What Are We For? Eleanor Roosevelt, 2019-11-05 From one of the world's most celebrated and admired public figures Eleanor Roosevelt a collection of her most treasured sayings the perfect gift for Mother's Day graduation and a new generation of feminists With a foreword by Speaker Nancy Pelosi No one can make you feel inferior without your consent We've all heard this powerful Eleanor Roosevelt adage it is perhaps one of her best known A wise leader she knew the power of words and throughout her work as First Lady a UN representative and advocate for human rights women youth minorities and workers she was a prolific writer and speaker Eleanor's wise words on government race and ethnicity freedom democracy economics women and gender faith children war peace and our everyday lives leap off the page in memorable quotations such as One's philosophy is not best expressed in words it is expressed in the choices one makes Progress is rarely achieved by indifference I am convinced that every effort must be made in childhood to teach the young to use their own minds For one thing is sure If they don't make up their minds someone will do it for them Unless people are willing to face the unfamiliar they cannot be creative in any sense for creativity always means the doing of the unfamiliar the breaking of new ground and these are just a few At this politically and culturally divided moment in our nation's history Eleanor Roosevelt's quotes have an even deeper resonance as moving and insightful as they are timely What Are We For is a celebration of a cultural icon and a powerful reminder of Eleanor Roosevelt's extraordinary contributions to our country and the world Eleanor Roosevelt Barbara A.
