The Banana Leaf Men:

The Banana Leaf Men Aneeta Sundararaj, 2003 The Banana Leaf Men (Reprint) Aneeta Sundararaj, 2014-11-04
Feisty independent and highly intelligent Tika having reached the watershed of her thirtieth birthday agrees to submit to the pressure from the formidable Institution of the Aunties and agrees to an arranged marriage She endures a succession of repulsive chauvinistic self important suitors in this compelling humourous and poignant story of the clash of cultures in that rich curry pot of races and social mores that is modern Malaysia The novel has great charm and relevance in a world hurtling towards globalisation Tika's journey has a surprising resolution by Anna Abbott The Legacy of Afekan Wilson G. Wheatcroft, 1976 Temple Bar, 1905 Nuauulu Religious Practices Roy F. Ellen, 2012-01-01 How religious practices are reproduced has become a major theoretical issue This work examines data on Nuauulu ritual performances collected over a 30 year period comparing different categories of event in terms of frequency and periodicity It seeks to identify the influencing factors and the consequences for continuity Such an approach enables a focus on related issues variation in performance how rituals change in relation to material and social conditions the connections between different ritual types the way these interact as cycles and the extent to which fidelity of transmission is underpinned by a common model or repertoire of elements This monograph brings to completion a long term study of the religious behaviour of the Nuauulu a people of the island of Seram in the Indonesian province of Maluku Ethnographically it is important for several reasons the Nuauulu are one of the few animist societies remaining on Seram the data emphasize patterns of practices in a part of Indonesia where studies have hitherto been more concerned with meaning and symbolic classification and because Nuauulu live in an area where recent political tension has been between Christians and Muslims Nuauulu are paradoxically both caught between these two groups and apart from them The Timor Man Kerry B. Collison, 2018-10-01 Canberra bomb toll horrific Amongst those believed killed were the Indonesian Ambassador to Australia the Indonesian Chief of Army Staff the Indonesian Minister for Foreign Affairs and Tension between Australia and Indonesia the world's largest Moslem nation brings the two countries to the brink of war East Timor's sovereignty and rich oil fields shared by the two neighbouring countries become key elements in one man's ambitions General Nathan Seda a powerful Indonesian Officer has a dangerous plan in which he enmeshes Stephen Coleman a career Intelligence Officer with the Australian Embassy in Jakarta The Timor Man an absorbing thriller provides a controversial perspective on events in Indonesia from the abortive coup d'etat of 1965 to the present day Social Reproduction and History in Melanesia Robert John Foster, 1995-04-27 In much of Melanesia the process of social reproduction unfolds as a lengthy sequence of mortuary rites feast making and gift giving through which the living publicly define their social relations with each other while at the same time commemorating the deceased In this study Robert J Foster constructs an ethnographic account of mortuary rites in the Tanga Islands Papua New Guinea placing these large scale feasts and ceremonial exchanges in their historical context and demonstrating how the effects of participation in an expanding cash economy have allowed Tangans to conceive of the rites as customary in opposition to the new and foreign practices of business His examination synthesizes two divergent trends in Melanesian anthropology by emphasizing both the radical differences between Melanesian and Western forms of sociality and the conjunction of Melanesian and Western societies brought about by colonialism and capitalism Ways of Baloma Mark S. Mosko, 2017-11-15 Bronislaw Malinowski's path breaking research in the Trobriand Islands shaped much of modern anthropology's disciplinary paradigm Yet many conundrums remain For example Malinowski asserted that baloma spirits of the dead were responsible for procreation but had limited influence on their living descendants in magic and other matters claims largely unchallenged by subsequent field investigators until now Based on extended fieldwork at Omarakana village home of the Tabalu Paramount Chief Mark S Mosko argues instead that these and virtually all contexts of indigenous sociality are conceived as sacrificial reciprocities between the mirror worlds that baloma and humans inhabit Informed by a synthesis of Strathern's model of dividual personhood and Lévy Bruhl's theory of participation Mosko upends a century of discussion and debate extending from Malinowski to anthropology's other leading thinkers His account of the intimate interdependencies of humans and spirits in the cosmic generation and coordination of life, momova and death, kaliga strikes at the nexus of anthropology's received wisdom and Ways of Baloma will inevitably lead practitioners and students to reflect anew on the discipline's multifold theories of personhood, ritual agency and sociality The Abandoned Narcotic Ron Brunton, 1989 In this book Ron Brunton attempts to explain the strange geographical distribution of kava, a narcotic drink once widely consumed by south west Pacific islanders The Drunken Man's Talk, 2015-07-01 This collection of short stories, anecdotes and poems was likely compiled during the 13th century Tales of romantic love including courtship, marriage and illicit affairs unify the collection and make it an essential primary source for literary and social history since official Chinese history sources did not usually discuss family conflict or sexual matters This volume the first complete translation of The Drunken Man's Talk, Xinbian zuiweng tanlu in any language includes an introduction that explores the literary significance of the work as well as annotations explaining the symbolism and allusions found in the stories An Eames Anthology Charles Eames, Ray Eames, 2015-01-01 An Eames Anthology collects for the first time the writings of American designers Charles 1907-1978 and Ray Eames 1912-1988 Celebrated for their groundbreaking work in graphic design, industrial design, exhibition design, architecture and film, the Eameses' prolific and influential career changed the way Americans saw and thought about everyday objects Widely known as professional collaborators, Charles and Ray were also a married couple and the texts collected here reveal a behind-the-scenes look at the myriad motivations, inspirations and outcomes of their partnership over fifty years Previously unpublished materials such as handwritten notes and correspondence are featured chronologically alongside articles, exhibition reviews, editorials, conference papers and magazine covers as well as sections from oral history The anthology explores the Eameses' iconic projects such as Case Study House 9

Watson,2017-01-03 As civilisation begins to unravel around him Jay is stranded in possibly the most remote corner of the world With the help of two grounded airmen he begins the seemingly impossible route across the planet on foot With temperatures rising coastlines flooding and martial law in full effect the race is on to make it home before their world implodes entirely Wrapped in beautiful stark language this is a tale of disaster destruction and the power of never giving up hope Studies in Religion, Folk-lore, & Custom in British North Borneo and the Malay Peninsula Ivor Hugh Norman Evans,1923 Fiction and Faction in the Malay World Mohamad Rashidi Pakri,2013-02-14 This book offers a variety of essays and perspectives on some of the foreigners and traders who came to the Malay World and wrote fiction and faction writing that portrays real people or events in a dramatised manner during their sojourn regardless of whether they continued to stay in the region returned to their home country or migrated to another country The essays tend to cross generic and disciplinary boundaries as the contributors of this book are drawn from various fields within the arts and humanities including history geography language and literature and translation All of them however deal with colonial texts the Malay World or primarily cover the period from the 18th to the 20th century Including readings of fiction diaries vignettes letters written by traders or colonial officers the uniqueness of this book lies in the personal private and or informal nature of the various documents studied The encounters of these outsiders with the natives not only offer fascinating historical insights into the Malay World but to a significant degree vividly express the views and personalities of the writers themselves as mediated through their assigned commercial and colonial roles The Land of Seasons & Songs Sayed Athar Husain Naqvi,2019 The Land of Seasons and Songs is a flower basket of humor acquainting with cultures and traditions and presenting logical discourses It is recollection
