Suárez,2022-08-15 Pop Modernism examines the popular roots of modernism in the United States Drawing on a wide range of materials including experimental movies pop songs photographs and well known poems and paintings Juan A Su rez reveals that experimental art in the early twentieth century was centrally concerned with the reinvention of everyday life Su rez demonstrates how modernist writers and artists reworked pop images and sounds old fashioned and factory made objects city spaces and the languages and styles of queer and ethnic others Along the way he reinterprets many of modernism s major figures and argues for the centrality of relatively marginal ones such as Vachel Lindsay Charles Henri Ford Helen Levitt and James Agee As Su rez shows what s at stake is not just an antiquarian impulse to rescue forgotten past moments and works but a desire to establish an archaeology of our present art culture and activism      A Companion to Popular Culture Gary Burns,2016-03-08 A Companion to Popular Culture is a landmark survey of contemporary research in popular culture studies that offers a comprehensive and engaging introduction to the field Includes over two dozen essays covering the spectrum of popular culture studies from food to folklore and from TV to technology Features contributions from established and up and coming scholars from a range of disciplines Offers a detailed history of the study of popular culture Balances new perspectives on the politics of culture with in depth analysis of topics at the forefront of popular culture studies

For the Love of Cinema David T. Johnson,2017-11-13 What role does love of cinema of cinema studies of teaching and learning play in teaching film For the Love of Cinema brings together a wide range of film scholars to explore the relationship between cinephilia and pedagogy All of them ask whether cine love can inform the serious study of cinema Chapter by chapter writers approach this question from various perspectives some draw on aspects of students love of cinema as a starting point for rethinking familiar films or generating new kinds of analyses about the medium itself others reflect on how their own cinephilia informs the way they teach cinema and still others offer new ways of writing both verbally and audiovisually with a love of cinema in the age of new media Together they form a collection that is as much a guide for teaching cinephilia as it is an energetic dialogue about the ways that cinephilia and pedagogy enliven and rejuvenate one another

The ABCs of Classic Hollywood Robert B. Ray, 2008-04-30 Speaking about the kind of filmmaking now known as Classic Hollywood the most popular and influential cinema ever invented Vincente Minnelli once gave away its secret I feel that a picture that stays with you is made up of a hundred or more hidden things They're things that the audience is not conscious of but that accumulate What are those hidden things Can we invent a method that will enable us to discover them Robert Ray attempts to answer those questions by looking closely at four movies from the 1930-1945 period when the American studio system reached the peak of its economic and cultural power Grand Hotel The Philadelphia Story The Maltese Falcon and Meet Me in St Louis To avoid the predictable generalizations that have plagued film studies Ray works with the movies' details Grand Hotel's room assignments or Meet Me in St Louis's ketchup which are treated as mysterious but promising clues By producing at least one entry for every letter of the alphabet Ray demonstrates that a movie's details have much to tell us The ABCs of Classic Hollywood is a movie primer a deceptively simple book that spells out a fascinating account of the most powerful storytelling system ever designed

E-crit Marcel O'Gorman, 2006-01-01 In E Crit Marcel O'Gorman takes an ambitious and provocative look at how university scholarship pedagogy and curricula might be transformed to suit a digital culture Arguing that universities were founded on the logic of print culture O'Gorman sets out to reinvent the academic apparatus constructing a hybrid methodology that draws on avant-garde art deconstructive theory cognitive science and the work of painter and poet William Blake O'Gorman explores the ways in which digital media might help to restore the critical intellectual purpose of higher education which has been repressed by the technocratic structures that dominate the modern university He argues that the revolutionary socio-critical impetus that spurred deconstructive theory and transformed the humanities was lost in the initial attempts to digitize the literary canon and demonstrate the convergence of critical theory and hypertext Humanities disciplines he argues must reposition themselves through the invention of humanities-based interdisciplinary programs capable of adapting to the post-print vicissitudes of a digital culture E Crit is thus essential reading for anyone concerned with the practice and future of the humanities in higher education

