Mysterious Minds Elise Nykänen, 2017-11-22 This study examines the narrative tools techniques and structures that Marja Liisa Vartio a classic of Finnish post war modernism used in presenting fictional minds in her narrative prose The study contributes to the academic discussion on formal and thematic conventions of modernism by addressing the ways in which fictional minds work in interaction and in relation to the enfolding fictional world The epistemic problem of how accurately the world the self and the other can be known is approached by analyzing two co operating ways of portraying fictional minds both from external and internal perspectives The external perspective relies on detachment and emotional restraint dominating in Vartio s early novels Se on sitten kevät and Mies kuin mies tyttökä The internal perspective pertains to the mental processes of self reflection speculation and excessive imagining that gain more importance in her later novels Kaikki naiset on kevät unissa Tunteet and Hän on ollut linnut In the theoretical chapter of this study fictional minds are discussed in the context of the acclaimed inward turn of modernist fiction by suggesting alternative methods for reading modernist minds as embodied emotional and social entities In respect to fictional minds interaction this study elaborates on the ideas of mind reading intersubjectivity and the social mind established within post classical cognitive narratology Furthermore it employs possible world poetics when addressing the complexity incompleteness and inaccessibility of Vartio s epistemic worlds including the characters private worlds of knowledge beliefs emotions hallucinations and dreams In regards to the emotional employment of fictional worlds this study also benefits from affective narratology as well as the plot theory being influenced by possible world semantics narrative dynamics and cognitive narratology As the five analysis chapters of this study show fictional minds in Vartio s fiction are not only introspective solipsist and streaming but also embodied and social entities In the readings of the primary texts the concept of embodiedness is used to examine the situated presence of an experiencing mind within the time and space of the storyworld Fictional minds interactions are also demonstrated as evolving from local experientiality to long term calculations that turn emotional incidents into episodes and episodes into stories In Vartio s novels the emotional story structure of certain conventional story patterns such as the narratives of female development and the romance plot the sentimental novel and epistolary fiction are modified and causally altered in the portrayal of the embodied interactions between the self the other and the world The trajectories of female self discovery in Vartio s novels are analyzed through the emotional responses of characters their experiences of randomness their ways of counterfactualizing their traumatic past their procrastinatory or akratic reactions or indecisiveness The gradual move away from the percepts of the external world to the excessive imaginings and mis readings of other minds triggered by the interaction of worlds and minds challenges the contemporary and more recent accounts of modernism both in Finnish and international contexts Reading, Learning, Teaching

Mother Without Child Elaine Tuttle Hansen, 1997-01-01 This is a conceptually innovative book which expands the meaning of motherhood to include mothers without child it is also a compassionate political book which refuses the boundary between good enough and bad mothers Mother Without Child is an engaging witty and provocative literary study which should fascinate anyone who is interested in mothering or in looking for new ways to talk about motherhood without erasing some women's experience or dividing mothers from each other Sara Ruddick author of Maternal Thinking Toward a Politics of Peace Hansen positions her study in a genuinely new space taboo ground which demands not only a great deal of courage to address but also enormous intelligence and insight Hansen is up to this task hers is a pioneer study that will have a significant impact on the ways that non procreative motherhood is discussed and understood Madelon Sprengnether author of The Spectral Mother Freud Feminism and Psychoanalysis Since the beginnings of the second wave of feminism in the 1960s feminist scholars have been obsessed with motherhood Mother Without Child takes us to the next stage in this fascinated and fascinating exploration Through illuminating readings of contemporary stories of thwarted motherhood Hansen challenges the persistent and constraining definitions of the good and even the good enough mother She enjoins us to listen to the moving devastating and often inspiring stories of mothers who survive the loss of their children and she urges us to find there not the angry voices of feminist daughters who cannot forgive their patriarchal mothers but alternative stories of a different maternity that can lead us to alternative plots and visions of women's lives We need this book Marianne Hirsch author of The Mother Daughter Plot Narrative Psychoanalysis Feminism A careful committed and freshly clarifying voice Hansen's graceful prose and finely interwoven explorations are much needed at this time Through readings of contemporary fiction she enriches our vocabulary for discussing the overdetermined topic of motherhood and deepens our understanding of both its psychological and contemporary political dimensions Mother Without Child is a book for historians and social scientists as well as literary scholars Laura Doyle author of Bordering on the Body The Racial Matrix of Modern Fiction and Culture The Southern Mystique Urszula Niewiadomska-Flis, 2012-07 Amb la intenci de reconsiderar la construcci meridional del g nere que es mostra en la ficci i en les pel·l·cules del segle XX naix aquest volum Tres aspectes

conceptuals guien la investigaci En primer lloc les dones del sud poden treballar des de i en contra dels discursos de g nere de la seua societat a trav s de les pr ctiques culin ries En segon lloc a trav s de l amistat femenina les dones poden transgredir el seu lloc prescrit pel patriarcat En tercer lloc per a infondre la construcci de g nere les dones han de desafiar la protecci patriarcal i desobeir les regles de confinament de la feminitat en l espai dom stic Aix aquest volum q estiona els efectes materials dels mites meridionals sobre les construccions i les negociacions de la condici de dona meridional contra les normes blanques masculines i heterosexistes de la cultura del sud Beyond Feminist Aesthetics Rita Felski,1989

Beyond Feminist Aesthetics has a dual focus First Rita Felski gives a critical account of current American and European feminist literary theory and second she offers an analysis of contemporary fiction by women drawing in particular on the genres of the autobiographical confession and the novel of self discovery in order to show that this literature raises questions for feminism that cannot be answered in terms of a purely gender based analysis Felski argues that the idea of a feminist aesthetic is a nonissue that feminists have needlessly pursued she suggests in contrast that it is impossible to speak of masculine and feminine subversive and reactionary literary forms in isolation from the social conditions of their production and reception The political value of such works of literature from the standpoint of feminism can be determined only by an investigation of their social functions and effects in relation to the interests of women in a particular historical context This leads her to argue for an interdisciplinary approach to the analysis of literature which can integrate literary and social theory and to develop such an approach by drawing upon the model of a feminist counter public sphere Rita Felski has produced a closely reasoned stimulating book that creates a new framework for discussing the relationship between literature and feminist politics It will interest students and teachers of women s studies comparative literature cultural studies and fiction
