The Artist At Work On The Working Methods Of William Coldstream And Michael Andrews:

The Artist at Work Colin St. John Wilson, 1999 This is the first full scale study to focus on the working methods of artists by direct observation in this case two leading members of the School of London William Coldstream and Michael Andrews This comparative analysis contains hitherto unpublished material by the artists and includes the author's copious notes and his own sketches and photographs of the artists at work painting portraits of him This study highlights the very different working methods of the two artists and yet shows their concern to represent through paint alone the reality of human presence Book Jacket

London Calling Elena Crippa, Catherine Lampert, 2016-07-26 Between the postwar years and the 1980s in Britain and in particular in London a number of figurative painters simultaneously reinvented the way in which life is represented in art Focusing on the depiction of the human figure these artists rendered the frailty and vitality of the human condition Offering a fresh account of developments that have since characterized postwar British painting this catalogue focuses on Michael Andrews Frank Auerbach Francis Bacon Lucian Freud R B Kitaj and Leon Kossoff artists who worked in close proximity as they were developing new forms of realism If for many years their efforts seemed to clash with dominant tendencies reassessment in recent decades has afforded their work a central position in a richer and more complex understanding of postwar British art and culture Rigorous and gorgeously illustrated the essays reflect on the parallel yet diverse trajectories of these artists their friendships and mutual admiration and the divergence of their practice from the discourse of high modernism The authors seek to dispel the notion of their work as a uniquely British endeavor by highlighting the artists international outlook and ongoing dialogue with contemporary European and American painters as well as masters from previous generations This book is published to coincide with an exhibition at the J Paul Getty Museum from July 26 through November 13 2016

Eileen Hogan Elisabeth R. Fairman, Eileen Hogan, Duncan Robinson, Roderick Conway Morris, Todd Longstaffe-Gowan, Sarah Victoria Turner, 2019-01-01 Focusing on Eileen Hogan's depictions of enclosed green spaces and portraiture this sumptuously illustrated catalogue offers an intimate glimpse into the artist's work and practice
