The Bachelors Of Broken Hill:

The Bachelors of Broken Hill Arthur W. Upfield, 2020-05-01 When two elderly bachelors were poisoned with cyanide a strange woman was on the scene each time but now she has disappeared leaving no trace Tracking her down in a town of twenty eight thousand people is a job to tax even Detective Inspector Bonaparte's powers He will need the unorthodox assistance of burglar Jimmy the Screwsman and a lightning sketch artist as well as all the deductive and tracking skills at his command as he trails a killer no one has seen The Bachelors of Broken Hill Arthur William Upfield, 1974-06-01 The Bachelors of Broken Hill Arthur William Upfield, 1950 The Bachelors of Broken Hill, Etc Arthur William UPFIELD, 1961 Bony Buys a Woman. The Bachelors of Broken Hill , 1957 Arthur Upfield's scrapbook of press cuttings etc for the novels Bony buys a woman and The bachelors of Broken Hill THE BACHELORS OF BROKEN HILL. ARTHUR UPFIELD. Arthur W. Upfield, 1958 Serial Publications. The Bachelors [i.e. Bachelors] of Broken Hill , 1950 Arthur Upfield's scrapbook of press cuttings etc for the novel The bachelors of Broken Hill plus extracts from serializations and reviews of other novels The Spirit of Australia Ray Broadus Browne, 1988 In the world of crime fiction Arthur W Upfield stands among the giants His detective inspector Napoleon Bonaparte is one of the most memorable of all crime fighters Upfield was an independent fiercely self assertive ex Britisher who loved Australia especially the Outback In many ways Upfield became Outback Australia the Spirit of Australia A Window in the Dark Dymphna Cusack, 1991 Autobiographical account of the inter world war years spent by novelist Cusack author of TCome in Spinner teaching in country New South Wales The editor compiler of the TBibliography of Australian Women's Literature includes an extensive commentary on and bibliography of Cusack Clues: A Journal of Detection, Vol. 39, No. 2 (Fall 2021) Elizabeth Foxwell, 2021-11-05 For over two decades Clues has included the best scholarship on mystery and detective fiction With a combination of academic essays and nonfiction book reviews it covers all aspects of mystery and detective fiction material in print television and movies As the only American scholarly journal on mystery fiction Clues is essential reading for literature and film students and researchers popular culture aficionados librarians and mystery authors fans and critics around the globe The Widows of Broome Arthur W. Upfield, 2020-06-01 Broome is a little sun drenched town on the barren north west coast of Australia the kind of place where everyone knows everyone else's business where all the little bungalows might be glass for all the secrets they hide How then had the murderer of Broome's two most attractive widows got away without leaving a single clue Detective Inspector Napoleon Bonaparte investigates with his usual calm precision but the murderer strikes again and Bony realizes he is dealing with a madman that time is running out Bony a unique figure among top flight detectives BBC Out of the Woodpile Frankie Y. Bailey, 1991-02-15 Contending that a mythology of race consisting of themes of sex and savagery exists in the United States and is perpetuated in popular culture Frankie Y Bailey identifies stereotypical images of blacks in crime and detective fiction and probes the implied values and collective fantasies found there Out of the Woodpile is the first sociohistorical study of the evolution of black detectives and other African American characters in genre fiction The volume s three divisions reflect the evolution of the status of African Americans in American society The three chapters of the first section From Slaves to Servants begin with a survey of the works of Poe and Twain in antebellum America then discuss the depiction of blacks and other natives in British crime and detective fiction in the days of the British Empire and lastly focus on American classics of the pre World War II period In Urban Blues Bailey continues her investigation of black stock characters by zeroing in on the denizens of the Black Metropolis and their Black Rage Assimilating the final section contains chapters that scrutinize The Detectives Black Lives Post War Post Revolution and the roles assigned to Black Women The results of survey questions carried in The Third Degree the newsletter of the Mystery Writers of America as well as the views of fourteen crime writers on the creation of black characters in genre fiction are followed by the Directory which includes a sampling of cases featuring black characters a list of black detectives relevant works of fiction film television and more The volume s informed analyses will be important reading for students and scholars in the fields of popular culture American popular fiction genre fiction crime and detective fiction and black and ethnic studies It is also a timely resource for courses dealing with race relations and blacks in American literature or society      Mr Jelly's Business Arthur W. Upfield, 2020-06-01

