States" or the "Great Compromise". The Continental Congress

EXPLANATORY NOTE: The Articles of Confederation were finally agreed upon by Congress two years after independence, but not ratified by all the States until 1781. Often called "The First Constitution of the United States", the document was more akin to a treaty among the thirteen states. The Continental Congress became the Confederation Congress and continued to govern much as it had before, without executive and judicial branches of government. The Articles of Confederation found the United States to be a loose union for seven critical years, a meeting in Congress was finally persuaded that the Articles of Confederation must be amended or the nation soon in anarchy.
