Enlightenment and Reform in Eighteenth-century Europe Derek Beales, 2005-03-24 The 18th century was a unique period of global and fundamental change Britain conquered India and much of America the American Revolution produced the USA and Russia expanded vastly In the field of ideas the Scientific Revolution was consolidated and followed by the Enlightenment Nationalism flourished populations surged and the Commercial and Industrial Revolutions with Western technology eclipsed the East Few centuries have inspired such a galaxy of historians and their groundbreaking work has been drawn upon by Derek Beales in his collection of articles and special lectures He covers the whole European kaleidoscope but focuses especially on Joseph II and the Hapburg monarchy asserting that Enlightened Despotism was the emodiment of the century s revolution in ideas politics government and administration

Cultural Memory and Historical Consciousness in the German-speaking World Since 1500 Christian Emden, David R. Midgley, 2004 This is the first of three volumes based on papers given at the conference The Fragile Tradition The German Cultural Imagination Since 1500 in Cambridge 2002 Together they provide a conspectus of current research on the cultural historical and literary imagination of the German speaking world across the whole of the modern period This volume highlights the ways in which cultural memory and historical consciousness have been shaped by experiences of discontinuity focusing particularly on the reception of the Reformation the literary and ideological heritage of the Enlightenment and the representation of war the Holocaust and the reunification of Germany in contemporary literature and museum culture Becoming Habsburg David Rechter, 2013-06-20 The Jews of Bukovina were integral to and at home in local society Rechter reconstructs their history while carefully locating it within larger intellectual frameworks At Eden's Door David Rechter, 2022-12-15 Leon Kellner was part of the intellectual and cultural elite of imperial Austria Engaged in politics a member of his regional parliament and an essayist of repute he was also a Zionist leader and confidant of Theodor Herzl He created an institution for Jews cultural educational and social advancement modelled on London s Toynbee Hall which spread across east central Europe to great effect He was also an internationally recognized Shakespeare scholar Yet for all this today he is little known How did someone born into a lower middle class Orthodox Jewish family from the province of Galicia come to gain such prominence in the Habsburg empire Kellner s is a thoroughly Habsburg Jewish story spanning east and west and shaped by the empire s history politics and culture He was a singular character a Galician Jew at home in Vienna and in Czernowitz eyes towards Zion yet content also in London and never more so than when absorbed in the minutiae of Shakespeare s texts Kellner s world was destroyed twice over Habsburg Austria came to an end in 1918 east central European Jewry in 1945 This biography recovers at least part of what was lost Venice and Venetia under the Habsburgs David Laven,2002-08-22 The Austrian domination of Venice and Venetia after the Congress of Vienna has traditionally received a bad press The Restoration regime was long villified as oppressive and exploitative and in direct opposition to the interests of almost all classes of the population This volume questions this view arguing from detailed archival research that Francis I s rule brought many real benefits to his Venetian subjects The root of the remarkable passivity of Venetia in the years after the fall of Napoleon should not be explained in terms of pervasive policing heavy handed censorship and the presence of Metternich s forest of bayonets but rather by the existence of a fair and responsive if sometimes cumbersome administrative structure Having outlined the origins of Austrian control of Venetia in terms of radical political and territorial changes experienced during the Revolutionary and Napoleonic period this work examines the mechanisms of Austrian rule Early chapters focus on the uncomfortable tensions that existed between the temptation to retain a modernised machinery of state inherited from Napoleon s Kingdom of Italy and the desire to look to models existing in the rest of the Habsburg Monarchy with the aim of creating greater uniformity with the rest of the multinational empire Various aspects of the Habsburg system are examined to assess the burden of Austrian control in the form of taxation and conscription and the way in which education policing the Church and censorship were used in sometimes surprising ways to attach the Venetian population to their Habsburg masters Finally the book addresses the question of what went wrong between the death of Francis I in 1835 and the Venetian insurrection of 1848-9 to alienate the population so radically The Traditions of Invention Alex Drace-Francis,2013-07-15 Literary and cultural images once considered marginal to the main currents of political and institutional development in southeastern Europe have been accorded much greater importance by scholars in recent years In this volume Alex Drace Francis brings together over fifteen years of work on the topic of representations of Romania and Romanians Crossing the East West divide the book studies both external images of the country and people and domestically generated representations of Europe and the West It draws on material in a wide range of languages and offers a long term view providing a nuanced and historically grounded contribution to the lively debates over Balkanism Orientalism and identities in Romania and in Europe as a whole Ghetto Writing Anne Fuchs, Florian Krobb, 1999 This text contains fresh articles about a much neglected genre fiction from and about the Jewish ghetto Bibliographia Karaitica Barry Dov Walfish, Mikhail Kizilov, 2010-12-17 Winner of the Association for Jewish Libraries 2012 Judaica Bibliography Award This is the first comprehensive bibliography on the Karaites and Karaism Including over 8 000 items in twenty languages this bibliography with its extensive annotations thoroughly documents the present state of Karaite Studies and provides a solid foundation for future research Special attention has been given to the organizational structure of the bibliography A detailed table of contents and a complete set of indices enable the reader to easily navigate through the material Translations of items from non Western languages increase the bibliography s utility for the English speaking reader Especially noteworthy are the listings of obscure eastern European publications and the analysis of many periodical publications which enable unprecedented access to this material It is an essential reference tool for Karaite and Jewish Studies This is an essential guide to any serious study of Karaism or of medieval and to a large extent also modern Jewry Shaul Stampfer Hebrew University of Jerusalem Bibliographia Karaitica is a major reference work that will remain of great use for Jewish studies scholars working in many areas of specialization long into the future Fred Astren San Francisco State University Women, Emancipation and the German Novel 1871-1910 Charlotte Woodford, 2017-12-02 In novels written at the end of the long nineteenth century women in Germany and Austria engaged with some of the most pressing social questions of the modern age Charlotte Woodford analyses a wide range of such works many of them largely forgotten in the context of the contemporary cultural discourses that informed their creation such as writings on pacifism and socialism prostitution birth control and sexually transmitted diseases Women s experience of contemporary medicine as patients and doctors is a fascinating theme treated here by several authors Through a close reading of works by Marie von Ebner Eschenbach Minna Kautsky Gabriele Reuter Helene Bohlau Ilse Frapan Hedwig Dohm Lou Andreas Salome and others this study shows how writers determination to validate women s experience of the problems of modernity informed the aesthetic development of the novel by women The Librettist of Venice Rodney Bolt, 2008-12-11 In 1805 Lorenzo Da Ponte was the proprietor of a small grocery store in New York But since his birth into an Italian Jewish family in 1749 he had already been a priest a poet the lover of many women a scandalous Enlightenment thinker banned from teaching in Venice the librettist for three of Mozart s most sublime operas a collaborator with Salieri a friend of Casanova and a favorite of Emperor Joseph II He would go on to establish New York City s first opera house and be the first professor of Italian at Columbia University An inspired innovator but a hopeless businessman who loved with wholehearted loyalty and recklessness Da Ponte was one of the early immigrants to live out the American dream In Rodney Bolt s rollicking and extensively researched biography Da Ponte s picaresque life takes readers from Old World courts and the back streets of Venice Vienna and London to the New World
