Speak Rwanda Julian R. Pierce, 1999 A powerful and profoundly moving novel of the civil war in Rwanda told by men women and children on both sides

Rwanda Genocide Stories Nicki Hitchcott, 2015 A critical study of fictional responses by authors inside and outside Rwanda to the 1994 genocide

Historical Dictionary of Rwanda Aimable Twagilimana, 2015-11-06 Blessed with natural beauty and rich vegetation Rwanda is often called the land of a thousand hills le pays des mille collines a reference to its many lush and green rolling hills Moreover for many Rwandans at least in the past Rwanda in spite of its small size is vast in fact it means the universe This idyllic view however sharply contrasts with the sad history of ethnic strife that unfolded since the 1950s the 1959 Hutu Revolution followed by years of anti Tutsi pogroms undemocratic regimes the civil war of 1990 1994 and more significantly the April July 1994 genocide against the Tutsi and the killing of Hutu who opposed the killings The 1994 genocide against the Tutsi remains the most defining single event in contemporary Rwanda and many people in the world today know of this central African nation from the prism of extreme mass violence that sullied the end of the 20th century amid international indifference and has since haunted the world s conscience This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Rwanda contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 300 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Rwanda

Mother Jones Magazine , 1999-07 Mother Jones is an award winning national magazine widely respected for its groundbreaking investigative reporting and coverage of sustainability and environmental issues

Imagining the International Nesam McMillan, 2020-09-08 International crime and justice are powerful ideas associated with a vivid imagery of heinous atrocities injured humanity and an international community seized by the need to act Through an analysis of archival and contemporary data Imagining the International provides a detailed picture of how ideas of international crime crimes against all of humanity and global justice are given content foregrounding their ethical limits and potentials Nesam McMillan argues that dominant approaches to these ideas problematically disconnect them from the lived and the specific and foster distance between those who have experienced international crime and those who have not McMillan draws on interdisciplinary work spanning law criminology humanitarianism socio legal studies cultural studies and human geography to show how understandings of international crime and justice hierarchize spectacularize and appropriate the suffering of others and promote an ideal of justice fundamentally disconnected from life as it is lived McMillan critiques the mode of global interconnection they offer one which bears resemblance to past colonial global approaches and which seeks to foster community through the image of crime and the practice of punitive justice This book powerfully underscores the importance of the ideas of international crime and justice and their significant limits cautioning against their continued valorization

Bearing Witness Sherrill Grace, Patrick Imbert, Tiffany Johnstone, 2012-10-01 As the centenary of the Great War approaches citizens worldwide are reflecting on the history trauma and losses of a war torn twentieth century It is in remembering past wars that we are at once confronted with the profound horror and suffering of armed conflict and the increasing elusiveness of peace The contributors to Bearing Witness do not presume to resolve these troubling questions but provoke new kinds of reflection They explore literature the arts history language and popular culture to move beyond the language of rhetoric and commemoration provided by politicians and the military Adding nuance to discussions of war and peace this collection probes the understanding and insight created in the works of musicians dramatists poets painters photographers and novelists to provide a complex view of the ways in which war is waged witnessed and remembered A compelling and informative collection Bearing Witness sheds new light on the impact of war and the power of suffering heroism and memory to expose the human roots of violence and compassion Contributors include Heribert Adam Simon Fraser University Laura Brandon Carleton University Mireille Calle Gruber Universit La Sorbonne Nouvelle Janet Danielson Simon Fraser University Sandra Djwa emeritus Simon Fraser University Alan Filewod University of Guelph Sherrill Grace University of British Columbia Patrick Imbert University of Ottawa Tiffany Johnstone PhD Candidate University of British Columbia Martin L schnigg Graz University Lauren Lydic PhD University of Toronto Conny Steenman Marcusse Netherlands Jonathan Vance University of Western Ontario Aritha van Herk University of Calgary Peter C van Wyck Concordia University Christl Verduyn Mount Allison University and Anne Wheeler filmmaker

That the World May Know James Dawes,2009-06-30 What can we do to prevent more atrocities from happening in the future and to stop the ones that are happening right now That the World May Know tells the powerful and moving story of the successes and failures of the modern human rights movement Drawing on firsthand accounts from fieldworkers around the world the book gives a painfully clear picture of the human cost of confronting inhumanity in our day

