and nature of the American Southwest Watkins also derives inspiration from memories of growing up in rural Alabama in the 1960s the influence of various teachers his African American heritage and his belief in the power of dreams Readers will discover the rare beauty of parts of the American Southwest not often seen and how those landscapes translate into the aesthetic Watkins a professor in the Texas Tech University College of Architecture blends the subject of his teaching drawing into his ceramic work His work has been included in the White House Collection of American Crafts exhibit and in the Smithsonian Institution Modern Malaysian Art Muliyadi Mahamood,2007 The Social Work of Museums Lois H. Silverman,2009-12-04 Museums may not seem at first glance to be engaged in social work Yet Lois H Silverman brings together here relevant visitor studies trends in international practice and compelling examples that demonstrate how museums everywhere are using their unique resources to benefit human relationships and ultimately to repair the world In this groundbreaking book Silverman forges a framework of key social work perspectives to show how museums are evolving a needs based approach to provide what promises to be universal social service In partnership with social workers social agencies and clients museums are helping people cope and even thrive in circumstances ranging from personal challenges to social injustices The Social Work of Museums provides the first integrative survey of this emerging interdisciplinary practice and an essential foundation on which to build for the future The Social Work of Museums is not only a vital and visionary resource for museum training and practice in the 21st century but also an invaluable tool for social workers creative arts therapists and students seeking to broaden their horizons It will inspire and empower policymakers directors clinicians and evaluators alike to work together toward museums for the next age Framing Marginalised Art Karen Jones,Eugen Koh,Nurin Veis,Anthony White,Rosalind Hurworth,Johanna Bell,Brad Shrimpton,Anthony Fitzpatrick,2010-11 Augustinian Art and Meditation in Renaissance Florence Antonia Fondaras,2020-02-03 In Augustinian Art and Meditation in Renaissance Florence Antonia Fondaras reunites the fifteenth century altarpieces painted by Botticelli Piero di Cosimo Filippino Lippi and other masters for the choir of the Augustinian church of Santo Spirito in Florence Departing from a conventional focus on artist and patron the author illuminates the engagement of the Augustinian Hermit friars with the composition and iconography of these pictures and discusses how they were used to fashion the choir into a space suited to the friars institutional and spiritual ideals Fondaras includes a close reading of the choir s most compelling and original altarpieces which were grounded in the writings of Augustine and provided a focal point for the friars sophisticated meditative practices
