Fisher-Wirth, 1989 The artist is always and forever painting only one thing a self portrait Beginning with these words of Williams s Fisher Wirth considers a number of Williams s writings as autobiography The relatively conventional Autobiography of William Carlos Williams presents his career in public terms and suppresses the knowledge of both sex and death At the other extreme the play A Dream of Love is an intensely personal confession Apart from these works William Carlos Williams and Autobiography concentrates on Williams s poems The early unpublished Philip and Oradie sends a persecuted and alienated prince on a grandiose doomed quest Reacting against this mode Williams wrote The Wanderer in which he is baptized in the filthy Passaic river and emerges as the poet we know whose identity is found through surrendering to the weeds bearing seeds the flotsam of experience He goes on to create a new kind of autobiography focused on concrete objects of perception and only indirectly on the self Williams s development culminates in Asphodel That Greeny Flower the long late love poem to his wife that unites public and private autobiographical desires and is his deepest and fullest autobiography William Carlos Williams Kenneth Burke, 1974 The first three papers are by authorities on the writings of Williams and each makes a distinct contribution to the mounting body of research on and interpretation of his works The fourth paper is a portrait from memory by an eminent poet and critic I Wanted to Write a Poem.
