The Autobiography of Nicholas Said Nicholas Said, Precious Rasheeda Muhammad, 2001-01-01      The Autobiography Of Nicholas Said Nicholas Said, 2014-04-24 The narrative of Nicholas Said is one of the most impressive among slaves accounts Said was born as a free man in Africa enslaved when 14 years old and traveled to five continents and countless countries He learned seven languages and finally settled in Alabama This is an autobiography of his incredible life

African Muslims in Antebellum America Allan D. Austin, 2012-11-12 A condensation and updating of his African Muslims in Antebellum America A Sourcebook 1984 noted scholar of antebellum black writing and history Dr Allan D Austin explores via portraits documents maps and texts the lives of 50 sub Saharan non peasant Muslim Africans caught in the slave trade between 1730 and 1860 Also includes five maps      A History of Islam in America Kambiz GhaneaBassiri, 2010-04-19

Muslims began arriving in the New World long before the rise of the Atlantic slave trade Kambiz GhaneaBassiri's fascinating book traces the history of Muslims in the United States and their different waves of immigration and conversion across five centuries through colonial and antebellum America through world wars and civil rights struggles to the contemporary era The book tells the often deeply moving stories of individual Muslims and their lives as immigrants and citizens within the broad context of the American religious experience showing how that experience has been integral to the evolution of American Muslim institutions and practices This is a unique and intelligent portrayal of a diverse religious community and its relationship with America It will serve as a strong antidote to the current politicized dichotomy between Islam and the West which has come to dominate the study of Muslims in America and further afield      The Cambridge Companion to Transnational American Literature Yogita Goyal, 2017-02-15 This book provides a new map of American literature in the global era analyzing the multiple meanings of transnationalism      Liberated Africans and the Abolition of the Slave

Trade, 1807-1896 Richard Anderson, Henry B. Lovejoy, 2020 Interrogates the development of the world's first international courts of humanitarian justice and the subsequent liberation of nearly two hundred thousand Africans in the nineteenth century      American and Muslim Worlds before 1900 John Ghazvinian, Arthur Mitchell Fraas, 2020-02-06 American and Muslim Worlds before 1900 challenges the prevailing assumption that when we talk about American and Muslim worlds we are talking about two conflicting entities that came into contact with each other in the 20th century Instead this book shows there is a long and deep seam of history between the two which provides an important context for contemporary events and is also important in its own right Some of the earliest American Muslims were the African slaves working in the plantations of the Carolinas and Latin America Thomas Jefferson a slaveholder himself was frequently called an infidel and suspected of hidden Muslim sympathies by his opponents Whether it was the sale of American commodities in Central Asia Ottoman consuls in Washington orientalist themes in American fiction the uprisings of enslaved Muslims in Brazil or the travels of American missionaries in the Middle East there was no shortage of opportunities for Muslims and inhabitants of the Americas to meet interact and shape one another from an early period

Memories of Carolinian Immigrants Andreas

Lixl,2009-05-16 This is a book about identity and remembrance This anthology presents personal narratives and historical photographs that illuminate the diversity of immigrant experiences in North and South Carolina since 1700 The broad focus of the book encompasses all walks of life and documents three centuries of social political artistic and cultural history The chapters follow historical timelines starting with colonial experiences leading up to the American Revolution followed by immigrant accounts before and during the Civil War experiences in the New South and memories of twentieth century immigrants and the most recent arrivals The common denominators of the autobiographies diaries and letters hinge on the confluence of American patriotism and immigrant pride coupled with old world loyalties and new world ambitions that reflect the demographic shift from European to Asian and Hispanic immigrants in the American Southeast

The Black Eunuchs of the Ottoman Empire George H. Junne,2016-06-22 The Chief Black Eunuch appointed personally by the Sultan had both the ear of the leader of a vast Islamic Empire and held power over a network of spies and informers including eunuchs and slaves throughout Constantinople and beyond The story of these remarkable individuals who rose from difficult beginnings to become amongst the most powerful people in the Ottoman Empire is rarely told George Junne places their stories in the context of the wider history of African slavery and places them at the centre of Ottoman history The Black Eunuchs of the Ottoman Empire marks a new direction in the study of courtly politics and power in Constantinople

