Social Work In Canada An Introduction By Hick 2nd Edition:

Case Critical Ben Carniol, 2005 A classic text in social work education Case Critical opens the door on Canada's social services from the perspective of social workers themselves and service users or cases people whose voices we rarely hear This completely revised and updated fifth edition includes new interviews and topics of discussion to reinforce Carniol's passionate case for social work as liberation practice Anarchist Perspectives for Social Work Alexander W. Sawatsky, 2024 This book seeks to rigorously and specifically engage with anarchist theory and find application to social work fields of practice and social work theory Social Work in an International Perspective Charlotte De Kock, Christian Van Kerckhove, Eva Vens, 2014-02-18 In this work academics and practitioners from all five continents highlight the history of the social work profession and its underlying academic and social paradigms The authors come from Australia Austria Brazil Belgium Canada Ghana Great Britain India New Zealand South Africa and the United States The structure of this work allows the reader to trace back the historical and political influences in the interpretation of social work in the authors' countries Special attention is given to the notions of human rights and social diversity Are human rights universal and which impact does this universality have on the social work profession How does categorical work relate to generalist practice and does this in its turn relate to the conception of diversity The authors approach these main queries in an exemplary and balanced manner using both theoretical analysis and case studies Canadian Social Policy Anne Westhues, 2006 What are the major issues confronting social policy makers today What theoretical perspectives shape our thinking about the causes of social problems and how we should respond What can we do to influence decision makers about which policy choice to make In this completely revised and updated edition of Canadian Social Policy a new generation of social policy analysts discusses these important questions Readers who are interested in discovering the current policy debates and who want to understand the policy making process at various levels of government as well as how they can influence the process and assess whether policies are working will find this book invaluable Social Work and the Environment Michael Kim Zapf, 2009 This groundbreaking new work provides a detailed and extensive comparison of how the physical environment has been conceptualized in social work and other professions and offers a new and attractive foundational metaphor for social work The author acknowledges the need for greater awareness and action regarding environmental impacts and the book promotes more comprehensive notions of responsibility identity and stewardship that lead to a dynamic metaphor of people as place as the foundation for relevant social work practice in the early 21st century Why is that a profession with a declared focus on person in environment has been so silent on the environmental crisis Mainstream social work theory has narrowed the understanding of environment to include merely the social environment but this approach is no longer sufficient for participation in multi disciplinary efforts to tackle urgent environmental issues Transformative notions of responsibility identity and stewardship have been developed on the fringes of our professional community rural remote social workers

Aboriginal social workers and international and spiritual social workers They must now move to the core of the profession

Walking This Path Together Jeannine Carrière, 2020-07-10T00:00:00Z Walking This Path Together is an edited collection devoted to improving the lives of children and families that come to the attention of child welfare authorities by demonstrating and advocating for socially just child welfare practices In this new updated edition authors provide special consideration to the historical and political context of child welfare in Canada and theoretical ideas and concrete practices that support practitioners educators and students who are looking for anti racist anti oppressive and anti colonial perspectives on child welfare practice Doing Anti-Oppressive Practice, Third Edition Donna

