Bailey, 2019-02-11 This book examines the existing counter terrorism laws and practices in the six member East African Community EAC as it applies to a range of law enforcement and military activities under various international legal obligations Dr Christopher E Bailey provides a comparative examination of existing national law for EAC countries including compliance with obligations under international human rights and international humanitarian law and offers a range of legal reform recommendations This book addresses two primary related research questions To what extent do the current national counter terrorism laws and practices of the EAC Partner States comply with existing international human rights safeguards What laws or practices can the EAC adopt to achieve better compliance with human rights safeguards in both civilian and military counter terrorism operations Guyana Criminal Justice System Laws, Regulations and Procedures Handbook Volume 1 Strategic Information and Regulations IBP, Inc., 2015-06 Guyana Criminal Laws Regulations and Procedures Handbook Strategic Information Regulations Procedures

Arms Control Jozef Goldblat, 2002-09-24 A unique and indispensable work that serves both as a basic introduction to the disarmament scene and a reference book for experts Disarmament Times This compendium of the history and achievements of arms control and disarmament efforts is unique in its kind and is likely to remain so This for three reasons first because of its unparalleled comprehensiveness second because of the outstanding quality of its presentation and third because of its author Jozef Goldblat one of the world s leading experts in the field This triad makes the updated Second Edition of Arms Control The New Guide to Negotiations and Agreements a must for all concerned with international security in general and arms control in particular Curt Gasteyger Graduate Institute of International Studies Geneva The thesaurus of arms regulation and disarmament a precious tool for negotiators and treaty makers Ambassador V Petrovsky Former Secretary

General of the Conference on Disarmament Being the most comprehensive and authoritative compilation and analysis of arms control agreements available this is an indispensable reference volume for students and practitioners of arms control and international security The author has spent a lifetime in the study and practice of international security affairs where international law and arms control agreements are concerned there is no one better qualified than him Sverre Lodgaard Norwegian Institute of International Affairs Oslo The revised and updated edition of Arms Control The New Guide to Negotiations and Agreements contains the most authoritative and comprehensive survey ever published of the documents related to arms control All major agreements reached since the second half of the nineteenth century through to mid 2002 are critically analysed and assessed The assessment is made in the light of the international security environment the developments in the field of weapon technology the threat of nuclear chemical and biological weapons proliferation and the efforts to strengthen the humanitarian law of armed conflict The accompanying CD ROM reproduces full text and carefully selected excerpts of treaties conventions common understandings statutes charters binding decisions of international bodies final acts of international conferences exchanges of letters and diplomatic notes Multilateral agreements are followed by a list of parties Enriched with new maps tables and figures as well as an expanded glossary and bibliography the book will remain the definitive resource for students of international relations journalists diplomats and military strategists Jozef Goldblat the author is Vice President of the Geneva International Peace Research Institute GIPRI Resident Senior Fellow of the UN Institute for Disarmament Research UNIDIR and Associate Editor of Security Dialogue published by SAGE for the International Peace Research Institute Oslo PRIO He has studied the problems of arms control since the 1950s and has been involved in arms control negotiations From 1969 to 1989 he directed the arms control and disarmament programme of studies at the Stockholm International Peace Research Institute SIPRI He has lectured at various universities and has written reports articles and books on the arms race and disarmament His latest publications include The Nuclear Non Proliferation Regime Assessment and Prospects The Hague Academy of International Law 1997 and Nuclear Disarmament Obstacles to Banishing the Bomb I B Tauris 2000 The Arms Trade Treaty: A Commentary Andrew Clapham, Stuart Casey-Maslen, Gilles Giacca, Sarah Parker, 2016-07-28 The United Nations Arms Trade Treaty became binding international law in late 2014 and although the text of the treaty is a relatively concise framework for assessing whether to authorize or deny proposed conventional weapons transfers by States Parties there exists controversy as to the meaning of certain key provisions Furthermore the treaty requires a national regulatory body to authorize proposed transfers of conventional weapons covered by the treaty but does not detail how such a body should be established and how it should effectively function The Arms Trade Treaty A Commentary explains in detail each of the treaty provisions the parameters for prohibitions or the denial of transfers international cooperation and assistance and implementation obligations and mechanisms As states ratify and implement the Treaty over the next few years the commentary provides invaluable guidance to government officials commentators and scholars on the meaning of its contentious provisions This volume describes in detail which weapons are covered by the treaty and explains the different forms of transfer that the Arms Trade Treaty regulates It covers international human rights trade disarmament humanitarian law criminal law and state to state use of force as well as the application of the treaty to non state actors
