ThirdWay, 1998-11 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture The Postmodern Prince John Sanbonmatsu, 2004 A work of political theory with a focus on questions of strategy that examines the politics of the New Left in the 1960s showing how its expressivism led to political division and also prepared the ground for postmodernism It shows also how the political economy of academic life in an increasingly commodified society strengthened the basis of postmodernism Develops a brilliant account of a Marxism that sets itself the task of building a collective political subject capable of challenging capitalism in its moment of global crisis publisher web site Preliminary Bibliography for the History of the U.S. Army Ordnance Corps Keir Brooks Sterling, William T. T. Ward, 1987 The Politics of Dialogue Ranabir Samaddar, 2017-07-05 Offering a detailed analysis of post colonial South Asia The Politics of Dialogue discusses the creation and impact of borders and the pervasive tension between the new nations Neither all out war nor complete peace this fragile condition makes political leaders and strategists feel claustrophobic a war produces an end result but peace allows the rulers to carry out their policies for governing along their preferred path of development The book shows how cartographic communal and political lines are not only dividing countries but that they are being replicated within countries creating new visible and invisible internal frontiers It argues that in a situation where geopolitics constrains democracy the political class becomes incapable of coping with the tension between the inside outside eg democracy appears as an internal problem and geopolitics appears as a problem related to the outside
