imagining a world free from violence oppression and exploitation An examination of some of these constructive anarchist visions which provide examples of politics grounded in everyday resistance offers insights into real world attempts to radically transform social relations in the here and now of everyday life

Authoritarian Capitalism in the Age of Globalization Peter Bloom,2016-03-25 Exploring the rise of authoritarian capitalism this book offers a fresh perspective on politics and economics in the present age of globalization It asks the crucial question of whether individuals and nations can break free from the grip of authoritarian capitalism in the twenty first century Peter Bloom includes a detailed and in depth analysis of how marketization is promoting political authoritarianism across the world He tells a story of authoritarian progress where capitalist prosperity can only be delivered by the coercive rule of self disciplining nations and disciplining trans national institutions and in which capitalist sovereignty is replacing liberal and social democracy In doing so Bloom helps readers rethink the structural as well as discursive role of sovereign power within capitalism showing the ways the free market relies upon a range of authoritarian political fantasies not just for its growth but its very survival

Art and Identity at the Water's Edge Tricia Cusack, 2017-07-05 The water's edge whether shore or riverbank is a marginal territory that becomes invested with layers of meaning The essays in this collection present intriguing perspectives on how the water's edge has been imagined and represented in different places at various times and how this process contributed to the formation of social identities Art and Identity at the Water's Edge focuses upon national coastlines and maritime heritage on rivers and seashore as regions of liminality and sites of conflicting identities and on the edge as a tourist setting Such themes are related to diverse forms of art including painting architecture maps photography and film Topics range from the South African seaside resort of Durban to the French Riviera The essays explore successive ideological mappings of the Jordan River and how Czech cubist architecture and painting shaped a new nationalist reading of the Vltava riverbanks They examine post Hurricane Katrina New Orleans as a filmic spectacle that questions assumptions about American identity and the coast depicted as a site of patriotism in nineteenth century British painting The collection demonstrates how waterside structures such as maritime museums and lighthouses and visual images of the water's edge have contributed to the construction of cultural and national identities

The Cinema of Nuri Bilge Ceylan Bülent Diken, Graeme Gilloch, Craig Hammond, 2017-12-02 Film maker Nuri Bilge Ceylan's meditative visually stunning contributions to the New Turkish Cinema have marked him out as a pioneer of his medium Reaping success from his prize winning breakout film Uzak 2002 and from later festival favourites Once Upon a Time in Anatolia 2011 and Winter Sleep 2014 he has quickly established himself as an original and provocative writer director and producer of 21st century cinema In an age where Turkey's modernisation has created societal tensions and departures from past tradition Ceylan's films present a cinema of dislocation and a vision of nostalgia understood as homesickness sick of being away from home sick of being at home This book offers an overdue study of Ceylan's work and a critical examination of the principle themes therein In particular chapters focus on time and space melancholy and loneliness absence rural and urban experience and notions of paradox as explored through films which are often slow and uncompromising in their pessimistic outlook Moving on from the tendency to situate Ceylan's oeuvre exclusively within the canon of New Turkish Cinema one of this book's major achievements is also to assess the influence of classic European thought literature and film and how such a notably minimal and in many ways nationally specific approach translates to an increasingly transnational context for film This will prove an important book for film students and scholars and those interested in Turkish visual culture

Postcolonial Imaginings David Punter, 2000 This deeply engaging historically and culturally informed book provides new perspectives on a wide range of writers and at the same time provides a radically new development of many of the most pertinent issues in the field of postcolonial writing and theory It constitutes a major new engagement between the postcolonial and a conception of the literary that is richly innovative in its deployment of psychoanalytic deconstructive and other approaches to the text The book begins with some brief background to the issue of decolonization and its contemporary effects It is informed throughout by a clear sense of literary and political context within which chosen texts by well known writers Derek Walcott Chinua Achebe Edward Kamau Brathwaite as well as less well known ones Joan Riley Susan Power Abdulrazak Gurnah and writers not often seen in a postcolonial context James Kelman Seamus Deane Hanif Kureishi can be situated The chapters that follow are based around themes such as violent geographics hallucination dream and the exotic mourning and melancholy diaspora and exile delocalization and the alibi This profoundly new approach to the complexities of the postcolonial allows the reader to appreciate some of the richness but at the same time the political and cultural ambivalence which underlies postcolonial writing Throughout the book David Punter continually questions as one would expect from his many previous books the definition and scope of the postcolonial It is seen throughout as a phenomenon not restricted to the ex or neo colonies but as a key characterisation of all our lives at the beginning of the twenty first century It is an indissoluble part of the development of national imaginings and at the same time an alibi for the emergence of a violently assertive new world order committed to the management and obliteration of difference By juxtaposing texts from different cultural traditions and topographies from Things Fall Apart to The Bone People from Anot Neo-Victorianism
