Australian National Bibliography ,1978     Literary Research Guide James L. Harner, 2008 James L Harner s Literary Research Guide which Choice calls the standard guide in the field evaluates important reference materials in English studies Since the publication of the first edition in 1989 tens of thousands of students and educators have used the Guide as an aid to scholarly research In the new edition Harner has added entries describing resources published since May 2001 and has revised nearly half the entries from the fourth edition The fifth edition contains more than 1 000 entries which discuss an additional 1 555 books articles and electronic resources and cite 723 reviews Readers of earlier editions will notice the inclusion of substantially more electronic resources particularly reliable sites sponsored by academic institutions and learned societies to account for the proliferation of bibliographic databases text archives and other online resources This edition also features a new section on cultural studies     Guide to Reference Books Robert Balay, Vee Friesner Carrington, Murray S. Martin, 1996 Presents an annotated bibliography of general and subject reference books covering the humanities social and behavioral sciences history science technology and medicine     Australian National Bibliography: 1992 National Library of Australia, 1988     The Oxford Literary History of Australia Bruce Bennett, Jennifer Strauss, Chris Wallace-Crabbe, 1998 This new literary history rethinks the landscapes of Australian literature in an engaging style and takes into account contemporary theories of literature and associated art forms     The Georgia Library Quarterly ,1998     Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1980 Includes subject section name section and 1968 1970 technical reports     The Penguin New Literary History of Australia Laurie Hergenhan, Bruce Bennett, 1988 Chapter on Aboriginal literature

Australian Books National Library of Australia, 1991     Telling Stories ,2021-11-15 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer s Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research
