The Paragone in Nineteenth-Century Art Sarah J. Lippert, 2019-03-27 Offering an examination of the paragone meaning artistic rivalry in nineteenth century France and England this book considers how artists were impacted by prevailing aesthetic theories or institutional and cultural paradigms to compete in the art world The paragone has been considered primarily in the context of Renaissance art history but in this book readers will see how the legacy of this humanistic competitive model survived into the late nineteenth century

Media, Technology, and Literature in the Nineteenth Century Margaret Linley, 2016-04-29 Operating at the intersection where new technology meets literature this collection discovers the relationship among image sound and touch in the long nineteenth century The chapters speak to the special mixed media properties of literature while exploring the important interconnections of science technology and art at the historical moment when media was being theorized debated and scrutinized Each chapter focuses on a specific visual acoustic or haptic dimension of media while also calling attention to the relationships among the three Famous works such as Wordsworth's I wandered lonely as a cloud and Shelley's Frankenstein are discussed alongside a range of lesser known literary scientific and pornographic writings Topics include the development of a print culture for the visually impaired the relationship between photography and narrative the kaleidoscope and modern urban experience Christmas gift books poetry painting and music as remediated forms the interface among the piano telegraph and typewriter Ernst Heinrich Weber's model of rationalized tactility and how the shift from visual to auditory telegraphic instruments amplified anxieties about the place of women in nineteenth century information networks Full of surprising insights and connections the collection offers new impetus for stimulating historical conversations and debates about nineteenth century media while also contributing fresh perspectives on new media and re mediation today

The Cambridge History of Nineteenth-Century Music Jim Samson, 2001-12-03 First published in 2002 this comprehensive overview of music in the nineteenth century draws on extensive scholarship in the field Art, Music, and Mysticism at the Fin de Siècle Corrinne Chong, Michelle Foot, 2024-07-29 This edited volume explores the dialogue between art and music with that of mystical currents at the turn of the twentieth century The volume draws on the most current research from both art historians and musicologists to present an interdisciplinary approach to the study of mysticism's historical importance The chapters in this edited volume gauge the scope of different interpretations of mysticism and illuminate how an exchange between the sister arts unveil an underlying stream of metaphysical supernatural and spiritual ideas over the course of the century Case studies include Charles Tournemire Joseph P ladan Erik Satie Hilma af Klint Jean Sibelius František Kupka and Wassily Kandinsky The contributors' unique theoretical perspectives and disciplinary methodologies offer expert insight on both the rewards and inevitable aesthetic complications that arise when one artform meets another The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history musicology visual culture and mysticism Program Music collection of essays which re evaluates the significant connections between the disciplines of music fine art and architecture in the period covering the emergence and flowering of modernism c 1849 1950 Combining established scholars in the field with those at the start of their careers this book presents an exceptional cross section of European and American modernism through a series of detailed case studies Avoiding a simplistic engagement with cross or inter disciplinarity the focus of attention centres on themes that became key to modernist artists and critics association perception representation subjectivity writing and language Accordingly this book re thinks modernism itself in the light of both the fine arts and music to advocate a multiplicity of modernisms from which it is necessary for scholars to construct their own narratives Fellow Men Bridget Alsdorf,2022-07-12 Focusing on the art of Henri Fantin Latour 1836 1904 and his colleagues Gustave Courbet Edgar Degas Edouard Manet Fr d ric Bazille and Pierre Auguste Renoir Fellow Men argues for the importance of the group as a defining subject of nineteenth century French painting Through close readings of some of the most ambitious paintings of the realist and impressionist generation Bridget Alsdorf offers new insights into how French painters understood the shifting boundaries of their social world and reveals the fragile masculine bonds that made up the avant garde A dedicated realist who veered between extremes of sociability and hermetic isolation Fantin Latour painted group dynamics over the course of two decades from 1864 to 1885 This was a period of dramatic change in French history and art events like the Paris Commune and the rise and fall of impressionism raised serious doubts about the power of collectivism in art and life Fantin Latour s monumental group portraits and related works by his friends and colleagues from the 1850s through the 1880s represent varied visions of collective identity and test the limits of association as both a social and an artistic pursuit By examining the bonds and frictions that animated their social circles Fantin Latour and his cohorts developed a new pictorial language for the modern group one of fragmentation exclusion and willful withdrawal into interior space that nonetheless presented individuality as radically relational The Cambridge Companion to Music and Romanticism Benedict Taylor,2021-08-26 A stimulating new approach to understanding the relationship between music and culture in the long nineteenth century Of 'truths Impossible to Put in Words' Rose-Carol Washton Long,2009 This volume of essays relate Max Beckmann s work to the tangible circumstances of its production and reception The essays contextualise aspects of Beckmann s early middle and late career by way of detailed reference to contemporary music film philosophy theatre history sports and exile "Manet, Wagner, and the Musical Culture of Their Time " Therese Dolan,2017-07-05 How did the tumult caused by German composer Richard Wagner result in the first modernist painting In the first full length book dedicated to the study of Edouard Manet and music art historian Therese Dolan demonstrates that the 1862 painting Music in the Tuileries represents the progressive musical culture of his time heretofore read by scholars predominantly through the words of Charles Baudelaire Dolan sees in this painting s radical style the conceptual shift to modernism in both painting and music a transition that she convincingly argues received a strong impetus from Manet s Music in the Tuileries and Wagner s controversial Tannh er which premiered the previous year Supplemental to analysis of the painting Dolan incorporates discussion of texts by Theophile Gautier Champfleury and Baudelaire who are represented in the painting This book incorporates studies of the major artistic literary and musical figures of nineteenth century France It represents an important contribution to an understanding of French culture in the third quarter of the nineteenth century a period of intense literary artistic and musical activity that formed the crucible for modernism Rethinking Brahms Nicole Grimes, Reuben Phillips, 2022 Drawing on the expertise of a wide range of musicologists performer scholars and music theorists Rethinking Brahms provides new perspectives on Brahms's music the contexts of his creativity and the reception of his works

