Jane Austen, David M. Shapard

The Art Of Persuasion A Study Of Six Novels:

The Art of Persuasion Lars Hartveit,1977 Studies include Pamela Silas Marner The Mayor of Casterbridge A passage to India Brighton Rock A clockwork orange Art of Persuasion Lars Hartveit,1977-11-01 The Art of Sympathy in Fiction Howard Sklar,2013 Focuses on the sympathetic effects of stories and the possible ways these feelings can contribute to what has been called the moral imagination This book examines the dynamics of readers beliefs regarding fictional characters and the influence of those impressions on the emotions that readers experience The Rhetoric of Fiction Wayne C. Booth,2010-05-15 The first edition of The Rhetoric of Fiction transformed the criticism of fiction and soon became a classic in the field One of the most widely used texts in fiction courses it is a standard reference point in advanced discussions of how fictional form works how authors make novels accessible and how readers recreate texts and its concepts and terms such as the implied author the postulated reader and the unreliable narrator have become part of the standard critical lexicon For this new edition Wayne C Booth has written an extensive Afterword in which he clarifies misunderstandings corrects what he now views as errors and sets forth his own recent thinking about the rhetoric of fiction The other new feature is a Supplementary Bibliography prepared by James Phelan in consultation with the author which lists the important critical works of the past twenty years two decades that Booth describes as the richest in the history of the subject Sense and Transcendence Ortwin de Graef,1995 Edwardian and Georgian Fiction Sterling Professor of Humanities Harold Bloom,2009 This volume examines the great writers of the late 19th and early 20th centuries from Thomas Hardy to Joseph Conrad Passion and Virtue David Blewett,2001-01-01 Richardson s novels reveal the conflict of human passion in all its aspects love lust and suffering This conflict is considered and critically analysed in fourteen essays all originally published in Eighteenth Century Fiction Windows to the World: Literature in Christian Perspective Leland Ryken,2000-04-10 This is a teacher s book written by an able teacher Most people are interested in literature because of a deep love for literature itself They want to understand the reasons for that love Ryken helps us do this but he also helps Christians understand and validate their love for literature Ryken has also provided a solid means for non Christians to understand a Christian perspective on literature It Windows to the World comes closer to defining the goal and task of the teacher of literature than any work I have read Christianity and Literature Graphing Jane Austen J. Carroll,J. Gottschall,John A. Johnson,Daniel J. Kruger,2015-12-29 This book helps to bridge the gap between science and literary scholarship Building on findings in the evolutionary human sciences the authors construct a model of human nature in order to illuminate the evolved psychology that shapes the organization of characters in nineteenth century British novels from Jane Austen to E M Forster Reading Human Nature Joseph Carroll,2011-03-01 As the founder and leading practitioner of literary Darwinism Joseph Carroll remains at the forefront of a major movement in literary studies Signaling key new developments in this approach Reading Human Nature contains trenchant theoretical essays innovative empirical research sweeping surveys of intellectual history and sophisticated interpretations of specific literary works including The Picture of Dorian Gray Wuthering Heights The Mayor of Casterbridge and Hamlet Evolutionists in the social sciences have succeeded in delineating basic motives but have given far too little attention to the imagination Carroll makes a compelling case that literary Darwinism is not just another school or movement in literary theory It is the moving force in a fundamental paradigm change in the humanities a revolution Psychologists and anthropologists have provided massive evidence that human motives and emotions are rooted in human biology Since motives and emotions enter into all the products of a human imagination humanists now urgently need to assimilate a modern scientific understanding of human nature Integrating evolutionary social science with literary humanism Carroll offers a more complete and adequate understanding of human nature

Author, Text, and Reader in the Novels of Carlos Fuentes Kristine Ibsen, 1993 Author Text and Reader in the Novels of Carlos Fuentes focuses on the problem of communication as one of the central preoccupations that remains consistent throughout the literary production of Mexican novelist Carlos Fuentes This preoccupation manifests itself at the discursive level of the author's fiction as he continually seeks different means of expression from novel to novel

Concentrating on four novels that illustrate this aesthetic Cambio de piel 1967 Terra Nostra 1975 Una familia lejana 1980 and Crist bal Nonato 1987 this study examines the means of textualization by which Fuentes activates his reader and how this coincides with his notions of the role of literature in society

The Art of Indirection in British Espionage Fiction Robert Lance Snyder, 2011-07-25 In contrast to the classical detective story the spy novel tends to be considered a suspect somewhat subversive genre While previous studies have focused on its historical thematic and ideological dimensions this critical work examines British espionage fiction's unique narrative form which is typically elliptical oblique and recursive Featured works include eighteen novels by Eric Ambler Graham Greene Len Deighton John le Carre Stella Rimington and

Charles Cumming most of which exemplify the existential or serious spy thriller Half of these texts pertain to the Cold War era and the other half to its aftermath in the so called Age of Terrorism American Studies in Scandinavia ,1974 The Publishers Weekly ,1893 Thomas Hardy's The Mayor of Casterbridge Harold Bloom,1988 A collection of six critical essays on the Hardy novel arranged in chronological order of their original publication