The Geschlecht Complex Oscar Jansson, David LaRocca, 2022-01-13 The polysemous German word Geschlecht denoting gender genre kind kinship species race and somehow also more exemplifies the most pertinent questions of the translational transdisciplinary transhistorical and transnational structures of the contemporary humanities What happens when texts objects practices and concepts are transferred or displaced from one language tradition temporality or form to another What is readily transposed what resists relocation and what precipitate emerges as distorted or new Drawing on Barbara Cassin's transformative remarks on untranslatability and the activity of philosophizing in languages scholars contributing to The Geschlecht Complex examine these and other durable queries concerning the ontological powers of naming and do so in the light of recent artistic practices theoretical innovations and philosophical incitements Combining detailed case studies of concrete category problems in literature philosophy media cinema politics painting theatre and the performing arts with a range of indispensable excerpts from canonical texts by notable field defining thinkers such as Apter Cassin Cavell Derrida Irigaray Malabou and Nancy among others the volume presents the Geschlecht complex as a condition to become aware of and in turn to companionably underwrite any interpretive endeavor Historically grounded yet attuned to the particularities of the present the Geschlecht complex becomes an invaluable mode for thinking and theorizing while ensconced in the urgent immediacy of pressing concerns and poised for the inevitable complexities of categorial naming and genre discernment that await in the so often inscrutable translation resistant twenty first century Beyond the Subtitle Mark Betz,2009

Examining European art films of the 1950s and 1960s Mark Betz argues that it is time for film analysis to move beyond prevailing New Wave historiography mired in outdated notions of nationalism and dragged down by decades of auteurist criticism Focusing on the cinemas of France and Italy Betz reveals how the flowering of European art films in the postwar era is inseparable from the complex historical and political frameworks of the time Feeling Modern Justus Nieland,2008 A new look at modernism's relationship to human feeling and the public sphere Old Fields John R. Stilgoe,2014-03-04 Glamour subverts convention Models images and even landscapes can skew ordinary ways of seeing when viewed through the lens of photography suggesting new worlds imbued with fantasy mystery sexuality and tension In Old Fields John Stilgoe one of the most original observers of his time offers a poetic and controversial exploration of the generations long effort to portray glamour Fusing three forces in contemporary American culture amateur photography after 1880 the rise of glamour and fantasy and the often mysterious quality of landscape photographs Stilgoe provides a wide ranging yet concentrated take on the cultural legacy of our photographic history Through the medium of shop theory the techniques tools and purpose made equipment a maker uses to realize intent Stilgoe looks at the role of Eastman Kodak in shaping the ways photographers purchased cameras and films while also mapping the divisions that were created by European made cameras He then goes on to argue that with the proliferation of digital cameras smart phones and Instagram young people's lack of knowledge about photographic technique is in direct correlation to their lack of knowledge of the history of glamour photography In his exploration of the rise of glamour and fantasy in contemporary American culture Stilgoe offers a provocative and very personal look into his enduring fascination with and the possibilities inherent in creating one's own images Sound Tracks

Michael Jarrett,1998 Cartoon Vision Dan Bashara,2019-04-02 In Cartoon Vision Dan Bashara examines American animation alongside the modern design boom of the postwar era Focusing especially on United Productions of America UPA a studio whose graphic abstract style defined the postwar period Bashara considers animation akin to a laboratory exploring new models of vision and space alongside theorists and practitioners in other fields The links theoretical historical and aesthetic between animators architects designers artists and filmmakers reveal a specific midcentury modernism that rigorously reimagined the senses Cartoon Vision invokes the American Bauhaus legacy of L szl Moholy Nagy and Gy rgy

Kepes and advocates for animation's pivotal role in a utopian design project of retraining the public's vision to better apprehend a rapidly changing modern world