Edinburgh Companion to T. S. Eliot and the Arts Frances Dickey, 2016-08-16 From his early Curtain Raiser to the late Four Quartets T S Eliot took an interest in all the arts drawing on them for poetic inspiration and for analysis in his prose T S Eliot and the Arts provides extensive high quality research about his many sided engagement with painting sculpture museum artefacts architecture music drama music hall opera and dance as well as the emerging media of recorded sound film and radio Building on the newly published editions of Eliot's prose and poetry this contemporary research collection opens avenues for understanding Eliot both in his own right as a poet and critic and as a foremost exemplar of interarts modernism Synaesthetics Paul Gordon, 2019-12-12 Paul Gordon proposes a new theory of art as synaesthetic and applies this idea to various media including works such as movies illustrated books and song lyrics that explicitly cross over into media involving the different senses The idea of art as synaesthetic is not however limited to those cross over works because even an individual poem or novel or painting calls upon different senses in creating its syn aesthetic meaning Although previous studies have often devolved into those who see an obvious connection between art and synaesthesia and those who adamantly reject such a notion Synaesthetics furthers our understanding of synaesthesia as an important if not essential component of artistic expression Art in Anime Dani Cavallaro, 2011-12-28 Anime hand drawn or computer animated Japanese cartoons appears in television series films video video games and commercials and represents most genres of fiction This critical study explores anime's relationship with art from a twofold perspective Drawing from categories as varied as romance comedy slice of life drama science fiction bildungsroman and school drama it examines anime's representation of characters pursuing diverse artistic activities and related aesthetic visions focusing closely on the concepts of creativity talent expressivity and experimentation Additionally the analysis engages with anime's own artistry proposing that those characters endeavors provide metaphors for the aims and objectives pursued by anime itself as an evolving art form The cross cultural resonance of this work makes it relevant not only to anime fans and scholars but also to those interested in the phenomenon of image making Seeing and Beyond Deborah J. Johnson, David Ogawa, Kermit Swiler Champa, 2005 This volume is an exciting eclectic collection of essays in honor of Kermit S Champa a leading scholar of impressionism and critic of twentieth century art The lead essay by David Carrier is followed by others from several generations of scholars and museum curators trained by Professor Champa Together they cover an extremely wide historical range from the eighteenth to twenty first centuries and honor Professor Champa's own scholarly rigor methodological diversity and intellectual breadth through topics ranging from art history to cultural studies Jacket Music and Fantasy in the Age of Berlioz Francesca Brittan, 2017-09-14 An exploration of fantastic soundworlds in nineteenth century France providing a fresh aesthetic and compositional context for Berlioz and others
