Special Blend Fusion Management From Asia And The West:

Special Blend Lynette Lithgow, 2000-04-12 Special Blend Fusion Management From Asia The West This superb book deserves to be on the must read list of Asian as well as non Asian decision makers To prepare successfully for the global market place of the future one must understand the past In this volume Ms Lithgow has presented the cultural political and the economic history as well as the business practices of the diverse economies of Asia and she has done that with clarity and rare insight Ambassador Linda Tsao Yang Former U S Executive Director Asian Development Bank A remarkable book I am impressed with the author s keen sense of observation and her candid yet fair elucidation of the Asian way of managing business In the process she introduces the reader to influential men and women who will shape the first decade of the new millennium in Asia A commendable work Dilip Ratha Senior Economist The World Bank This book is a good combination of history culture and current events It is highly enlightening as it answers many questions for me about why things are the way they are in the Asia Pacific Robert G Lees Secretary General Pacific Basin Economic Council Lynette Lithgow draws upon her extensive knowledge of Asia to write a highly articulate reassessment of the Asian economic model It is an optimistic analysis that challenges the view that Asia s economic landscape will become a mere Western duplicate in the aftermath of the financial crisis Desmond Supple Head of Research Asia Barclays Bank Special Blend is a must read for managers with multi country responsibilities and anyone seeking to understand the business transformation now underway in Asia James Castle Managing Director The Castle Group

Management in India Herbert J Davis, Samir R Chatterjee, Mark Heuer, 2006-01-04 Over the last decade globalization has had a tremendous and far reaching impact on Indian management culture policy and leadership styles Management in India presents the first comprehensive and indepth examination of the emerging changes in Indian management culture both at the macro and micro levels and their impact on domestic and multinational businesses based in India Drawing on the talent of outstanding contributors the editors of this book analyse how the Indian business scenario is changing rapidly while the attitude towards and orientation and practice of management has been correspondingly slow to change Indian managers have found it difficult to change policies both at the enterprise and the employee level to match an increasingly global and international environment

Global Leadership Marshall Goldsmith, Cathy Greenberg, Alastair Robertson, Maya Hu-Chan, 2003-04-28 The follow up to Marshall Goldsmith s 500 000 copy bestseller The Leader of the Future Global Leadership The Next Generation systematically identifies what tomorrow s leaders will need to know do and believe in order to successfully lead the global enterprise of the future Drawing on the results of an extraordinary 2 year Accenture study of emerging business leaders this book shows why the skills of today s global leaders won t be enough and why tomorrow s leaders won t resemble today s Goldsmith and his co authors first identify five new factors of leadership and their implications global thinking appreciation of diversity technological savvy a willingness to partner and an openness to sharing leadership They explain what it will mean to lead in an era where intellectual capital is the dominant source of value how to lead people whose backgrounds and values may be radically dissimilar from yours and why achieving personal self mastery is now a fundamental prerequisite for leading others From the evolution of federated semi autonomous organizational structures to the personal leadership challenges now arising from globalism this book offers unprecedented insights into the new challenges of leadership and what it will take to meet them
