The Authority Of Experience Essays In Feminist Criticism:

The Authority of Experience Arlyn Diamond, Lee R. Edwards, 1977      Man's Estate Coppelia H. Kahn, 2023-11-10 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1981      Feminist Dialogics Dale M. Bauer, 1988-01-01 Feminist Dialogics examines the structure of four novels Hawthorne's The Blithedale Romance James's The Golden Bowl Wharton's The House of Mirth and Chopin's The Awakening through the lens of Mikhail Bakhtin's critical framework The author draws on Bakhtin's notion of heteroglossia to show how the interaction of many voices forms the social community of the novel and how the functioning of these voices makes clear statements about the position and fate of women in these specific societies The novels present dialogic situations in which the women misinterpret their social texts and therefore fail to understand their own social power The four works considered in this study represent the struggle for women's construction of self within a dialogic structure of many competing voices Bauer introduces and enters into dialogue with other theorists who are concerned with the social implications of reading and interpretation including Rene Girard Wolfgang Iser Sandra Gilbert and Susan Gubar as well as other American feminists The recurring theme in the novels of this study is the exclusion and rivalry of discourse the competition among characters for authoritative and interpretive power Each voice in the novel is a thematization of an ideological perspective and as such competes for domination The conspiracy of voices to exclude the female reflects the social reality as well This work is an important contribution to literary criticism and feminist theory      The Authority of Experience Arlyn Diamond, Lee R. Edwards, 1977      Methods of Rhetorical Criticism Bernard L. Brock, Robert Lee Scott, James W. Chesebro, 1989      New Readings on Women in Old English Literature Helen Damico, Alexandra Hennessey Olsen, 1990-04-22 Re-examines a critical tradition unchallenged since the 19th century The 20 essays reassess the place of women in Anglo Saxon culture as demonstrated by the laws works by women and the depiction of them in the standard Old English canon of literature Beowulf Alfred Wulfstan et al Categories include the historical record sexuality and folklore language and gender characterization and several deconstructions of stereotypes Paper edition unseen 14 50 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      Where the Meanings Are (Routledge Revivals) Catharine R. Stimpson, 2014-07-11 First published in 1990 this collection of essays in literary criticism feminist theory and race relations was named one of the top twenty five books of 1988 by the Voice Literary Supplement The title covers such subjects as black literature the reconstruction of culture changing arts letters and sciences to include the topics of women and gender and the nature of family and the changing roles of women within society As such Catharine Stimpson employs a transdisciplinary approach to encourage greater understanding of the differences among women and thus socially constructed differences in general Where the Meanings Are tells of some of the arguments within feminism during the re designing and designing of cultural spaces as post modernism began to change the boundaries of race class and gender It will therefore be of great value to students and general readers with an interest in the relationship between gender and culture sex and gender difference feminist theory and literature      Disciplining Feminism Ellen Messer-Davidow,2002-01-28 A cultural studies account of the changes produced in feminism as it became part of the academy and of the highly orchestrated attack on higher education by the right wing      Chaucer Geoffrey Chaucer,Steve Ellis,2014-06-11 This new addition to the Longman Critical Readers Series provides an overview of the various ways in which modern critical theory has influenced Chaucer Studies over the last fifteen years There is still a sense in the academic world and in the wider literary community that Medieval Studies are generally impervious to many of the questions that modern theory asks and that it concerns itself only with traditional philological and historical issues On the contrary this book shows how Chaucer specifically the Canterbury Tales has been radically and excitingly opened up by feminist Lacanian Bakhtinian deconstructive semiotic and anthropological theories to name but a few The book provides an introduction to these new developments by anthologising some of the most important work in the field including excerpts from book length works as well as articles from leading and innovative journals The introduction to the volume examines in some detail the relation between the individual strengths of each of the above approaches and the ways in which a postmodernist Chaucer is seen as reflecting them all This convenient single volume collection of key critical analyses of Chaucer which includes work from some journals and studies that are not always easily available will be indispensable to students of Medieval Studies Medieval Literature and Chaucer as well as to general readers who seek to widen their understanding of the forces behind Chaucer s writing      Feminine Fictions Patricia Waugh,2012 Addressing the relationship between feminist and postmodernist writing and theory through the insights of psychoanalysis and in the context of the development of modern fiction in Britain and America Patricia Waugh attempts to uncover the reasons why women writers have been excluded from the considerations of postmodern art The second part of the book analyses the work of six traditional and six experimental writers challenging the restrictive definitions of realist modernist postmodernist in the light of the theoretical position developed in part one Authors covered include Woolf viewed as a postmodernist precursor rather than a high modernist Drabble Tyler Plath Brookner Paley Lessing Weldon Atwood Walker Spark Russ and Piercy      Feminisms Robyn R. Warhol,Diane Price Herndl,1997 In the landmark 1991 edition of Feminisms Robyn Warhol and Diane Price Herndl assembled the most comprehensive collection of American and British feminist literary criticism ever to be published In this revised edition the editors have updated the volume in keeping with the expanded parameters of feminist literary discourse With the inclusion of more than two dozen new essays along with a major reorganization of the sections in which they appear Warhol and Price Herndl have again established the measure for representing the latest developments in the field of feminist literary theory Believing that the feminist movement can only move forward where difference commands attention not dismissal or negativism they have continued the original collection's mission of providing a multiplicity of perspectives and approaches This anthology contains three new sections Conflict Gaze and Practice and includes more selections by and about women of color and lesbians Aimed at academics and the general public alike this collection is an indispensable guide to the range of practice on campus today in the field of feminist literary criticism