The Cambridge Companion to American Islam Juliane Hammer,Omid Safi,2013-08-12 The Cambridge Companion to American Islam offers a scholarly overview of the state of research on American Muslims and American Islam The book presents the reader with a comprehensive discussion of the debates challenges and opportunities that American Muslims have faced through centuries of American history This volume also covers the creative ways in which American Muslims have responded to the myriad serious challenges that they have faced and continue to face in constructing a religious praxis and complex identities that are grounded in both a universal tradition and the particularities of their local contexts The book introduces the reader to some of the many facets of the lives of American Muslims that can only be understood in their interactions with Islam s entanglement in the American experiment

African Americans, Death, and the New Birth of Freedom Ashley Towle,2022-11-22 This innovative book examines how African Americans in the South made sense of the devastating loss of life unleashed by the Civil War and emancipation During and after the war African Americans died in vast numbers from battle disease and racial violence While freedom was a momentous event for the formerly enslaved it was also deadly Through an investigation into how African Americans reacted to and coped with the passing away of loved ones and community members Ashley Towle argues that freedpeople gave credence to their free status through their experiences with mortality African Americans harnessed the power of death in a variety of arenas including within the walls of national and private civilian cemeteries in applications for widows pensions in the pulpits of black churches around s ance tables on the witness stand at congressional hearings and in the columns of African American newspapers In the process of mourning the demise of kith and kin black people reconstituted their families forged communal bonds and staked claims to citizenship civil rights and racial justice from the federal government In a society upended by civil war and emancipation death was political

Comparative and Global Framing of Enslavement Stephan Conermann, Youval Rotman, Ehud R. Toledano, Rachel Zelnick-Abramovitz, 2023-09-05 The study of enslavement has become urgent over the last two decades Social scientists legal scholars human rights activists and historians who study forms of enslavement in both modern and historical societies have sought and often achieved common conceptual grounds thus forging a new perspective that comprises historical and contemporary forms of slavery What could certainly be termed a turn in the study of slavery has also intensified awareness of enslavement as a global phenomenon inviting a comparative trans regional approach across time space divides Though different aspects of enslavement in different societies and eras are discussed each of the volume's three parts contributes to and has benefitted from a global perspective of enslavement The chapters in Part One propose to structure the global examination of the theoretical ideological and methodological aspects of the global local and glocal Part Two Regional and Trans regional Perspectives of the Global presents through analyses of historical case studies the link between connectivity and mobility as a fundamental aspect of the globalization of enslavement Finally Part Three deals with personal points of view regarding the global local and glocal Grosso modo the contributors do not only present their case studies but attempt to demonstrate what insights and added value explanations they gain from positioning their work vis vis a broader big picture

Mahommah Gardo Baquaqua Paul E. Lovejoy, Nielson Bezerra, 2025-04-23 A literate Muslim born between 1820 and 1830 in present day Benin Mahommah Gardo Baquaqua was enslaved in West Africa and forcibly moved to Brazil in 1845 During a trip to New York City in 1847 he escaped from his master and fled to Haiti where he converted to Christianity When he eventually returned to the United States he enrolled in New York Central College Baquaqua published his autobiography the only known narrative by a former Brazilian slave in 1854 and traveled to England with the intention of returning to Africa He apparently achieved this goal by the early 1860s when his paper trail disappears Lovejoy and Bezerra's analysis of this remarkable autobiography the only known narrative by a former Brazilian slave illuminates what Baquaqua's home in Africa was like and examines African slavery in mid nineteenth century Brazil It also offers an Atlantic perspective on resistance to slavery in the Americas in the era of the Fugitive Slave Law of 1850

Narratives of Dependency Elke Brüggen, Marion Gymnich, 2024-05-20 Given that strong asymmetrical dependencies have shaped human societies throughout history this kind of social relation has also left its traces in many types of texts Using written and oral narratives in attempts to reconstruct the history of asymmetrical dependency comes along with various methodological challenges as the 15 articles in this interdisciplinary volume illustrate They focus on a wide range of different factual and fictional text types including inscriptions from Egyptian tombs biblical stories novels from antiquity the Middle High German Rolandslied Ottoman court records captivity narratives travelogues the American gift book The Liberty Bell and oral narratives by Caribbean Hindu women Most of the texts discussed in this volume have so far received comparatively little attention in slavery and dependency studies The volume thus also seeks to broaden the archive of texts that are deemed relevant in research on the histories of asymmetrical dependencies bringing together perspectives from disciplines such as Egyptology theology literary studies history and anthropology

