Modular Programming Languages Jürg Gutknecht, Wolfgang Weck, 2006-12-31 The circle is closed The European Modula 2 Conference was originally launched with the goal of increasing the popularity of Modula 2 a programming language created by Niklaus Wirth and his team at ETH Zurich as a successor of Pascal For more than a decade the conference has wandered through Europe passing Bled Slovenia in 1987 Loughborough UK in 1990 Ulm Germany in 1994 and Linz Austria in 1997 Now at the beginning of the new millennium it is back at its roots in Zurich Switzerland While traveling through space and time the conference has mutated It has widened its scope and changed its name to Joint Modular Languages Conference JMLC With an invariant focus though on modular software construction in teaching research and out there in industry This topic has never been more important than today ironically not because of insufficient language support but quite on the contrary due to a truly confusing variety of modular concepts offered by modern languages modules packages classes and components the newest and still controversial trend The recent notion of component is still very vaguely defined so vaguely in fact that it almost seems advisable to ignore it Wirth in his article Records Modules Objects Classes Components in honor of Hoare's retirement in 1999 Clarification is needed Applied Parallel and Scientific Computing Pekka Manninen, Per Öster, 2013-02-12 This volume constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 11th International Conference on Applied Parallel and Scientific Computing PARA 2012 held in Helsinki Finland in June 2012 The 35 revised full papers presented were selected from numerous submissions and are organized in five technical sessions covering the topics of advances in HPC applications parallel algorithms performance analyses and optimization application of parallel computing in industry and engineering and HPC interval methods In addition three of the topical minisymposia are described by a corresponding overview article on the minisymposia topic In order to cover the state of the art of the field at the end of the book a set of abstracts describe some of the conference talks not elaborated into full articles Special Edition Using Active Server Pages Scot Johnson, Keith Ballinger, Davis Howard Chapman, 1997 Presenting readers with an up to date look at how to create dynamic personalized web sites for both business and personal use this text focuses more on implementing Active Server Pages rather than on the theory behind working with Active Server Pages It includes new functionality available with the release of Microsoft's Internet Information Server 4.0

Integrated Network Management VIII Germán Goldszmidt, Schönwälder Jürgen, 2013-06-05 Welcome to 1M 2003 the eighth in a series of the premier international technical conference in this field As IT management has become mission critical to the economies of the developed world our technical program has grown in relevance strength and quality Over the next few years leading IT organizations will gradually move from identifying infrastructure problems to providing business services via automated intelligent management systems To be successful these future management systems must provide global scalability for instance to support Grid computing and large numbers of pervasive devices In Grid environments organizations can pool desktops and servers dynamically creating a virtual environment with huge processing power and new management challenges As the number type and criticality of devices connected to the Internet grows new innovative solutions are required to address this unprecedented scale and management complexity The growing penetration of technologies such as WLANs introduces new management challenges particularly for performance and security Management systems must also support the management of business processes and their supporting technology infrastructure as integrated entities They will need to significantly reduce the amount of adventitious bootless data thrown at consoles delivering instead a cogent view of the system state while leaving the handling of lower level events to self managed multifarious systems and devices There is a new emphasis on autonomic computing building systems that can perform routine tasks without administrator intervention and take prescient actions to rapidly recover from potential software or hardware failures Multimedia '99 N. Correia, T. Chambel, G. Davenport, 2012-12-06 Multimedia 99 covers technological and scientific areas of media production processing and delivery 24 contributions from research laboratories and universities worldwide give a broad perspective on multimedia research with a special focus on media convergence The topics treated in this volume image and sound content analysis and processing paradigms and metaphors for multimedia authoring and display applications such as education or entertainment and multimedia content authentication and security

Collaboration between Human and Artificial Societies Julian A. Padget, 2006-12-31 The full title of the HCM network project behind this volume is VIM A virtual multicomputer for symbolic applications The three strands which bound the network together were parallel systems advanced compilation techniques and artificial intelligence with a common substrate in the programming language Lisp The initial aim of the project was to demonstrate how the combination of these three technologies could be used to build a virtual multicomputer an ephemeral persistent machine of available heterogeneous computing resources for large scale symbolic applications The system would support a virtual processor abstraction to distribute data and tasks across the multicomputer the actual physical composition of which may change dynamically Our practical objective was to assist in the prototyping of dynamic distributed symbolic applications in artificial intelligence using whatever resources are available probably networked workstations so that the developed program could also be run on more exotic hardware without reprogramming What we had not foreseen at the outset of the project was how agents would unify the strands at the application level as distinct from the system level outlined above It was as a result of the agent in unience that we held two workshops in May and December 1997 with the title Collaboration between human and artificial societies The papers collected in this volume are a selection from presentations made at those two workshops In each case the format consisted of a number of invited speakers plus presentations from the network partners
