Stingnothing Like The Sun:

Stir It Up Gene Santoro, 1997-07-10 It is a cliché that the world is shrinking As Gene Santoro sees it in his second collection of essays music is one arena where that cliché takes on a real but paradoxical life while music crisscrosses the globe with ever greater speed musicians seize what is useful and expand their idioms more rapidly More and more since the 1960s musicians both in America and abroad have shown an uncanny but consistent ability to draw inspiration from quite unexpected sources We think of Paul Simon in Graceland blending Afropop rhythms and Everly Brothers harmonies into a remarkable new sound that captured imaginations worldwide Or Jimi Hendrix trying to wring from guitar the howling Doppler shifting winds he experienced as a paratrooper Or Thelonius Monk mingling Harlem stride piano bebop the impressionist harmonies of DeBussey and a delight in harmonic space that eerily paralleled modern physics From the startling experiments of such jazz giants as Charles Mingus to the political bite of Bob Marley and Bruce Springsteen we see musicians again and again taking musical tradition and making it new The result is a profusion of new forms media that are constantly being reinvented in short an art form capable of seemingly endless and endlessly fascinating permutations Gene Santoro's Stir It Up is an ideal guide to this ever changing soundscape Santoro is the rare music critic equally at home writing about jazz John Coltrane Ornette Coleman Tom Harrell rock Sting Elvis Costello P J Harvey and the international scene Jamaican Brazilian and African pop music In Stir It Up readers will find thoughtful but unpretentious discussions of such different musicians as David Byrne and Aretha Franklin Gilberto Gil and Manu Dibango Abbey Lincoln and Joe Lovano And Santoro shows us not only the distinctive features of the diverse people who create so many dazzling sounds but also the subtle and often surprising connections between them With effortless authority and a rich sense of music history he reveals for instance how Ornette Coleman was influenced by a mystical group in Morocco the Major Musicians of Joujouka whom he discovered via Rolling Stone Brian Jones how John Coltrane's unpredictable extended sax solos influenced The Byrds The Grateful Dead and most significantly Jimi Hendrix and how Bob Marley's reggae combined Rastafarian chants with American pop African call and response and Black Nationalist politics into a potent mix that still shapes musicians from America to Africa Europe to Asia A former musician himself Santoro is equally illuminating about both the technical aspects of the music and the personal development of the artists themselves He offers us telling glimpses into their often turbulent lives Ornette Coleman being kicked out of his high school band for improvising Charles Mingus checking himself into Bellevue because he'd heard it was a good place to rest the teenaged Jimi Hendrix practicing air guitar with a broom at the foot of his bed Aretha Franklin's Oedipal struggle with her larger than life preacher father Throughout the volume Santoro's love and knowledge shine through as he maps the rewarding terrain of pop music's varied traditions its eclectic cross cultural borrowings and its astonishing innovations What results is a fascinating tour through twentieth century popular music lively thought provoking leavened with humor and unexpected twists Stir It Up is sure to challenge readers even as it entertains them Sting Hal

Osborne,2024-01-29 A woman trapped in a toxic relationship and then abandoned befriends a powerful billionaire who takes her under his wing and negotiates a bittersweet acquisition of a historical Plantation from her captor Will she and her best friend find solace and true love within his private inner circle of high powered successful business men with divine persuasion from the Universe Island Music: The History Of AIR Studios Montserrat Brian Sallerson,2022-09-28 For 10 years AIR Studios Montserrat produced many of the biggest hits that defined the 1980s On September 17 1989 it all ended in a flash of wind rain and fury The AIR Studios Montserrat recording studio owned by Sir George Martin often referred to as the Fifth Beatle operated from 1979 to 1989 on the small picturesque Caribbean island of Montserrat Playing host to some of the biggest recording artists of the 1980s this studio produced many of the hit songs integral to the musical fabric of that decade The isolated tropical environment of the studio's location on Montserrat created a unique creative environment not found anywhere else in the world To many of those who worked and recorded there it is regarded as a very special place an experience that left an indelible imprint on their lives Sadly the storied history of AIR Studios Montserrat was suddenly cut short when the destructive forces of Hurricane Hugo battered the island in September of 1989 Over 30 years later the remains of the studio lay in ruin as the island reclaims the land that was once creative fertile ground for artists such as The Police Dire Straits Paul McCartney Duran Duran and Elton John The prolific musical output from AIR Studios Montserrat cemented its place in music history and world culture The studio's sudden demise at the hands of Hurricane Hugo creates an emotional ending to an important artistic enclave that touched so many people around the world The story of its creation operation and demise needs to be told so it can be appreciated by the millions of music fans whose lives were defined by the music recorded there Born in Flames Howard Hampton,2007-01-15 Twenty years as an outsider scouring the underbelly of American culture has made Howard Hampton a uniquely hard nosed guide to the heart of pop darkness Bridging the fatalistic intensely charged space between Apocalypse Now Redux and Nirvana's Smells Like Teen Spirit his writing breaks down barriers of ignorance and arrogance that have segregated art forms from each other and often from the world at large In the freewheeling spirit of Pauline Kael Lester Bangs and Manny Farber Hampton calls up the extremist underground tendencies and archaic forces simmering beneath the surface of popular forms Ranging from the kinetic poetry of Hong Kong cinema and the neo New Wave energy of Irma Vep to the punk heroines of Sleater Kinney and Ghost World Born in Flames plays odd couples off one another pitting Natural Born Killers against Forrest Gump contrasting Jean Luc Godard with Steven Spielberg defending David Lynch against aesthetic ideologues invoking The Curse of the Mekons against Fredric Jameson s Postmodernism and introducing D H Lawrence to Buffy the Vampire Slayer We are born in flames sang the incandescent Lora Logic and here those flames are a source of illumination as well as destruction warmth as well as consumption From the scorched earth works of action movie provocateurs Seijun Suzuki and Sam Peckinpah to the cargo cult soundscapes of Pere Ubu and the Czech dissidents Plastic People of the Universe Born in Flames is a headlong plunge into the passions and disruptive power of art
