A Story of Ruins Wu Hung, 2013-02-15 This richly illustrated book examines the changing significance of ruins as vehicles for cultural memory in Chinese art and visual culture from ancient times to the present The story of ruins in China is different from but connected to ruin culture in the West This book explores indigenous Chinese concepts of ruins and their visual manifestations as well as the complex historical interactions between China and the West since the eighteenth century Wu Hung leads us through an array of traditional and contemporary visual materials including painting architecture photography prints and cinema A Story of Ruins shows how ruins are integral to traditional Chinese culture in both architecture and pictorial forms It traces the changes in their representation over time from indigenous methods of recording damage and decay in ancient China to realistic images of architectural ruins in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries to the strong interest in urban ruins in contemporary China as shown in the many artworks that depict demolished houses and decaying industrial sites The result is an original interpretation of the development of Chinese art as well as a unique contribution to global art history

'Turquerie' and the Politics of Representation, 1728-1876 Nebahat Avcioglu, 2011 Devoted explicitly to the examination of Ottoman Turkish inspired architecture in Western Europe during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries in this study Nebahat Avcioglu rethinks the question of cultural frontiers not as separations but as a rapport of heterogeneities Reclaiming turquerie as cross cultural art from the confines of the inconsequential exoticism it is often reduced to Avcioglu analyses hitherto neglected constructions and links them to notions of self representation and politics

"Turquerie and the Politics of Representation, 1728-1876" Nebahat Avcioglu, 2017-07-05 In this first full length study devoted explicitly to the examination of Ottoman Turkish inspired architecture in Western Europe during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Nebahat Avcioglu rethinks the question of cultural frontiers not as separations but as a rapport of heterogeneities Reclaiming turquerie as cross cultural art from the confines of the inconsequential exoticism it is often reduced to Avcioglu analyses hitherto neglected images designs and constructions and links Western interest in the Ottoman Empire to notions of self representation and national politics In investigating why and to what effect Europeans turned to the Turk for inspiration Avcioglu provides a far reaching cultural reinterpretation of art and architecture in this period Presented as a series of case studies focusing on three specific building types kiosks mosques and baths chosen on the basis that each represents the first full fledged manifestations of their respective genres to be constructed in Western Europe the study delves into the cultural politics of architectural forms and styles The author argues that the appropriation of those building types was neither accidental nor did it merely reflect European domination of another culture The process was essentially dialectical and contributed to transculturation in both the West and the East

Julien-David Leroy and the Making of Architectural History Christopher Drew Armstrong, 2013-04-15 This book examines the career and publications of the French architect Julien David Leroy 1724 1803 and his impact on architectural theory and pedagogy Despite not leaving any built work Leroy is a major international figure of eighteenth century architectural theory and culture Considering the place that Leroy occupied in various intellectual circles of the Enlightenment and Revolutionary period this book examines the sources for his ideas about architectural history and theory and defines his impact on subsequent architectural thought This book will be of key interest to graduate students and scholars of Enlightenment era architectural history

The Top Books of the Year Sir William Chambers Knight Of The Polar Star The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
