Australian Beach Cultures Douglas Booth, 2012-12-06 Australians are surrounded by beaches But this enclosure is more than a geographical fact for the inhabitants of an island continent the beach is an integral part of the cultural envelope This work analyzes the history of the beach as an integral aspect of Australian culture

The Littoral Zone CA. Cranston, Robert Zeller, 2007 In this the first collection of ecocritical essays devoted to Australian contexts and their writers Australian and USA scholars settlers invaders temporary visa holders comment on the transliteration of sea land and interior through the works of major and minor authors and through their own experience with the bioregion The littoral zone is the starting point in this fresh approach to reading literature and is organised around the natural environment rainforest desert mountains coast islands Antarctica There s the beach where sexual and spiritual crises occur the Wheatbelt area the most visible clearance line on the planet desert literature camel trekking and the transformation of a salt flat into an inland island New Age literature that appropriates Aboriginals and their cultures as the healing poultice for an ailing and dispirited West a re examination of pastoralism and the feet of millions of sheep that have done unspeakable damage to soils an inquiry into whether Judith Wright s work can persuade us to rejoice in the world an investigation of the Limestone Plains home of the bush capital and the bogong moth of bananas cane toads and the Great Barrier Reef in tropic Queensland of national parks and guesthouses where the mountains meet the sea a discursive approach to temperate islands that covers sealing Soldier Settlement and sea country pastoral and finally to Antarctica where an initial utopian approach gives way to an emphasis on its stark timeless icescape as a minimalist backdrop for human dramas The author terrain is no less grand in its scope poets playwrights novelists and non fiction writers are discussed across the broad range of contexts that constitutes the littoral zone known as Australia

The Beach in Anglophone Literatures and Cultures Ursula Kluwick, Virginia Richter, 2016-03-09 From early colonial encounters to the ecological disasters of the twenty first century the performativity of contact has been a crucial element in the political significance of the beach Conceptualising the beach as a creative trope and as a socio cultural site as well as an aesthetically productive topography this collection examines its multiplicity of meanings and functions as a natural environment engendering both desire and fear in the human imagination from the Victorian period to the present The contributors examine literature film and art in addition to moments of encounter and environmental crisis to highlight the beach as a social space inspiring particular codes of behaviour and specific discourses as a geographical frontier between land and water as an historical site of contact and conflict and as a vacationscape promising regeneration and withdrawal from everyday life The diversity of the beach is reflected in the geographical range with essays on locales and texts from Britain Ireland the Caribbean South Africa the United States Polynesia and New Zealand Focusing on the changed function of the beach as a result of processes of industrialisation and the rise of a modern leisure and health culture this interdisciplinary volume theorises the beach as a demarcater of the precarious boundary between land and the sea as well as between nature and culture

The Bodysurfers Robert Drewe,2001-09-03 These stories breathe Taut yet teeming with life they are shot through with gritty phrases that catch at one s throat Sydney Morning Herald Set among the surf and sandhills of the Australian beach and the tidal changes of three generations of the Lang family this bestselling collection of short stories is an Australian classic The Bodysurfers vividly evokes the beach with the scent of the suntan oil the sting of the sun and a lazy sensuality all the while hinting at a deep undercurrent of suburban malaise From first publication these poignant and seductive stories marked a major change in Australian literature

The Bay of Contented Men Robert Drewe,1991-09-03 Witty and seductive inventive and disturbing The Bay of Contented Men ranges in location from east to west coast Australia to the United States Japan and Hong Kong This is the neighbourhood of edgy suburbanite Australians whose desires and misadventures are conjured here into intriguing fictions Robert Drewe s characters face the confrontation of gender race and generation with an ironic desperation born of love lust and wistful memory

Lola Arthur Griffiths,1877 Fortune Robert Drewe,2001-09-03 A tale of passion and pursuit Fortune is the story of Don Spargo a modern explorer who finds a sunken treasure ship off the West Australian coast and becomes a folk hero a lover and a hunted and haunted man Suspenseful satirical and deeply moving this novel challenges the nature of reality and legend in those scenes of modern conflict from the media to art from politics to crime that have obsessed the Western individual since World War II

A Cry in the Jungle Bar Robert Drewe,2001-09-03 Big bullish Dick Cullen light sleeper former rugby star and present expert on water buffalo is lumbering through his tour of duty with a UN agency in Asia Totally out of his depth among his small deft knowing colleagues he lurches sweatily from bar to bar across various tropical states of emergency Only in the Nameless Nightclub does he realise it is just a matter of time before his nightmares become reality
