The Wine Pioneers Anton Massel,2008 At first there were the horticulturists and wine growers then came the wine makers the coopers and the cellar masters Inevitably there were wine shippers and wine merchants Chemists and biologists added their skills in the past two centuries and only very recently came the oenologists and the professional wine tasters Wine writers play an important role in today s wine trade and there were always wine connoisseurs and wine snobs From 5000BC to the modern day this book provides a chronological history of the wine pioneers through the ages Wine Tourism Around the World Colin Michael Hall,2000 Wine tourism is a rapidly growing field of industry and academic interest with changes in the consumer markets in recent years showing an enormous interest in experiential travel Wine Tourism Around the World is therefore an invaluable text for both students and practitioners alike and provides the first comprehensive introduction to wine tourism from a business social science and policy perspective an international perspective on wine tourism and includes detailed examples from Australia Canada France Greece Hungary New Zealand Portugal South Africa Spain Switzerland UK and the USA detailed information on the growth and development of wine tourism from both supply demand marketing and management perspectives Academic researchers and students in tourism and hospitality fields as well as anyone connected with the wine industry will find this book an essential guide to understanding the global impacts of wine tourism and the consequent economic social and environmental impacts and opportunities C Michael Hall is based at the University of Otago in New Zealand and is Visiting Professor in the School of Leisure and Food Management Sheffield Hallam University He has written widely on wine food and rural tourism and has a major interest in cool climate wine tourism Liz Sharples is a lecturer in the School of Leisure and Food Management Sheffield Hallam University She has extensive practical and academic experience in the hospitality industry and has major research interests in the interrelationships between cuisine tourism and rural production Brock Cambourne is the owner

Australian Wine Industry Technical Conference ,2005 The Wine List Grant Reynolds,2023-11-07 A one of a kind exploration of the relationship between culture politics history and wine Vintage refers to the year grapes are harvested and that vintage holds meaning You can look up the weather in any almanac but some stories are known only to insiders until now In this wine book Grant Reynolds award winning sommelier deciphers these signatures to reveal the impact of marketing and mentorship technology and trends and influencers old and new Beginning in the late eighteenth century with a tale about Thomas Jefferson s secret White House stash and spanning over a quarter of a millennium to social media s effect on chenin blanc s popularity The Wine List explores both the chemistry and sociology that have made vintages taste a certain way fetch a certain price or go extinct altogether Featuring sidebars on topics like the taste of climate change mini timelines capturing significant historical moments and collage style illustration these entries solidify the idea that every bottle is a product of a particular moment in time A must read for fans of wine books like Wine Folly or The World Atlas of Wine The Wine List is a fresh new wine bible perfect for anyone looking for bar cart books or gifts for wine lovers The Australian Banker ,1999 Imperial Wine Jennifer Regan-Lefebvre,2024-04-23 A fascinating and approachable deep dive into the colonial roots of the global wine industry Imperial Wine is a bold rigorous history of Britain s surprising role in creating the wine industries of Australia South Africa and New Zealand Here historian Jennifer Regan Lefebvre bridges the genres of global commodity history and imperial history presenting provocative new research in an accessible narrative This is the first book to argue that today s global wine industry exists as a result of settler colonialism and that imperialism was central not incidental to viticulture in the British colonies Wineries were established almost immediately after the colonization of South Africa Australia and New Zealand as part of a civilizing mission tidy vines heavy with fruit were symbolic of Britain s subordination of foreign lands Economically and culturally nineteenth century settler winemakers saw the British market as paramount However British drinkers were apathetic towards what they pejoratively called colonial wine The tables only began to turn after the First World War when colonial wines were marketed as cheap and patriotic and started to find their niche among middle and working class British drinkers This trend combined with social and cultural shifts after the Second World War laid the foundation for the New World revolution in the 1980s making Britain into a confirmed country of wine drinkers and a massive market for New World wines These New World producers may have only received critical acclaim in the late twentieth century but Imperial Wine shows that they had spent centuries wooing and indeed manufacturing a British market for inexpensive colonial wines This book is sure to satisfy any curious reader who savors the complex stories behind this commodity chain
