Dunkley, 2011-12-08 This collection of eleven essays is designed to highlight some important new voices who have been doing research on the general subject areas of the history and culture of the Caribbean The essays in this volume also address a number of themes which are critical to developing an understanding of current scholarly work on the two broad subject areas Among the themes examined are colonialism slavery and the involvement of the Christian Church in both colonial rule and enslavement The essays also analyze the pre independence and post independence periods of the twentieth century with examinations on topics that include prostitution departmentalization education visual art and the musical form known as Reggae The purpose of this book is to stimulate discussion around these important topics based on the perspectives of a number of new scholars. Monica Juneja, 2023-03-20 The book responds to the challenge of the global turn in the humanities from the perspective of art history A global art history it argues need not follow the logic of economic globalization nor seek to bring the entire world into its fold Instead it draws on a theory of transculturation to explore key moments of an art history that can no longer be approached through a facile globalism How can art historical analysis theorize relationships of connectivity that have characterized cultures and regions across distances How can it meaningfully handle issues of commensurability or its absence among cultures By shifting the focus of enquiry to South Asia the five meditations that make up this book seek to translate intellectual insights of experiences beyond Euro America into globally Jazz Sells: Music, Marketing, and Meaning Mark Laver, 2015-02-11 Jazz Sells Music Marketing and intelligible analyses Meaning examines the issues of jazz consumption and capitalism through advertising On television on the Internet in radio and in print advertising is a critically important medium for the mass dissemination of music and musical meaning This book is a study of the use of the jazz genre as a musical signifier in promotional efforts exploring how the relationship between brand jazz music and jazz discourses come together to create meaning for the product and the consumer At the same time it examines how jazz offers an invaluable lens through which to examine the complex and often contradictory culture of consumption upon which capitalism is predicated Artful Teaching David M.
