Nisei linguists: Japanese Americans in the Military Intelligence Service During World War II (Paperbound) James C. McNaughton, 2006 This book tells the story of an unusual group of American soldiers in World War II second generation Japanese Americans Nisei who served as interpreters and translators in the Military Intelligence Service Preface The Geography of Injustice Barak Kushner, 2024-03-15 In The Geography of Injustice Barak Kushner argues that the war crimes tribunals in East Asia formed and cemented national divides that persist into the present day In 1946 the Allies convened the Tokyo Trial to prosecute Japanese wartime atrocities and Japan's empire At its conclusion one of the judges voiced dissent claiming that the justice found at Tokyo was only the sham employment of a legal process for the satisfaction of a thirst for revenge War crimes tribunals Kushner shows allow for the history of the defeated to be heard In contemporary East Asia a fierce battle between memory and history has consolidated political camps across this debate The Tokyo Trial courtroom as well as the thousands of other war crimes tribunals opened in about fifty venues across Asia were legal stages where prosecution and defense curated facts and evidence to craft their story about World War Two These narratives and counter narratives form the basis of postwar memory concerning Japan's imperial aims across the region The archival record and the interpretation of court testimony together shape a competing set of histories for public consumption The Geography of Injustice offers compelling evidence that despite the passage of seven decades since the end of the war East Asia is more divided than united by history The Southwest Pacific Campaign, 1941-1945 Eugene L. Rasor, 1996-09-24 Providing comprehensive coverage of the literature on the Southwest Pacific Campaign of World War II this book includes both a historiographical narrative and an annotated bibliography of over 1500 entries Part I the historiographical narrative includes a general survey and review of the works listed in Part II the annotated bibliography The historiographical survey features critical analysis and an evaluation of the literature makes an effort to place each work in context and also points to gaps in the literature The bibliography section includes descriptive and evaluative annotations Works cited in Part I are cross referenced to Part II The book reviews evaluates and integrates a comprehensive collection of popular and scholarly literature on the Southwest Pacific Campaign Coverage includes operations in all dimensions land sea air underwater and combinations of these The work covers personnel and their experiences and includes memoirs diaries autobiographies biographies and oral histories It also covers intelligence matters diplomacy logistics and supply and cultural aspects such as journalism fiction film and art Available archival research and library facilities and materials are also described There is an introductory historical essay a chronology and comprehensive indexes Special Agent in the Pacific, WW II William Brand Simpson, 1995 Military Memoirs Reading List 2014 The Journal of Military History, 1995 Includes scholarly articles and book reviews on topics in military history Philosophy of a Concerned Academic William Brand Simpson, 1995 American Book Publishing Record, 1995 The Cumulative Book Index, 1996 A world list of books in the English
