The Poetria Nova and Its Sources in Early Rhetorical Doctrine Ernest Gallo, 1966

Rhetoric in the Middle Ages James Jerome Murphy, 1981-01-01 Follows the threads of ancient rhetorical theory into the Middle Ages and examines the distinctly Medieval rhetorical genres of perceptive grammar letter writing and preaching These various forms are compared with one another and placed in the context of Medieval society Covering the period 426 A D to 14

Brill's Companion to the Reception of Ancient Rhetoric, 2021-12-06 This volume examining the reception of ancient rhetoric aims to demonstrate that the past is always part of the present in the ways in which decisions about crucial political social and economic matters have been made historically or in organic interaction with literature philosophy and culture at the core of the foundation principles of Western thought and values Analysis is meant to cover the broadest possible spectrum of considerations that focus on the totality of rhetorical species i e forensic deliberative and epideictic as they are applied to diversified topics including but not limited to language science religion literature theatre and other cultural processes e g athletics politics and leadership pedagogy and gender studies and cross cultural geographical and temporal contexts

Landmark Essays on Rhetoric and Literature Craig Kallendorf, 2017-10-03 The studies of rhetoric and literature have been closely connected on the theoretical level ever since antiquity and many great works of literature were written by men and women who were well versed in rhetoric It is therefore well worth investigating exactly what these writers knew about rhetoric and how the practice of literary criticism has been enriched through rhetorical knowledge The essays reprinted here have been arranged chronologically with two essays selected for each of six major periods Antiquity the Middle Ages the Renaissance including Shakespeare the 17th century the 18th century and the 19th and 20th centuries Some are more theoretically oriented whereas others become exercises in practical criticism Some cover well trod ground whereas others turn to parts of the rhetorical tradition that are often overlooked Scholars in the field should benefit from having this material collected together and reprinted in one volume but the essays included here will also be useful to graduate students and advanced undergraduates for course work and general reading Students of rhetoric seeking to understand how the principles of their field extend into other forms of communication will find this volume of interest as will students of literature seeking to refine their understanding of the various modes of literary criticism

Rhetoric and Pedagogy Winifred Bryan Horner, Michael Leff, Robert Gaines, Jean Dietz Moss, Beth S. Bennett, 2013-12-02 To provide a view of the history of western rhetoric this volume presents original articles by a number of world renowned scholars representing different countries and varying viewpoints In discussing the status of the historical perspectives on rhetoric these international scholars also present a tribute to James J Murphy whose scholarship and service did much to shape the field The book will introduce new insights into western European rhetoric and its connections with English rhetoric The Present State of Scholarship in Historical and Contemporary Rhetoric Winifred Bryan Horner, 1990 In the years since its publication in 1983 The Present State of Scholarship in Historical and Contemporary Rhetoric has become a classic in its field proving to be an invaluable resource for students of rhetoric and composition as well as for scholars in English speech and philosophy This revised and updated edition defines the field of rhetoric as no other volume has Publishers website Rhetoric and the Writing of History, 400-1500 Matthew Kempshall, 2011-08-31 This book provides an analytical overview of the vast range of historiography which was produced in western Europe over a thousand year period between c 400 and c 1500 Concentrating on the general principles of classical rhetoric central to the language of this writing alongside the more familiar traditions of ancient history biblical exegesis and patristic theology this survey introduces the conceptual sophistication and semantic rigour with which medieval authors could approach their narratives of past and present events and the diversity of ends to which this history could then be put By providing a close reading of some of the historians who put these linguistic principles and strategies into practice from Augustine and Orosius through Otto of Freising and William of Malmesbury to Machiavelli and Guicciardini it traces and questions some of the key methodological changes that characterise the function and purpose of the western historiographical tradition in this formative period of its development Rhetoric Beyond Words Mary Carruthers, 2010-04-08 This book analyses collaborative activities across the visual arts to show the power of non verbal rhetoric in the Middle Ages Musical Structure in the 13th-century Motet Josephine Spencer Hart, 1980 Learning from the Histories of Rhetoric Theresa Enos, 1993 This collection of eleven essays honors Winifred Bryan Horner for her sustained effort to establish that the special nature of rhetoric and composition leads the discipline to theorize practice and to apply theory as its central acts Theresa Enos urges those in the field to learn from the histories of rhetoric in order to draw rhetoric and composition together and to understand theory in practice and the practice of theory as conceptualized by Aristotle Rhetoric the oldest of the humanities has practice as its very basis but English faculty who teach history of rhetoric courses often think that studying rhetorical history for its own sake is enough In addition the typical history course taught in English departments is nearly identical to the traditional ones that have been taught in speech and communication departments for three quarters of a century Enos believes that using the infrastructure of courses taught in speech does not meet the needs of teachers of written communication Learning from the Histories of Rhetoric is based on the problems Enos has perceived when history has not been connected to teaching learning using Her goal is both to honor Winifred Horner who has spent her career in trying to make usable connections between rhetoric and composition and to feature well known historians of rhetoric who can translate what they have learned about the history of rhetoric into the writing classroom As future teachers of writing take courses in history as part of core curricula Enos believes this volume can be a concise complement to the thousands of pages of history and theory they will be reading that it can be a resource guide that will generate and enrich discussion further suggestions for teaching and heighten awareness of the uses of history for writing teachers Enos has organized the essays into two parts Studying the Histories of Rhetoric and Teaching the Histories of Rhetoric Richard Lloyd Jones begins part 1 by interweaving personal and professional history as a pedagogue who consciously and explicitly uses the history of rhetoric Thomas P Miller makes a strong argument for broadening our knowledge of rhetorical traditions and deepening our perceptions of what they can mean to teaching Donald C Stewart suggests how we might reach into our history to find a philosophical model for present day college rhetoric and composition programs And Edward P J Corbett charts the history closest to teachers and administrators in writing programs In part 2 Susan C Jarratt concentrates on Sappho to demonstrate that women s ways of thinking and writing can differ from men s Marjorie Curry Woods shows that writing pedagogy from medieval times can be useful to current classroom strategies Both Jean Dietz Moss and Kathleen E Welch focus on dialectic Moss showing how closely dialectic and rhetoric worked together in the Renaissance and Welch continuing the argument for including dialectic in college writing courses Richard Leo Enos and S Michael Halloran delineate strong relationships between classical rhetoric and two present day approaches to writing peer collaboration and declamation

