Foundations for Sociorhetorical Exploration Vernon K. Robbins, Robert H. von Thaden

Jr., Bart B. Bruehler, 2016-09-02 Engaging resources for understanding the importance of bodies and spaces in producing and interpreting persuasive language This volume collects essays that represent intellectual milestones that are informing sociorhetorical interpretation during the twenty first century The essays are arranged into five parts 1 Topos 2 Cultural Geography and Critical Spatiality 3 Rhetorolects and Conceptual Blending 4 Rhetography and 5 Rhetorical Force Features Tools for integrating multiple approaches to biblical interpretation Resources that emphasize the importance of language that prompts mental pictures in effective rhetoric Essays from classicists rhetoricians and biblical scholars Imagining' Biblical Worlds David M. Gunn, Paula McNutt, 2002-12-01 The essays in this volume address the interface between biblical studies archaeology sociology and cultural anthropology celebrating the pioneering work of James Flanagan In particular this collection explores various ways in which the real ancient world is constructed by the modern critical reader with the aid of various theoretical and practical tools The contributors to this volume have all been involved with Flanagan and his projects during his academic career and the essays carry forward the important interdisciplinary agendas he has encouraged Part One deals with his recent interest in spatiality and Part Two with social and historical constructs This book in James Flanagan s honour represents a significant statement of research in an area of biblical and historical research that is increasingly important yet surprisingly under represented Wrongful Enrichment Nahel Asfour, 2017-09-21 This book analyses enrichment law and its development and underpinning in social culture within three geographical regions the United States western members of the European Union and the late Ottoman Empire These regions correspond though imperfectly with three different legal traditions the American continental and Islamic traditions The book argues that we should understand law as a mimetic artefact In so doing it explains how typical patterns and exemplary articulations of wrongful enrichment law capture and reiterate vocal cultural themes found in the respective regions The book identifies remarkable affinities between poetic tendencies structures and default dispositions of wrongful enrichment law and cultural world views It offers bold accounts of each region s law and culture providing fertile grounds for external and comparative elucidations of the legal doctrine Regulation and Compliance in the Atlantic Fisheries Stig S. Gezelius, 2012-12-06 This is a book about fishermen s reasons for obeying fisheries law The fish harvesting industry has become subject to state interference to an increasing extent over the past twenty years As natural resources become scarce and subsequent fisheries regulations abound the question of law abidingness is brought to the public agenda However there is still little empirical data as regards the dynamics of compliance in this field and this book aims to meet a demand for in depth knowledge The cases studied can be regarded as instances of economies dependent on the harvesting of natural resources for both household and the market and the study aims to contribute to the building of more adequate theory on the dynamics of compliance in such economies However focusing on a specific type of setting seldom constitutes a safe escape route for getting away from more pervasive sociological questions and it certainly does not in this case As any attempt to explain social phenomena this study is faced with the fundamental sociological question of how the acts of individuals can best be understood The question concerns the interface between the individual and the collectivity between collective morality and self interest It thus deals with classical sociological issues such as the nature and regulatory capacity of group norms and sanctions and the forms and roles of rationality and strategic action
