Speaking from the Heart Richard F. Ward, 2001-06-05 Preaching with Passion Alex D. Montoya, 2000 Foreword by John MacArthur An interactive guide to passionate preaching through spiritual power conviction compassion authority urgency brokenness your whole being and imagination The Journey and Promise of African American Preaching Kenya R. Schmit, 2008-11-01 This volume which launches the Engaging Worship series from Fuller Theological Seminary's Brehm Center for Worship Theology and the Arts offers a unique study of sermon delivery While many books offer advice on how to prepare write and preach a sermon this volume is distinctive in approaching the subject from the perspective of performance The authors who teach at a variety of seminaries and divinity schools across the nation examine how the sermon can bring God's word to life for the congregation In that sense they consider the idea of performance from a wide range of theological artistic and musical viewpoints These thoughtful essays will engage clergy and students with new ways of looking at the art of preaching Preaching Words John S. McClure, 2007-01-02 John McClure's Preaching Words highlights the most important ideas in homiletics and preaching offering short explanations of these ideas what scholars of preaching are saying about them and how they can help in today's preaching Topics range from elements of the sermon introduction body and conclusion to aspects of delivery types of preaching in different Christian traditions and theories of preaching Learning to Speak of God Mason Lee, 2023-11-16 What difference does the virtue of patience make for our ability to engage deeply in the practice of patience And how does patience help us grasp the something more that is at the heart of preaching excellence Learning to Speak of God argues that the virtue of patience is vital to our faithful and deep preaching practice that patience is a homiletical virtue In doing so this volume asks us to consider the role of character in preaching and the work of specific virtues as we go about our preaching practice Along the way it names the importance of patience as a long acknowledged Christian virtue and considers anew how this virtue shapes and empowers the practice of those who desire to preach in ways that participate in God's transforming work For those who study practice or care about preaching this volume identifies how any notion of what it means to preach well calls for those whose practice is infused with the virtue of patience Birthing the Sermon Jana Childers, 2001-05-31 Where do preachers get their ideas for sermons and how do they turn those ideas into great sermons week after week Sharing their experiences these dynamic women preachers take us through their process from conception through development to the actual delivery of the sermon and beyond Each chapter includes a sermon that illustrates the results of that preacher's labor of love Contributors include Barbara Shires Blaisdell Teresa L Fry Brown Jana Childers Linda L Clader

Yvette Flunder Mary G Graves Linda Carolyn Loving Barbara K Lundblad Karen Stokes Barbara Brown Taylor Mary Donovan Turner Margaret Moers Wenig God's Human Speech Charles L. Bartow, 1997 Charles Bartow's stated purpose in this practical theology of preaching is to encourage confidence in the Bible read and the sermon delivered as a means of grace in an age of radical criticism of Scripture creed and confession Preaching with Passion James T. The Culture of God Nadim Nassar, 2018-09-06 So much of the reporting of the Middle East at the moment reflects war and human misery it is inspiring to find in this thoughtful and engaging book a message of hope from what Fr Nadim calls that region of the world that God chose to live in when he took human form Edward Stourton The ultimate question of this book is why does it matter to me a human being to know the culture of God and what impact should that have on my own life and existence The culture of God is the antithesis of the culture of the Pharisees yet again and again we fall into the trap of condemning or excluding others Understanding the culture of God helps us to uncover God's image within us a shining jewel buried deep under the dirt of our selfishness and greed and helps us to shine as God intends us to re-forming our relationships with God and with each other in our amazingly diverse world It is as we read the Bible argues Father Nadim Nassar that we are invited to discover what the culture of God the community of love that makes up the Trinity looks like and how it might transform our lives and our faith But in order to do so we need to understand the culture of the Bible itself as well as the particular culture that forms our own worldview Ultimately it is Jesus who has direct access to the culture of God and so we also need to understand Jesus within his first century Levantine context Father Nadim Nassar is the Church of England's only Syrian priest and an outspoken advocate for western Christians to recognise the Middle Eastern roots of their faith The fresh and provocative reflections in The Culture of God his first book are informed by his experience of growing up in Syria and living through the conflicts in the region especially the civil wars in Lebanon and Syria Taking us on a journey through the mystery of the incarnation to Jesus' role as storyteller Al Hakawati his relationship with a disparate cast of people as narrated by the gospels and finally his death and resurrection Father Nadim unfolds for us the culture of God and what it can mean for a world that so desperately needs both freedom and a way to embrace diversity Fr Nadim's personal experience of the painful effects of war and conflict in the Middle East is an insightful lens into the brokenness of humanity that leads to the ongoing violation of the God-given sanctity and dignity of life At the same time the paradox of the Crucifixion and Christianity is presented as a key to understanding the restoration of that same humanity and the possibility of reconciliation with God and one another if the life and teachings of Christ are truly lived Archbishop Angaelos Coptic Orthodox Archbishop of London

A Way with Words Adam T. Trambley, 2020-04-17 A vital resource for pastors who seek to transform the culture of their church A Way with Words demonstrates the power of the weekly sermon to change the culture of a congregation Using the analogy of language learning Adam Trambley shows how a consistent ministry focus over an eighteen month period can help a church address areas that inhibit growth even as the pastor preaches on a diversity of subjects or uses a lectionary The author explores how important focused preaching can be to moving church development forward and offers a long term strategy particularly helpful for pastors looking to take full advantage of the opportunities their weekly sermons provide Each chapter includes discussion questions and practical exercises that can be used as part of a preaching group or seminary class or to aid the solo pastor in preparing dynamic sermons This is a topic not generally taught in seminary but vital for pastors who wear many hats as preachers pastoral caregivers and administrative leaders

Feelings and Faith Brian S. Borgman, 2009-04-01 Weaves together biblical exposition and practical application to demonstrate how emotions relate to the Christian life Emotions are a vital part of what it means to be a human being made in the image of God and redeemed in Jesus Christ But often our emotions confuse and mislead us So what is the proper place for emotions in a Christian's walk of faith In Feelings and Faith Brian Borgman draws from his extensive biblical knowledge and his pastoral experience to help readers understand both divine and human emotions After laying a biblical foundation he moves on to practical application focusing on how Christians can put to death ungodly emotional displays and also cultivate godly emotions This biblically informed practical volume is helpful for pastors counselors and serious minded Christians who wish to develop a full orbed faith that encompasses their emotional life

Passion in the Pulpit Jerry Vines, Adam B. Dooley, 2018-07-03 Biblical exegesis doesn't stop with the words alone Faithful preachers exegete the emotion of the text as well It's easy to let our own personalities dictate the emotional dimension of our sermons but the best preachers mirror the Bible's emotive intent in their sermons In Passion in the Pulpit Jerry Vines and Adam Dooley will teach you how to exegete not just the verbal content of Scripture but its emotional appeal as well They show you the role the Bible's emotional intent should play in each stage of sermon prep and Offer exegetical steps to discern the biblical pathos Teach you how to avoid manipulation while making your sermons emotional Help you determine the appropriate limitations of emotional appeal Give you verbal vocal and visual techniques to help convey the biblical emotional intent in your sermons When we elevate the Bible's emotional intent above our own we preach truth rather than personality
