Shaping the Stranger Churches Silke

Muylaert,2020-10-20 In Shaping the Stranger Churches Migrants in England and the Troubles in the Netherlands 1547 1585 Silke Muylaert explores the struggles confronting the Netherlandish churches in England when they engaged with or disengaged from the Reformation and the Revolt back in their homeland The churches were conflicted over the limits of religious zeal and over political loyalty How far could Reformers go to promote their faith without committing sin How much loyalty did they owe to Philip II and William of Orange While previous narratives ascribe a certain radicalism to the foreign churches Muylaert uncovers the difficulties confronting expatriate churches to provide support for Reformed churches or organise resistance against authorities back home Developing a Transformational English Ministry in Chinese Churches Matthew R. S. Todd,2016-07-25 If you want to discuss development and transitions of a growing English ministry you ve come to the right book If recruiting and training youth workers or development of worship discipleship and mentoring is your concern you ll find ideas here Many Chinese churches lack a long vision for their English ministry rooted in the Great commission The author explores maturing English congregational models the Silent Exodus and why partnering is imperative A celebration is given to the Chinese churches multicultural potential and challenge to reconcile the CBC hybrid culture This volume has one goal healthier churches to the glory of God The Outline of History Herbert George Wells,1926 Los Evangelicos Juan Francisco Martinez,Lindy Scott,2009-02-04 Los Evangelicos Portraits of Latino Protestantism in the United States is a small contribution to a much larger project It is part of CEHILA s the Commission for the Study of the History of the Church in Latin America and the Caribbean effort to write church history from the perspective of those who have had no voice those who have not been allowed to reflect on their own history It serves as a call to gather more snapshots of Latino Protestantism to organize these portraits according to different interpretive schemes to analyze the photos with their historical contexts in mind and to utilize these results to challenge the traditional ways in which the history of Christianity in the United States is generally told This book is proof that there are women and men in the Protestant Latino church in the United States with the ability to carry out these tasks Yet an exhaustive history of Latino Protestantism in the United States is still missing The Latino Protestant community needs people to rise up and interpret within wider contexts the stories told in this volume and elsewhere Telling our stories is both a testimony that God has been present in our pilgrimage and a confession regarding the future The same God who accompanied us this far will remain among us Thus we will keep collecting portraits and preparing to take new snapshots of whatever God may do in the future Our photo album closes at a dynamic moment for Latino Protestant churches in the United States From many different perspectives the authors of this book present a growing enthusiastic church ready to serve the Lord The portraits show how much has been done and yet how much remains to do There are many more stories to tell Religions of South Africa (Routledge Revivals) David Chidester,2014-06-27 First published in 1992 this title explores the religious diversity of South Africa organizing it into a single coherent narrative and providing the first comparative study and introduction to the topic David Chidester emphasizes the fact that the complex distinctive character of South African religious life has taken shape with a particular economic social and political context and pays special attention to the creativity of people who have suffered under conquest colonialism and apartheid With an overview of African traditional religion Christian missions and African innovations during the nineteenth century this reissue will be of great value to students of religious studies South African history anthropology sociology and political studies Reconciliation as a Controversial Symbol Demaine J. Solomons, 2024-07-31 Reconciliation is never simple and straightforward it is often tied to ideological conflict resulting in very different understandings of what this noble Christian ideal is all about In this important study Dr Demaine Solomons provides a thorough conceptual analysis of the term reconciliation within the context of Christian discourse in South Africa Analysing literature from the 1960s onwards particularly in theological reflections on social conflict within the country the author explores the diverse interpretations of reconciliation Drawing on the Christus Victor typology of atonement by Gustaf Aul n this study facilitates ongoing theological reflection by offering a constructive reinterpretation of reconciliation in contemporary South Africa By exploring creative uses of the reconciliation concept this study contributes to a nuanced understanding of its application in Christian contexts offering a more complete version of how South Africa s reconciliation narrative is understood and providing insight into how this theological concept might be understood in other social contexts Learning Morality, Inequalities, and Faith Hansjörg Dilger, 2021-12-16 Christian and Muslim schools have become important target points in families and pupils quests for new study opportunities and securing a good life in Tanzania These schools combine secular education with the moral self formation of young people triggering new realignments of the fields of education with interreligious co existence and class formation in the country s urban centres Hansj rg Dilger explores the emerging entanglements of faith morality and the educational market in Dar es Salaam thereby shedding light on processes of religious institutionalisation and their individual and collective embodiment By contextualising these dynamics through analysis of the politics of Christian Muslim relations in postcolonial Tanzania this book shows how the field of education has shaped the positions of these highly diverse religious communities in diverging ways In doing so Dilger suggests that students and teachers religious experience and practice in faith oriented schools are shaped by the search for socio moral belonging as well as by the power relations and inequalities of an interconnected world
