Frederick Schiller Faust, 1892-1944, was an American author known primarily for his thoughtful and literary Westerns under the pen name Max Brand. Brand also created the popular fictional character of young medical intern Dr James Kildare in a series of pulp fiction stories. Prolific in many genres, he wrote historical novels, detective mysteries, pulp fiction stories and many more. His love for mythology was a constant source of inspiration for his fiction and it has been speculated that these classical influences accounted in some part for his success as a popular writer. Many of his stories would later inspire films.