Murder down under The car lies wrecked and abandoned near the world s longest fence the rabbit proof fence in the wheat belt of Western Australia There is no sign of its owner Has George Loftus simply decamped for reasons of his own Or was it murder Bonaparte suspects the worst and is determined to find the body and the murderer This novel is filled with Upfield s own philosophy about what creates murderers We also find out a lot about Aboriginal tracking methods as well as more information about Bony s family background Mysteries in Paradise      Unaccusativity Beth Levin, Malka Rappaport Hovav, 1994-12-07 Besides providing extensive support for David Perlmutter s hypothesis that unaccusativity is syntactically represented but semantically determined this monograph contributes significantly to the development of a theory of lexical semantic representation and to the elucidation of the mapping from lexical semantics to syntax Unaccusativity is an extended investigation into a set of linguistic phenomena that have received much attention over the last fifteen years Besides providing extensive support for David Perlmutter s hypothesis that unaccusativity is syntactically represented but semantically determined this monograph contributes significantly to the development of a theory of lexical semantic representation and to the elucidation of the mapping from lexical semantics to syntax Perlmutter s Unaccusative Hypothesis proposes that there are two classes of intransitive verbs unergatives and unaccusatives each associated with a distinct syntactic configuration Unaccusativity begins by isolating the semantic factors that determine whether a verb will be unaccusative or unergative through a careful examination of the behavior of intransitive verbs from a range of semantic classes in diverse syntactic constructions Notable are the extensive discussions of verbs of motion verbs of emission and various types of verbs of change of state The authors then introduce rules that determine the syntactic expression of the arguments of the verbs investigated and examine the interactions among them The proper treatment of verbs that systematically show multiple meanings and hence variable classification as unaccusative or unergative is also considered In the final chapter the authors argue that the distribution of locative inversion a purported unaccusative diagnostic is determined instead by discourse considerations Linguistic Inquiry Monograph No 26 The Battling Prophet Arthur W. Upfield, 2020-06-01 Detective Inspector Napoleon Bonaparte is on leave staying with an old friend near Adelaide Ben Wickham a meteorologist whose uncannily accurate weather forecasts had helped farmers all over Australia lived nearby Ben died after a three week drinking binge and a doctor certified death as due to delirium tremens but Bony's host insists that whatever Ben died of it wasn't alcohol This is an unusual crime story for Upfield but revealing the vast range of his interests it is one of the better ones Constable Alice McGorr returns and is at her strongest and most profane best she is extraordinary and should be appreciated as one of his major creations from The Spirit of Australia by Ray Browne Bony a unique figure among top flight detectives BBC Bony and the Kelly Gang Arthur W. Upfield, 2020-06-01 Tucked away in the Southern Highlands of New South Wales is Cork Valley inhabited by hard drinking Irishmen Here an Excise Officer looking for illicit whiskey stills has been murdered and it's Bony's job to find the killer Disguised as a horse thief the Aboriginal detective hitch hikes into the valley to meet a lawless lot Written by Upfield while living in Bowral Cork Valley is actually Robertson Bony a unique figure among top flight detectives BBC

When Bony Was There: A Chronology of the Life and Career of Detective Inspector Napoleon Bonaparte Kees de Hoog, 2010 Using facts and clues gleaned from the Bony stories by Arthur Upfield Kees de Hoog has compiled a chronology of the personal life events and professional assignments of Detective Inspector Napoleon Bonaparte This booklet uncovers the evidence and explains how it was pieced together to reveal the dates and other details The conclusions are presented with the findings of similar research by others into the location of each Bony novel Woven together they sketch the outline of the life career and travels of the internationally acclaimed fictional detective Mostly French Alistair Rolls, 2009 This book which was inspired by a conference on plural conjugations of Frenchness La France au pluriel held in 2007 at the Universities of Technology Sydney and Newcastle focuses on the concept of national belonging as it pertains to detective fiction with particular emphasis on French and Australian detective fictions and the encounter and crossing over between them The objective is not only to use the concepts of French and Australian detective fiction productively via the analysis of French and Australian detective fiction novels but also to challenge and undermine the very notion of national detective fictions which are so often assumed to be transparently meaningful The contributors to this volume focus variously on the following areas comparative analysis of the genesis of French and Australian detective fiction translation of Australian and other novels into French translation as a genre Frenchness as a stereotype its role in individual novels and its spectre in all detective fiction and readings of individual French and Australian detective novels Overall this book aims to challenge assumptions about French detective fiction its influence on other national fictions and its explicit and implicit presence in all detective fiction      A Checklist of Arthur Upfield Christopher P. Stephens,1992      Walkabout Arthur W. Upfield,2021-10-01 Arthur Upfield is known internationally for his crime novels featuring Bony the Aboriginal Detective In these thirteen stories written for Walkabout magazine between 1934 and 1949 and published in book form for the first time readers will travel well beyond the cities aided by maps and original photographs through Cooper s Creek visiting Lake Frome in South Australia patrol the rabbit proof fence in the West pearling in Broome or go angling for Swordfish at Bermagui Many of these stories give colour and detail to his more celebrated novels using the same settings as his crime novels Another describes the Australian Geographical Society s 5000 mile venture from Perth to the Kimberleys and back which was led by Upfield in 1948 Truly a book to remind us of the walkabout a journey originally on foot undertaken by the Australian Aboriginal in order to live in the traditional manner
