Baroquemania Laura Moure Cecchini, 2022-01-11 Baroquemania explores the intersections of art architecture and criticism to show how reimagining the Baroque helped craft a distinctively Italian approach to modern art Offering a bold reassessment of post-unification visual culture the book examines a wide variety of media and ideologically charged discourses on the Baroque both inside and outside the academy Key episodes in the modern afterlife of the Baroque are addressed notably the Decadentist interpretation of Gianlorenzo Bernini the 1911 universal fairs in Turin and Rome Roberto Longhi's historically grounded view of Futurism architectural projects in Fascist Rome and the interwar reception of Adolfo Wildt and Lucio Fontana's sculpture Featuring a wealth of visual materials Baroque mania offers a fresh look at a central aspect of Italy's modern art     Art and Architecture in Italy, 1600-1750 Rudolf Wittkower, Joseph Connors, Jennifer Montagu, 1999-01-01 This classic survey of Italian Baroque art and architecture focuses on the arts in every center between Venice and Sicily in the early high and late Baroque periods The heart of the study however lies in the architecture and sculpture of the exhilarating years of Roman High Baroque when Bernini Borromini and Cortona were all at work under a series of enlightened popes Wittkower's text is now accompanied by a critical introduction and substantial new bibliography This edition will also include color illustrations for the first time This is the second book in the three volume survey

Catalogue of the University of Michigan University of Michigan, 1954 Announcements for the following year included in some vols     The Oxford Dictionary of the Christian Church Frank Leslie Cross, Elizabeth A. Livingstone, 2005 Uniquely authoritative and wide ranging in its scope The Oxford Dictionary of the Christian Church is the indispensable one volume reference work on all aspects of the Christian Church It contains over 6 000 cross referenced A Z entries and offers unrivalled coverage of all aspects of this vast and often complex subject including theology churches and denominations patristic scholarship the bible the church calendar and its organization popes archbishops saints and mystics In this revision innumerable small changes have been made to take into account shifts in scholarly opinion recent developments such as the Church of England's new prayer book Common Worship RC canonizations ecumenical advances and mergers and where possible statistics A number of existing articles have been rewritten to reflect new evidence or understanding for example the Holy Sepulchre entry and there are a few new articles Perhaps most significantly a great number of the bibliographies have been updated Established since its first appearance in 1957 as an essential resource for ordinands clergy and members of religious orders ODCC is an invaluable tool for academics teachers and students of church history and theology as well as for the general reader     Italian and Spanish Art, 1600-1750 Robert Enggass, Jonathan Brown, 1992 The Baroque period was crucial for the development of art theory and the advancement of the artistic academy This collection of primary sources brings this important period to life with significant documents and texts It conveniently assembles major texts which are otherwise available only in scattered publications The lives of leading artists Caravaggio El Greco among others are discussed by their contemporaries while Bellori Galileo Pascoli and others write on art theory and practice The documents provide fascinating glimpses of the period's artistic self image     Pevsner: The Complete Broadcast Talks Stephen Games, 2016-04-22 This book brings together the surviving texts of the 113 talks on art and architecture that we know of given by the art historian Sir Nikolaus Pevsner on radio and television between 1945 1977 It includes the seven texts of the

1955 Reith Lectures in their original broadcast form as well as lectures that Pevsner gave in German for the BBC in London and RIAS in Berlin and on the radio in New Zealand These talks are important as an example of the attempt by the BBC in particular to provide intellectual programming for the mass population The talks are important for what they reveal about changing tastes in the treatment of the arts as a broadcast topic as well as offering a case study of the development of one particular historian's approach to a subject that was gaining ground in universities as a direct result of his popularisation of it They show what topics were thought to be central to the artistic agenda in the mid years of the last century whether from an academic or journalistic perspective and reveal the mode and manner of academic engagement with the public over the period Forty six of these talks were published in 2002 on the centenary of Pevsner's birth in a trade edition At the time his reputation as an active force in architectural thinking had long been eclipsed and interest in him had waned Since then there has been a turn around in tastes and Pevsner's role within his chosen field is now being actively studied and discussed by a new generation for whom he is central to an understanding of the 20th century There is therefore a real need for this book In addition to containing twice the number of talks as the previous volume it is supplemented with explanatory introductions footnotes and citations It also reveals as far as this is possible alternative versions of Pevsner's texts as they appeared at different stages in the original production process As such this edition can be relied on by academics as scholarly and
