Speaking of God Robert D. Cornwall, 2023-01-30 Theology is a complex subject with many subdisciplines and is know for thick volumes with dense prose This book bucks that trend but hitting the basics briefly but carefully In this 50th volume of the Topical Line Drives series theologian and church historian Dr Robert D Cornwall provides a clear introduction to the basics His approach is not to give you a set of beliefs about God but rather to provide you with an introductory foundation to the way Christians talk about God Key concepts such as omnipotence impassibility transcendence immanence and yes love along with many others The content is brief but carefully designed as a launching pad for further study Read this book in order to make all your other theological reading more profitable It will keep you from missing out because some of the basic were passed over or were obscured by extensive discussion Besides individual reading this volume is useful as an introductory reading in theology courses or for small groups in churches who would like to better understand their other curricula and more profitably discuss their ideas about God

Love I. Dilman,2016-01-13 The book is concerned with questions about love questions about its many forms strands and aspects and the relation in which they stand to each other It is concerned with the way different aspects of sexual love conflict with each other with the way self regard and self interest can corrupt love and with spiritual love and its difficulties It seeks the views of some writers who have suggested some distinctive solutions to the existential problems that love poses in the face of its obstacles Plato Proust Sartre Freud D H Lawrence Erich Fromm C S Lewis Kierkegaard Simone Weil and Kahlil Gibran

The Gift of Love Andrew Staron,2017-02-01 The Gift of Love explores the intelligibility of Augustine s claim that we come to know and encounter God in and through our love Building upon the discoveries of recent scholarship Andrew Staron reads Augustine s De Trinitate not as presenting the Trinity as a concept to be grasped but rather as a rational study of the limits of theological language and the possibility of coming to know the Trinity because of those limits Human dependence on God s initiative indicates that the Trinitarian God of love is knowable only through attention to how God s self revelation transforms and saves us Therefore to see God one seeks to mark love s formative activity within the heart Jean Luc Marion s rigorous description of the gift of love offers to Augustine s theology a phenomenological texture by which the Trinitarian love given in revelation might be made incarnate in one s life The Gift of Love presents a reason for hope that while coming to know the Trinity that God is might be impossible for human beings it is made possible by God s antecedent gift of love given in the missions Son and Holy Spirit and iconically received in the particularity of one s own love

Out of Eden Paul W. Kahn, 2024-11-01 In Out of Eden Paul W Kahn offers a philosophical meditation on the problem of evil He uses the Genesis story of the Fall as the starting point for a profound articulation of the human condition Kahn shows us that evil expresses the rage of a subject who knows both that he is an image of an infinite God and that he must die Kahn s interpretation of Genesis leads him to inquiries into a variety of modern forms of evil including slavery torture and genocide Kahn takes issue with Hannah Arendt s theory of the banality of evil arguing that her view is an instance of the modern world s lost capacity to speak of evil Psychological social and political accounts do not explain evil as much as explain it away Focusing on the existential roots of evil rather than on the occasions for its appearance Kahn argues that evil originates in man s flight from death He urges us to see that the opposite of evil is not good but love while evil would master death love would transcend it Offering a unique perspective that combines political and cultural theory law and philosophy Kahn here continues his project of advancing a political theology of modernity

Two Kinds of Love Tuomo Mannermaa, Published in Finland in 1983 Two Kinds of Love is the second of Tuomo Mannermaa s provocative books offering a distinctly different interpretation of Martin Luther s theology In Two Kinds of Love Mannermaa unfolds Luther's understanding of love as the key to the reformer's theology of grace. Human love orients toward that which is already good and beautiful and as such comes into being only through the prestige and glory of the loved one. In contrast, God's love is a pure gift of grace which makes possible our love for God and for one another. The Nature of God as Revealed in Jesus Wm. Justice, 2005-02. Want to better understand God? God most fully revealed Himself in Jesus of Nazareth. While trying to follow the sequence of events of Jesus' life from His baptism to His crucifixion, resurrection, and ascension, the author examines Jesus in his effort to unveil the nature of God. Jesus was conceived by God's Holy Spirit, declared by God to be His Son at Jesus' baptism, and on the Mt. of Transfiguration. After having lived with Jesus for roughly three years, although no Christian doctrine had yet been established, the Apostle John saw that Jesus was God in human flesh. Yet two thousand years into the Christian era, many Christians live with an Old Testament perception of the nature of God, sounding and acting as if Jesus the Christ had never walked on planet Earth. Counterparts, Or, The Cross of Love Elizabeth Sara Sheppard, 1865. Love Songs Ted Gioia, 2015-01-14. For thousands of years, love songs have pervaded our musical lives. But no one has told their full story until now. Ted Gioia surveys the conflicts and controversies and traces the surprising path by which the love song has triumphed over all obstacles, emerging as a dominant commercial and cultural force.
