The Balkans in International Relations Branimir M Jankovic, Bosko Milosavljevic, 1988-04-06 The Balkans in International Relations Branimir M. Janković, 1988 The Balkans Beyond Nationalism and Identity Pavlos Hatzopoulos, 2007-12-19 For decades we have come to accept that nationalism formed the basis of the modern history of the Balkans In this bold and controversial study Pavlos Hatzopoulos turns this assumption on its head Through a ground breaking examination of the non nationalist ideologies in the Balkans during the interwar period Hatzopoulos calls into question the supposedly inherent connection between the Balkans and nationalism and argues that nationalism does not form the sole ordering principle of the modern history of the Balkan region Focusing on the ideologies of communism liberal internationalism and agrarianism Hatzopoulos examines how these interact with nationalist ideology He demonstrates how non nationalist theories challenge the nationalist view of the Balkans as the sum of several national spaces He even questions the nationalist understanding of the very term the Balkans The Balkans Beyond Nationalism and Identity revisits contemporary debates on a region that is still a European crisis point and challenges the nation centric understanding that permeates it In proposing a description of the Balkans as a contested political concept the book argues for a completely fresh interpretation of the region s composition The Question of the Balkans Clive Day, 1920 Regional and International Relations of Central Europe Zlatko Sabic, P. Drulák, 2012-09-18 Focused on the role of Central Europe in international politics at the turn of the 20th century the authors take stock of the knowledge about the discipline of IR enhance the visibility of scholars from Central Europe and fill the void which has emerged after several researches on Central Europe were completed in the 1990s The Balkan Games and Balkan Politics in the Interwar Years 1929 - 1939 Penelope Kissoudi, 2013-10-18 The Balkan Games resulted on the one hand from the growth of modern European sport and the unsatisfactory performances of the Balkan athletes at national and international level and on the other hand from a desire to bring the Balkan peoples together in peace and concord The Games were initiated in Athens in 1929 and increasingly became an integral part of the political cultural and social life of the area The common global reality is that when an athletic event is staged attempted friendship seldom receives priority In the 1930s however the Balkan Games provided a rare example of an international athletic event bringing antagonistic states together in friendship This consideration of the significance of the Balkan Games as an instrument of political optimism provides clear evidence of the occasional positive influence of sport in politics The work is a case study of interest to political and social scientists and to historians of Europe and sport This book was previously published as a special issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport The International Relations of the EU Steve Marsh, Hans Mackensteen, 2014-09-11 In an incisive and lively discussion International Relations of the EU examines both the economic and security dimensions of European Union external relations The book adopts an innovative approach that combines International Relations with International Political

Economy Set against a backdrop of EU enlargement and disarray over military intervention in Iraq International Relations of the EU is a timely contribution to our understanding of the EU's role as an international actor The text is suitable for advanced undergraduate courses in Politics and International Relations

Documents on the Balkans - History, Memory, Identity Margit Rohringer, 2020-06-01 This book explores historical discourses on the various forms of identity production in film that are based on memory and shows how these narratives get mediated by documentary film Most films about the Balkans produced in the last two decades were in fact made in response to immediate concerns about the economic crises and political conflicts that struck the region during the 1990s These new forms of communication about history mostly show a rather self critical approach The book's case studies give the reader a clear idea of how processes informing identity formations are directly launched and later on maintained in peoples real and everyday lives Thus the case studies principal objective is to integrate the study of private space with existing macro debates in politics as well as with dominant discourses within the academic community The included case studies focus on several topics i e migration the reproduction and protection of personal as well as collective identities in post socialist societies revolutionary processes towards the official end of the Cold War the re creation of politically constructed narratives generational conflicts in the post socialist period and the fate of women during the war The multifaceted view of the region under focus in this study shows that common grounds and differences co exist in the Balkan space be it on a cultural economic social or geo political level Apart from the field of film studies this work is a powerful contribution to cultural history as well as to the growing field of visual history