The Structure of Complex Images Robert B. Ray, 2020-05-09 After over a century of existence the cinema still has its mysteries Why for example is the job we call movie stardom unlike any other in the world How do films provide so much unconcealed information that we fail to notice What makes it hard to define what counts as acting How do movies like Casablanca and Breathless store the film and world histories of their generations How can we reconcile auteurism's celebration of the movie director's authority with the camera's automatism Why have the last four decades of film criticism so often neglected such questions After beginning with an overview of film studies this book proposes a shift from predictable theoretical approaches to models that acknowledge the perplexities and mysteries of the movies Deriving methods from cinephilia Wittgenstein Richard Rorty Stanley Cavell Eleanor Duckworth V F Perkins and James Naremore Robert B Ray offers close readings that call attention to what we have missed in such classic films as La Règle du Jeu It Happened One Night It's a Wonderful Life Vertigo Holiday The Philadelphia Story Casablanca Breathless and Tickets

The Theater and Cinema of Buster Keaton Robert Knopf, 2018-06-05 Famous for their stunts gags and images Buster Keaton's silent films have enticed everyone from Hollywood movie fans to the surrealists such as Dalí and Buñuel Here Robert Knopf offers an unprecedented look at the wide ranging appeal of Keaton's genius considering his vaudeville roots and his ability to integrate this aesthetic into the techniques of classical Hollywood cinema in the 1920s When young Buster was being hurled about the stage by his comically irate father in the family's vaudeville act The Three Keatons he was perfecting his acrobatic skills timing visual humor and trademark stone face As Knopf demonstrates such theatrics would serve Keaton well as a film director and star By isolating elements of vaudeville within works that have previously been considered classical Knopf reevaluates Keaton's films and how they function The book combines vivid visual descriptions and illustrations that enable us to see Keaton at work staging his memorable images and gags such as a three story wall collapsing on him Steamboat Bill Jr 1928 and an avalanche of boulders chasing him down a mountainside Seven Chances 1925 Knopf explains how Keaton's stunts and gags served as fanciful departures from his films storylines and how they nonetheless reinforced a strange sense of reality that of a machine like world with a mind of its own In comparison to Chaplin and Lloyd Keaton made more elaborate use of natural locations The scene in The Navigator for example where Buster brandishes a swordfish to fend off another swordfish derives much of its power from actually being shot under water Such hyper literalism was but one element of Keaton's films that inspired the surrealists Exploring Keaton's influence on Salvador Dalí Luis Buñuel Federico García Lorca and Robert Desnos Knopf suggests that Keaton's achievement extends beyond Hollywood into the avant garde The book concludes with an examination of Keaton's late career performances in Gerald Potterton's The Railrodder and Samuel Beckett's Film and locates his legacy in the work of Jackie Chan Blue Man Group and Bill Irwin

Directed by Allen Smithee Jeremy Braddock, Stephen Hock, 2001 Allen Smithee specializes in the mediocre

He is versatile He is prolific And he doesn't exist From 1969 until 1999 Allen Smithee was the pseudonym adopted by Hollywood directors when they wished not to be associated with films ostensibly of their making Encompassing over fifty films of various stripes B movies sequels music videos made for TV movies Smithee's three decades of work affords the authors of this volume a unique opportunity to reassess the claims of auteurism both in its traditional guise and in the more commodified form it currently assumes Sometimes treating Smithee as an auteur in much the same way critics and scholars have treated directors as diverse as Douglas Sirk Abbas Kiarostami and Quentin Tarantino the contributors reclaim new possibilities for auteurist filmmaking and film studies even as they show what an empty display it has recently become In accounting for this change the essays in this volume employ innovative theories of authorship to recapture the subversive effect that auteurism once enjoyed Thus the Smithee name becomes part of a larger discussion of the economics and history of pseudonyms in filmmaking notably in the blacklist of the 1950s as well as an opportunity to employ Jacques Derrida's theory of the signature to recover obscured economic and historic contexts within Smithee's films Unique in its focus innovative in its approach Directed by Allen Smithee argues that it is precisely through throwaway films such as Smithee's that recent Hollywood cinema can best be studied

Sampling Media David Laderman, Laurel Westrup, 2014-04 This work digs deep into sampling practices across audio visual media from found footage filmmaking to Internet memes that repurpose music videos trailers and news broadcasts The book extends the conceptual boundaries of sampling by emphasizing its intermedial dimensions exploring its politics and examining its historical and global scope