Baines, 2020-05-06T00:00:00Z This updated third edition of the immensely popular Doing Anti Oppressive Practice introduces students to anti oppressive social work its historical and theoretical roots and the specific contexts of anti oppressive social work practice Key to this practice is the understanding that the problems faced by an individual are rooted in the inequalities and oppression of the socio political structure of society rather than in personal characteristics or individual choices Moreover the contributors show that social justice and social change working against racism sexism and class oppression can and must be a key component of social work practice Drawing on concrete examples from specific practice contexts personal experience and case work including child welfare poverty mental health addictions and disability the contributors demonstrate how to translate social justice theory into everyday practice This new edition adds chapters on working with refugee immigrant and racialized families children older adults cognitive behavioural therapy and using social media as a tool for social change White Unwed Mother ; The adoption mandate in postwar Canada Valerie J Andrews, 2018-11-01 In postwar Canada having a child out of wedlock invariably meant being subject to the adoption mandate Andrews describes the mandate as a process of interrelated institutional power systems which together with socio cultural norms ideals of gender heteronormativity and emerging sociological and psychoanalytic theories created historically unique conditions in the post WWII decades wherein the white unmarried mother was systematically separated from her baby by means of adoption This volume uncovers and substantiates evidence of the mandate ultimately finding that at least 350 000 unmarried mothers in Canada were impacted Social Work Theories and Methods Mel Gray, Stephen A Webb, 2012-06-21 An excellent book that provides a good deal of valuable material to stimulate debate and to alert readers of the need to engage more critically with the wider world in which social work is located Professor Keith Popple Professor of Social Work London South Bank University This exciting book draws together the key contemporary theories theorists and perspectives used in social work and explains how they are applied in practice and critiqued by social workers It provides An outline of the contribution made by a key theorist theory or perspective to social work A selective bibliography of each thinker or approach A glossary defining key traditions with cross links to key theorists and perspectives A timeline of key publications Study questions at the end of each chapter The book will be valuable for undergraduate graduate students post qualifying students and researchers in social work Global Citizenship Education Eva Aboagye,S. Nombuso Dlamini,2021-03-01 The idea of citizenship and conceptions of what it means to be a good citizen have evolved over time On the one hand good citizenship entails the ability to live with others in diverse societies and to promote a common set of values of acceptance human rights and democracy On the other hand in order to compete in the global economy nations require a more innovative autonomous and reflective workforce meaning good citizens are also those who successfully participate in the economic development of themselves and their country These competing conceptions of good citizenship can result in people s participation in activities such as profit driven labor exploitation that contradict human rights and democratic tenants Thus global citizenship education is fundamental to teaching learning and redressing sociopolitical economic and environmental exploitation around the world Detailing the historical development of this field of study to achieve recognition Global Citizenship Education Challenges and Successes provides a critical discourse on global citizenship education GCE Authors in this collection discuss the underpinnings of global citizenship education via contemporary theories and methodologies as well as specific case studies that illustrate the application of GCE initiatives Editors Eva Aboagye and S Nombuso Dlamini aim to motivate learners and educators in post secondary institutions not only to understand the issues of social and economic inequality and political and civil unrest facing us but also to take action that will lead to equitable change in both local and global spaces Doing Anti-Oppressive Social Work, 4th ed. Donna Baines,Natalie Clark,Bindi Bennett,2022-11-15T00:00:00Z Doing Anti Oppressive Social Work brings together critical social work authors to passionately engage with pressing social issues and to pose new solutions practices and analysis in the context of growing inequities and the need for reconciliation decolonization and far reaching change The book presents strong intersectional perspectives and practice engaging closely with decolonization re Indigenization resistance and social justice Like the first three editions the 4th edition foregrounds the voices of those less heard in social work academia and to provide cutting edge critical reflection and skills including social work s relationship to the state and social work s responsibility to individuals communities and its own ethics and standards of practice Indigenous Black racialized transgender dis Ability and allied scholars offer identity engaged and intersectional analyses on a wide range of issues facing those working with intersectional cultural humility racism and child welfare poverty and single mothers critical gerontology and older people and immigrant and racialized families This 4th edition of Doing Anti Oppressive Social Work goes well beyond its predecessors updating and revising popular chapters but also problematizing AOP and engaging closely with new and emerging issues Case Critical Banakonda Kennedy-Kish (Bell),Raven Sinclair,Ben Carniol,Donna Baines,2017-02-06 This latest edition of Case Critical applies decolonized critical analysis to highlight what is often hidden from view for most Canadians the personal trauma and communal devastation inflicted on Indigenous people by past and present colonialism and the ways in which neoliberal tax cuts austerity and privatization create more inequality homelessness and despair among both Indigenous and non Indigenous people Social service providers

the authors argue should become social activists working in solidarity with progressive grassroots social movements in order to de legitimatize colonial and neoliberal policies
