Praying to the Goddess Mahita Vas, 2012-09-01 When Mahita was 15 a teacher at her Catholic school in Singapore said she could see the devil in her eyes While growing up then raising a family of her own she constantly fought to understand and control this devil inside her Born to Indian parents in Singapore and raised by a Chinese amah Mahita Vas struggled to fit into a conservative society where exuberance is frowned upon and conformity is a tradition She spent a significant part of life feeling different being different Throughout her career with Singapore Airlines then as an advertising industry executive she led a volatile life sometimes blissfully and enviably contented at other times wishing she was dead No one least of all Mahita suspected she was mentally ill until the day her sister suggested she had inherited Daddy s illness This epiphanic revelation led to a bipolar disorder diagnosis at age 41 followed by a suicide attempt where she narrowly escaped death Praying to the Goddess of Mercy charts Mahita s journey from chaos to stability It offers insights into an illness for which there is no known cause no cure and no immunity It will inspire and enlighten people with mental disorders and the loved ones who suffer with them Ultimately it is about being true to oneself and having the courage to take charge in the pursuit of happiness

The Romance of K'tut Tantri and Indonesia Timothy Lindsey, 2008 This historiographic study of K tut Tantri alias Vannen Walker the journalist from the Isle of Man Muriel Pearson the unhappy wife and Surabaya Sue the notorious revolutionary compares her romantic and colorful autobiography Revolt in Paradise with other versions of her past including those of her fellow Bali colonists and her revolutionary comrades as well as her foes the Dutch and various intelligence organizations These alternative accounts of her past question the image of K tut Tantri as hero portraying her instead as dishonest unstable egotistical and immoral Such criticisms have overshadowed proper recognition of her role in the development of modern Indonesia both as a bohemian hotelier in between wars Bali and later as propaganda broadcaster and adviser to Indonesian revolutionary leaders including Soekarno Sutomo and Syarifuddin

Focusing on the nature of biography and autobiography this book analyses K tut Tantri s self defeating battle to use history in text and film script to define her identity and reappropriate her past An examination of the use of ideas of truth and fiction in understanding the past leads to broader consideration of the nature of history and its uses Finally an attempt is made to reconcile the deconstruction of K tut Tantri s autobiography with both an acceptance of the validity of alternative historical genres and an acceptance of the problems inherent in writing a history of a living person