Lectura Dantis ,1991 Historical Rhetoric Winifred Bryan Horner,1980 Novantiqua Paolo Valesio,1980-11-22 This is an important book original erudite useful and ambitious Quarterly Journal of Speech A remarkable book sure to be of lasting interest to be reckoned with by all rhetorical theorists Choice This is the first contemporary attempt at a holistic theory of rhetoric well grounded in the context of cultural and social history Arguing that rhetoric has always been an independent objective essential factor in human interaction Valesio views it as coextensive with human speech in use

The Conflation of the Sacred and the Profane in Thirteenth-century Devotional Literature Karen Glenn Casebier,2006 Craft and Anti-craft in Chaucer's Canterbury Tales Peter J. Fields,2001 The main focus of this study is Chaucer s use of the word craft which in The Canterbury tales expands beyond mere technical prowess and becomes emblematic of the human predicament signaling a disjunction between the individual and the world he or she struggles to control through personal expertise and learned tradition It examines the metaphysics of Chaucer s epistemology and rhetoric and also examines prose and poetry that spans the course of the old and middle English periods reflecting human beings in the process of growing aware of their personal power to change the circumstances in which they live

The Epic Rhetoric of Tasso Maggie Günsberg,1998 Maggie Gunsberg examines the poetica and poesia of Tasso in the context of the historical and cultural climate in which he lived His epic theory is explored from the point of view of three rhetorical faculties current in 16th century poetics inventio dispositio and elocutio His discussion of dispositio reveals a fascinating similarity with ideas on art expressed by the Russian Formalists in the 1920s a coincidence that can be attributed to the lasting influence of Aristotelian writings on plot In her textual analysis of Gerusalemme liberata Dr Gunsberg uses modern methodologies drawing on Freud Lacan and the ideology of body language to develop new ways of reading the epic text The two parts of this study dealing with Tasso's theory and practice respectively offer complementary approaches that together illuminate his epic contribution Dissertation Abstracts ,1966 Dante and the Grammar of the Nursing Body Gary P. Cestaro,2003 This text takes a serious look at Dante's relation to Latin grammar and the new mother tongue Italian vernacular by exploring the cultural significance of the nursing mother in medieval discussions of language and selfhood Performing the Middle Ages from 'Beowulf' to 'Othello' Andrew James Johnston,2008 This text traces the dialogic nature of the relationship between the Middle Ages and modernity Arguing that modern beliefs in the alterity of the Middle Ages stem from the Middle Ages own processes of self representation the author explores varieties of nostalgia through a wide selection of texts
