Spring Hill: Eight Miles South of Troy Mack Lowery,2022-04-12 In 1814 when General Andrew Jackson defeated the Creek Indians at Horse Shoe Bend in Alabama settlers began making their way to the new area creating Alabama Fever Many of these settlers homesteaded the area in Southeast Alabama that would become known as Spring Hill These Settlers came from Virginia North and South Carolina and Georgia bringing with them a strong work ethic and the determination that their community would not be isolated that it would be educated and that religion would thrive In this moving account Mr Lowery shares with the reader the importance of the people and community institutions that so positively influenced him for the first twenty one years of his life Because of community participation these institutions remained strong and influential through the years The family churches and school would cooperate in bringing to fruition the vision of the early settlers set on making Spring Hill a strong and viable community History of Barron County, Wisconsin Newton S. On 29 October 1914 the hospital ship Rohilla left Queensferry with 229 persons on board the vessel was bound for Dunkirk on an errand of mercy under wartime restrictions and in deteriorating weather Just after 4 a m there was a tremendous impact as the ship ran on to rocks at Saltwick Nab a mile south of Whitby Rohilla was mortally wounded 600 yards from shore so close to land yet so far from safety Over the ensuing days the heartrending loss of 92 lives in terrible circumstances would prove to be Whitby s greatest maritime disaster still regarded as one of the worst amongst the annals of the RNLI This book reveals the heroic actions of the public who waded out into icy turbulent waters to reach those who made the swim to shore and the gallant efforts of lifeboatmen forced to manhandle lifeboats over piers rocks overland and down a 200ft cliff

Samuel Benton Barron,2020-09-28 As my recollections of the war between the States or the Confederate War in which four of the best years of my life May 1861 to May 1865 were given to the service of the Confederate States of America are to be written at the earnest request of my children and mainly for their gratification it is perhaps proper to preface the recital by going back a few years in order to give a little family history I was born in what is now the suburbs of the town of Gurley in Madison County Alabama on the 9th day of November 1834 My father Samuel Boulds Barron was born in South Carolina in 1793 His father James Barron as I understand was a native of Ireland My mother s maiden name was Martha Cotten daughter of James Cotten who was from Guilford County North Carolina and who was in the battle of Guilford Court House at the age of sixteen His future wife Nancy Johnson was then a young girl living in hearing of the battle at the Court House About the beginning of the past century 1800

my Grandfather Cotten with his wife her brother Abner Johnson and their relatives Gideon and William Pillow and their sister Mrs Dew moved out from North Carolina into Tennessee stopping in Davidson County near Nashville Later Abner Johnson and the Pillows settled in Maury County near Columbia and about the year 1808 my grandfather and his family came on to Madison County Alabama and settled at what has always been known as Cave Springs about fifteen miles east or southeast from Huntsville In the second war with Great Britain the War of 1812 my Grandfather Cotten again answered the call to arms and as a captain he served his country with notable gallantry It is like an almost forgotten dream the recollection of my paternal grandmother and my maternal grandfather for both of them died when I was a small child My maternal grandmother however who lived to the age of eighty seven years I remember well In my earliest recollection my father was a school teacher teaching at a village then called The Section afterwards Lowsville being now the town of Maysville twelve miles east of Huntsville He was well educated and enjoyed the reputation of being an excellent teacher He quit teaching however and settled on a small farm four miles east of Cave Springs on what is known as the Cove road running from Huntsville to Bellefonte Here he died when I was about seven years of age leaving my mother with five children John Ashworth a son by her first husband my brother William J Barron who now lives in Huntsville Alabama two sisters Tabitha and Nancy Jane and myself About nine years later our mother died In the meantime our half brother had arrived at man s estate and left home Soon after our mother s death we sold the homestead and each one went his or her way as it were the sisters living with our near by relatives until they married My brother and myself found employment in Huntsville and lived there Our older sister and her husband came to Texas in about the year 1857 and settled first in Nacogdoches County In the fall of 1859 I came to Texas to bring my then widowed sister and her child to my sister already here And so as the old song went I am away here in Texas

Charles Barron McIntosh,1996-01-01 Charles Barron McIntosh has devoted a lifetime of scholarship to the history of human activity on Nebraska s Sand Hills the spare beautiful land that occupies much of western Nebraska From carefully deciphering Native American occupancy through rigorous analysis of thousands of arrowheads to patiently combing through decades of courthouse land title transaction records McIntosh has mastered the sweep of centuries of human interaction with the land We learn how the land shapes humankind far more than pride would have us believe and we see that perhaps our real success lies in learning how to live with the land rather than attempting to master it The Nebraska Sand Hills reflects McIntosh s lifetime of learning reading questioning analyzing in short everything it means to be a scholar seldom are these efforts so well demonstrated His affection for this unique landscape is present on every page      The United States Army and Navy Journal and Gazette of the Regular and Volunteer Forces ,1896      Report of and Testimony United States.