The Mill on the Floss and Silas Marner Nahem Yousaf, Andrew Maunder, 2017-03-08 This New Casebook explores the enduring significance of George Eliot's novels The Mill on the Floss 1860 and Silas Marner 1861 Eliot's radical cultural politics and the arrestingly original fictional strategies that characterise two of her most popular novels are explored from a variety of perspectives feminist historicist structuralist and psychoanalytic

A Reader's Guide to Contemporary Literary Theory Raman Selden, 1993-06-08 Unsurpassed as a text for upper division and beginning graduate students Raman Selden's classic text is the liveliest most readable and most reliable guide to contemporary literary theory Includes applications of theory cross referenced to Selden's companion volume Practicing Theory and Reading Literature

Virginia Woolf's Common Reader Katerina Koutsantoni, 2016-02-11 In the first comprehensive study of Virginia Woolf's Common Reader Katerina Koutsantoni draws on theorists from the fields of sociology sociolinguistics philosophy and literary criticism to investigate the thematic pattern underpinning these books with respect to the persona of the common reader Though these two volumes are the only ones that Woolf compiled herself they have seldom been considered as a whole As a result what they reveal about Woolf's position with regard to the processes of writing reading and critical analysis has not been fully examined Koutsantoni challenges the critical commonplace that equates Woolf's strategy of self effacement and personal removal from her works as a necessary compromise that allowed her to achieve authorial recognition in a male dominated context Rather Koutsantoni argues that an investigation of impersonality in Woolf's essays reveals the potential of the genre to function both as a vehicle for the subjective and dialogic expression of the author and reader and as a venue for exploring topics with which the ordinary reader can relate As she explores and challenges the meaning of impersonality in Woolf's Common Reader Koutsantoni shows how the related issues of subjectivity authority reader response intersubjectivity and dialogism offer useful perspectives from which to examine Woolf's work

Literature and the Writer, 2016-08-09

Literature and the Writer was first conceived with the hope the essays would shed light on several dimensions of the authorial craft It was the hope of the editor that the selected essays would examine not only writers choice of vocabulary but also their deliberate selection of grammatical constructions and word order and their seamless weaving together of plots and imagery Moreover the analyses would also draw attention to how the writing process impacts the development of characters and the formulation of thematic strands in fiction Thus a wide variety of authors are deliberately selected to give the text depth writers of popular fiction as well as modern classics are included and contrasts are established between traditional writers and those who prefer to follow experimental trends Modernists are set against postmodernists absurdists vs realists minority ethnicities vs majority cultures and dominant genders appear in contrast to subordinated ones Clearly the major tenet of the collection is that the writing profession provides an unending dilemma that deserves to be explored in more detail as readers try to determine how authorial voices confuse while simultaneously elucidating their audience how texts are constructed by authors and yet deconstructed by the very words they choose to include how silence functions as inaudible yet audible discourse and how authorial self concept shapes not only itself but is also echoed in the fictional characters writers who appear in the texts

Discourses of Difference Sara Mills,2003-09-02 Discourses of Difference unravels the complexities of writings by British women travellers of the high colonial period Sara Mills examines the relation of women travellers to colonialism positioned as they were at the site of conflicting discourses femininity feminism and patriarchal imperialism Using feminist discourse theory Sara Mills analyses the writings of three women travellers Alexandra David Neel Mary Kingsley and Nina Mazuchelli Her examination of agency identity and the contemporary social environment is an important and inspiring step forward in post colonial cultural and literary theory

Landscape and Gender in the Novels of Charlotte Brontë, George Eliot, and Thomas Hardy Dr Eithne Henson,2013-05-28 Examining a wide range of representations of physical metaphorical and dream landscapes in Charlotte Brontë George Eliot and Thomas Hardy Eithne Henson explores the way in which gender attitudes are expressed both in descriptions of landscape as the human body and in ideas of nature Henson discusses the influence of eighteenth century aesthetic theory particularly on Brontë and Eliot and argues that Ruskinian aesthetics Darwinism and other scientific preoccupations of an industrializing economy changed constructions of landscape in the later nineteenth century Henson examines the conventions of reading landscape including the implied expectations of the reader the question of the gendered narrator how place defines the kind of action and characters in the novels the importance of landscape in creating mood the pastoral as a moral marker for readers and the influence of changing aesthetic theory on the implied painterly models that the three authors reproduce in their work She also considers how each writer defines the concept of Englishness against an internal or colonial Other Alongside these concerns Henson interrogates the ancient trope that equates woman with nature and the effect of comparing women to natural objects or offering them as objects of the male gaze typically to diminish or control them Informed by close readings Henson's study offers an original approach to the significances of landscape in the realist nineteenth century novel

The Rhetorics of Feminism Lynne Pearce,2013-04-15 Is it possible that changes in rhetorical practice could alter not just how thought is expressed but also how it is made Through a close stylistic and rhetorical analysis of contemporary feminist writing from the cultural theory of Judith Butler to the popular journalism of Naomi Wolf and Germaine Greer Lynne Pearce demonstrates how feminist thought is created as well as communicated through the frameworks in which it is presented By linking rhetorical innovation with feminist epistemology in such a direct way this is a book that will be of immense methodological as well as theoretical interest to readers providing valuable insight into the often mysterious processes of conception and composition      Oxford Guides to Chaucer: Troilus and Criseyde Barry Windeatt, 2023 A new edition of Barry Windeatt's comprehensive single volume guide to Troilus and Criseyde bringing together a wide range of material and providing a readable commentary on all aspects of the work      Sensibility in Transformation Sydney McMillen Conger, 1990-03 Focusing on the period from about 1690 to 1890 these essays depict an age of sensibility that was in transformation New connections are revealed between sensibility and other key preoccupations of the age including the feminine ideal and the poetic imagination