Contemporary Francophone African Writers and the Burden of Commitment Odile Cazenave,Patricia Célérier,2011-02-02 By looking at engag e literature from the recent past when the francophone African writer was implicitly seen as imparted with a mission to the present when such authors usually aspire to be acknowledged primarily for their work as writers Contemporary Francophone African Writers and the Burden of Commitment addresses the current processes of canonization in contemporary francophone African literature Odile Cazenave and Patricia C l rier argue that aesthetic as well as political issues are now at the forefront of debates about the African literary canon as writers and critics increasingly acknowledge the ideology of form Working across genres but focusing on the novel the authors take up the question of renewed forms of commitment in this literature Their selected writers range from Mongo Beti Ousmane Semb ne and Aminata Sow Fall to Boubacar Boris Diop V ronique Tadjo Alain Mabanckou and L onora Miano among others

Inside the Hotel Rwanda Edouard Kayihura,Kerry Zukus,2014 The story of what happened in the Hotel des Mille Collines during Rwanda s genocide in 1994 as told by Edouard Kayihura one of the survivors of the incident Kayihura and other hotel refugees do not endorse Rusesabagina's version of the events as seen in the 2004 movie Hotel Rwanda Writing and Filming the Genocide of the Tutsis in Rwanda Alexandre Dauge-Roth, 2010-04-27 Writing and Filming the Genocide of the Tutsis in Rwanda Dismembering and Remembering Traumatic History is an innovative work in Francophone and African studies that examines a wide range of responses to the 1994 genocide of the Tutsis in Rwanda From survivor testimonies to novels by African authors to films such as Hotel Rwanda and Sometimes in April the arts of witnessing are varied comprehensive and compelling Alexandre Dauge Roth compares the specific potential and the limits of each medium to craft unique responses to the genocide and instill in us its haunting legacy In the wake of genocide urgent questions arise How do survivors both claim their shared humanity and speak the radically personal and violent experience of their past How do authors and filmmakers make inconceivable trauma accessible to a society that will always remain foreign to their experience How are we transformed by the genocide through these various modes of listening viewing and reading African

Migration and the Novel Jack Taylor, 2024 Explores pressing social and political issues such as racial identity environmental devastation human trafficking and political violence through the lens of novels of African migration The book details how authors such as Chika Unigwe Chris Abani Dinaw Mengestu In Koli Jean Bofane Boubacar Boris Diop and others develop the migratory imagination the creative means mobilized within their novels to expose the reader to contemporary social issues Drawing on and synthesizing a multitude of theoretical frameworks including ecocriticism postcolonial theory genre studies Black studies paratextual reading and political economy the book argues for the flexibility of the migration novel as a genre

The Seduction of Pessimism in the Novel Tom Ribitzky, 2024-10-31 The Seduction of Pessimism in the Novel Eros Futility and the Quarrel with Philosophy explores the novel as a response to the Platonic myth that narrates the rift at the core of our being Eros is supposedly the consolation for this rift but the history of the novel documents its expression as one of frustrated desires neuroses anxieties and cosmic doom As if repeating the trauma from that original split in Plato a split that also divides philosophy from literature the novel treats eros as a site of loss and grief from the medieval romances to Goethe Emily Bront Proust Mann Woolf D H Lawrence and Nabokov The pessimism that emerges from this eros tells us something fundamental about who we are something that only the novel can say At a time when both education and leisure are increasingly ignoring the novel's imperative to sit with ambiguity complexity and contingency and as we are hurtling toward a bleak future of climate catastrophe and political instability the novel is one of the last bastions of humanity even as it is quickly being eroded The Routledge Companion to Literature and Human Rights Sophia McClennen, Alexandra

Schultheis Moore, 2018-02-05 The Routledge Companion to Literature and Human Rights provides a comprehensive transnational and interdisciplinary map to this emerging field offering a broad overview of human rights and literature while providing innovative readings on key topics The first of its kind this volume covers essential issues and themes necessarily crossing disciplines between the social sciences and humanities Sections cover subjects with pieces on subjectivity humanity