Routledge Handbook of Islam in the West Roberto Tottoli, 2022-02-21 With new topics and contributions this updated second edition discusses the history and contemporary presence of Islam in Europe and America The book debates the relevance and multi faceted participation of Muslims in the dynamics of Western societies challenging the changing perception on both sides Collating over 30 chapters written by experts from around the world the volume presents a wide range of perspectives Case studies from the Muslim presence in the Iberian Peninsula between the Middle Ages and the modern age set off the Handbook along with an outline of Muslims in America up to the twentieth century The second part covers concepts around new conditions in terms of consolidating identities the emergence of new Muslim actors the appearance of institutions and institutional attitudes the effects of Islamic presence on the arts and landscapes of the West and the relational dynamics like ethics and gender Exploring the influence of Islam particularly its impact on society culture and politics this interdisciplinary volume is a key resource for policymakers academics and students interested in the history of Islam religion and the contemporary relationship between Islam and the West American Book Publishing Record ,2002

Muslim Americans in the Military Edward E. Curtis, 2016-10-17 Stories of Muslims who have served dating back to the Revolutionary War Since the Revolutionary War Muslim Americans have served in the United States military risking their lives to defend a country that increasingly looks at them with suspicion and fear In Muslim Americans in the Military Centuries of Service Edward E Curtis illuminates the long history of Muslim service members who have defended their country and struggled to practice their faith With profiles of soldiers marines airmen and sailors since the dawn of our country Curtis showcases the real stories of Muslim Americans from Omer Otmen who fought fiercely against German forces during World War I to Captain Humayun Khan who gave his life in Iraq in 2004 These true stories contradict the narratives of hate and fear that have dominated recent headlines revealing the contributions and sacrifices that these soldiers have made to the United States

Thunder at the Gates Douglas R Egerton, 2016-11-01 An intimate authoritative history of the first black soldiers to fight in the Union Army during the Civil War Soon after Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation on January 1 1863 abolitionists began to call for the creation of black regiments At first the South and most of the North responded with outrage southerners promised to execute any black soldiers captured in battle while many northerners claimed that blacks lacked the necessary courage Meanwhile Massachusetts long the center of abolitionist fervor launched one of the greatest experiments in American history In Thunder at the Gates Douglas Egerton chronicles the formation and battlefield triumphs of the 54th and 55th Massachusetts Infantry and the 5th Massachusetts

Cavalry regiments led by whites but composed of black men born free or into slavery He argues that the most important battles of all were won on the field of public opinion for in fighting with distinction the regiments realized the long derided idea of full and equal citizenship for blacks A stirring evocation of this transformative episode Thunder at the Gates offers a riveting new perspective on the Civil War and its legacy      Reading James Missiologically Abeneazer G. Urga, Jessica A. Udall, Edward L. Smither, 2025-02-18 What can James teach us about mission While books on a New Testament theology of mission abound most of them focus only on certain tried and true books and passages while often ignoring the contribution of the General Epistles In Reading Hebrews Missiologically and Reading 1 Peter Missiologically we began to address this gap in missiological scholarship and we seek to continue in the same vein in this work on the book of James Reading James Missiologically explores the missionary dimensions of the Epistle of James through three parts the missionary motive is the reason behind missionary efforts the why the missionary message reveals what missionaries communicate the what and the missionary methods outline strategies for mission the how The global contributors examine James s profound call to action among the poor and inspire believers toward holistic engagement with the world as doers of the word not hearers only Jas 1 22 ESV      Black Routes to Islam M. Marable, 2009-08-03 Starting with 19th century narratives of African American travelers to the Holy Land the following chapters probe Islam s role in urban social movements music and popular culture relations between African Americans and Muslim immigrants and the racial politics of American Islam with the ongoing war in Iraq
