The Batsford Encyclopaedia of Embroidery Techniques Gay Swift, 1984 The Batsford Encyclopaedia of Embroidery Stitches Anne Butler, 1983-12-01 The Batsford Encyclopaedia of Embroidery Techniques Gay Swift, 1990 The Encyclopaedia of Embroidery Techniques Gay Swift, 1990-08-01 The Batsford Embroidery Course R. Anne Williams, 1991 Batsford Encyclopedia of Embroidery A. Butler, 1996-01-01 19th Century Embroidery Techniques Gail Marsh, 2008 In the 19th century the craft of embroidery became a pastime for ladies of leisure This beautiful new book explores the shift from industry to hobby and how embroidery was crafted and displayed in the home Each chapter is packed with a close look at the techniques that were used detailed drawings and unique photographs of original 19th century embroidered pieces Interweaved into the book are snippets of social history historical facts and quotes from ladies and gentlemen of the period This delightful book is a must for any student studying embroidery fashion and textiles craft persons interested in historical embroidery techniques collectors of textiles plus any needlework enthusiast wanting to extend their knowledge A-Z of Whitework Country Bumpkin, 2015-03-09 The ultimate resource for needlecrafters on using these traditional timelessly appealing embroidery techniques In whitework the texture of the stitchery whether it be delicate or bold creates the beauty and interest In this book over 1 000 step by step photos illustrate the creation of this beautiful traditional white on white embroidery that has inspired needlecrafters for centuries Encompassing candlewicking Mountmellick cut work applique shadow work and net embroidery this comprehensive guide in the popular A Z series includes many useful tips and fascinating historical information The Lost Art of the Anglo-Saxon World Alexandra Lester-Makin, 2019-11-01 This latest title in the highly successful Ancient Textiles series is the first substantial monograph length historiography of early medieval embroideries and their context within the British Isles The book brings together and analyses for the first time all 43 embroideries believed to have been made in the British Isles and Ireland in the early medieval period New research carried out on those embroideries that are accessible today involving the collection of technical data stitch analysis observations of condition and wear marks and microscopic photography supplements a survey of existing published and archival sources The research has been used to write for the first time the story of embroidery including what we can learn of its producers their techniques and the material functions and metaphorical meanings of embroidery within early medieval Anglo Saxon society The author presents embroideries as evidence for the evolution of embroidery production in Anglo Saxon society from a community based activity based on the extended family to organized workshops in urban settings employing standardized skill levels and as evidence of changing material use from small amounts of fibers produced locally for specific projects to large batches brought in from a distance and stored until needed She demonstrate that embroideries were not simply used decoratively but to incorporate and enact different meanings within different parts of society for example the newly arrived Germanic settlers of the fifth century used embroidery to maintain links with their homelands and to create tribal ties and obligations As such the results inform discussion of embroidery contexts use and deposition and the significance of this form of material culture within society as well as an evaluation of the status of embroiderers within early medieval society The results contribute significantly to our understanding of production systems in Anglo Saxon England and Ireland Travels in Scotland (1842) by J.G. Kohl Ursula Cairns Smith,J.M.Y. Simpson,2012 Translation of a German traveller s account of his journey through Scotland in 1842

Machine Stitch Alice Kettle,Jane McKeating,2010-08-04 This unique book collection culls the expertise of academics and the actual embroidery machines archives of Manchester Metropolitan University in Great Britain whose specialist embroidery department has been instrumental in artistic and educational innovations in textiles since the 1960s This book is the definitive record of the vast number of machines from the traditional Irish Embroidery machines to the latest generation of computerized sewing machines and features a rich and fascinating record of the machines themselves and the samples and artwork that were produced on them Each contributor gives their own individual perspective on machine stitch and the book illustrates how key machines can be applied to the artistic industrial and domestic practice and shows how to combine techniques and develop new ideas in machine embroidery a creative medium that is flourishing in both design and production Journal of the Royal Society of Arts ,1984 The Technique of Sculpture John W. Mills,1985 The author describes all the important sculptural techniques to enable the sculptor to be confident of an exact reproduction of his original idea Individual chapters deal with the various materials used by the sculptor and the tools required in each case There are further sections covering maquette firing bronze casting welding brazing constructions armatures direct media finishes and presentation Mills trained at the Royal College of Art British Books in Print ,1985 Silk and empire Brenda King,2017-03-01 In this book Brenda M King challenges the notion that Britain always exploited its empire Creativity innovation and entrepreneurship were all part of the Anglo Indian silk trade and were nurtured in the era of empire through mutually beneficial collaboration The trade operated within and without the empire according to its own dictates and prospered in the face of increasing competition from China and Japan King presents a new picture of the trade where the strong links between Indian designs the English silk industry and prominent members of the English the arts and crafts movement led to the production of beautiful and luxurious textiles Lavishly illustrated this book will be of interest to those interested in the relationship between the British Empire and the Indian subcontinent as well as by historians of textiles and fashion American Reference Books Annual ,1992 1970 issued in 2 vols v 1 General reference social sciences history economics business v 2 Fine arts humanities science and engineering Batsford Encyclopedia of Embroidery Stitches Anne Butler,1993 The Humanities Ron Blazek,Elizabeth Smith Aversa,2000 Covering nearly 1 400 information sources this book maps the vast terrain of knowledge in humanities studies Detailed annotations give users an in depth view of the sources and thorough indexes provide easy access Web resources are included on a highly selective basis The number of information sources and the diversification of formats are revolutionizing library and scholarly practice While accessing information is easier evaluation of resources has become increasingly more difficult Covering a broader territory and more sources than previous editions this book offers an up to date reliable guide to nearly 1 400 of the most important and representative information sources in the immense discipline of humanities studies Following the basic organization of previous editions Blazek and Aversa present chapters on sources reference tools and access ways to find and retrieve information for each subject covered e g language and literature philosophy visual arts For the first time the authors have included web resources and their URLs on a highly selective basis All sources have been reviewed updated and in many cases expanded Computerized databases both online and CD ROM are integrated with the books Detailed annotations give users an in d

Walford's Concise Guide to Reference Material Albert John Walford, 1992 This is a shortened version of the three volume Walford's Guide to Reference Material 5th edition Volume 1 Science and Technology 1989 Volume 2 Social and historical sciences philosophy and religion 1990 and Volume 3 Generalia language and literature the arts 1991 There are more than 3 000 entries forming an updated compilation of what are considered to be the basic items in the main volumes plus some more recent material up to April 1992

Walford's Guide to Reference Material: Generalia, language and literature, the arts Albert John Walford, Marilyn Mullay, Priscilla Schlicke, Library Association, 1996 From its first edition the purpose of Walford has been to identify and evaluate the widest possible range of reference materials No rigid definition of reference is applied In addition to the expected bibliographies indexes dictionaries encyclopaedias and directories a number of important textbooks and manuals of general practice are included While the majority of the items are books Walford is a guide to reference material Thus periodical articles microforms online and CD ROM sources are all represented In this volume a particular effort has been made to improve coverage of the latter two categories
