The Journey of Maps and Images on the Silk Road Philippe Forêt, Andreas Kaplony, 2008-11-30 This book covers new ground on the diffusion and transmission of geographical knowledge that occurred at critical junctures in the long history of the Silk Road Much of twentieth century scholarship on the Silk Road examined the ancient archaeological objects and medieval historical records found within each cultural area while the consequences of long distance interaction across Eurasia remained poorly studied Here ample attention is given to the journeys that notions and objects undertook to transmit spatial values to other civilizations In retracing the steps of four major circuits right across the many civilizations that shared the Silk Road The Journey of Maps and Images on the Silk Road traces the ways in which maps and images surmounted spatial historical and cultural divisions 1400 Years of Islamic Art Géza Fehérvári, Yasin Hamid Safadi, 1981 Arts of Allusion Margaret S. Graves, 2018-07-31 The art of the object reached unparalleled heights in the medieval Islamic world yet the intellectual dimensions of ceramics metalwares and other plastic arts in this milieu have not always been acknowledged Arts of Allusion reveals the object as a crucial site where pre modern craftsmen of the eastern Mediterranean and Persianate realms engaged in fertile dialogue with poetry literature painting and perhaps most strikingly architecture Lanterns fashioned after miniature shrines incense burners in the form of domed monuments earthenware jars articulated with arches and windows inkwells that allude to tents through close studies of objects from the ninth to the thirteenth centuries this book reveals that allusions to architecture abound across media in the portable arts of the medieval Islamic world Arts of Allusion draws upon a broad range of material evidence as well as medieval texts to locate its subjects in a cultural landscape where the material visual and verbal realms were intertwined Moving far beyond the initial identification of architectural types with their miniature counterparts in the plastic arts Margaret Graves develops a series of new frameworks for exploring the intelligent art of the allusive object These address materiality representation and perception and examine contemporary literary and poetic paradigms of metaphor description and indirect reference as tools for approaching the plastic arts Arguing for the role of the intellect in the applied arts and for the communicative potential of ornament Arts of Allusion asserts the reinstatement of craftsmanship into Islamic intellectual history Society and Culture in the Early Modern Middle East Newman, 2003-05-22 The volume comprises a collection of 20 of the 43 papers presented at the Third International Round Table on Safavid Persia held at the University of Edinburgh in August 1998 and edited by the Round Table's organiser The Third Round Table the largest of the series to date continued the emphasis of its predecessors on understanding and appreciating the legacy of the Safavid period by means of exchanges between both established and newer scholars drawn from a variety of fields to facilitate an exchange of ideas information and methodologies across a broad range of academic disciplines between scholars from diverse disciplines and research backgrounds with a common interest in the history and culture of this period of Iran's history The Monumental Inscriptions from Early Islamic Iran and Transoxiana Sheila Blair, 1992 This book studies the surviving 79 monumental inscriptions from the Iranian world that date to the first five centuries of the Muslim era ad 622 1106 Each is presented with photographs drawings transcriptions translations and an extensive commentary which explains the text in its larger historical and artistic context Ayyubid Metalwork with Christian Images Eva Baer, 2023-12-21 Muqarnas Supplements presents book length historical examinations of primary sources on the arts architecture and material cultures of Islamicate lands as well as occasional thematic conference proceedings and special edited volumes Muqarnas is sponsored by The Aga Khan Program for Islamic Architecture at Harvard University and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Cambridge Massachusetts Related series Muqarnas The series published three volumes over the last 5 years A Companion to Islamic Art and Architecture, 2 Volume Set

Finbarr Barry Flood, Gulru Necipoglu, 2017-09-13 The two volume Companion to Islamic Art and Architecture bridges the gap between monograph and survey text by providing a new level of access and interpretation to Islamic art The more than 50 newly commissioned essays revisit canonical topics and include original approaches and scholarship on neglected aspects of the field This two volume Companion showcases more than 50 specially commissioned essays and an introduction that survey Islamic art and architecture in all its traditional grandeur Essays are organized according to a new chronological geographical paradigm that remaps the unprecedented expansion of the field and reflects the nuances of major artistic and political developments during the 1400 year span The Companion represents recent developments in the field and encourages future horizons by commissioning innovative essays that provide fresh perspectives on canonical subjects such as early Islamic art sacred spaces palaces urbanism ornament arts of the book and the portable arts while introducing others that have been previously neglected including unexplored geographies and periods transregional connectivities talismans and magic consumption and networks of portability museums and collecting and contemporary art worlds the essays entail strong comparative and historiographic dimensions The volumes are accompanied by a map and each subsection is preceded by a brief outline of the main cultural and historical developments during the period in question The volumes include periods and regions typically excluded from survey books including modern and contemporary art architecture China Indonesia Sub Saharan Africa Sicily the New World Americas
