Stitches on Time Saurabh Dube, 2004-03-25 A critical analysis of histories and anthropologies of South Asia seen in relation to the subaltern studies project and several examples of how colonial history might be done differently

Stitches on Time Saurabh Dube, 2004-03-25 A critical analysis of histories and anthropologies of South Asia seen in relation to the subaltern studies project and several examples of how colonial history might be done differently

Engaging South Asian Religions Mathew N. Schmalz, Peter Gottschalk, 2012-01-02 Focusing on boundaries appropriations and resistances involved in Western engagements with South Asian religions this edited volume considers both the pre and postcolonial period in India Pakistan and Bangladesh It pays particular attention to contemporary controversies surrounding the study of South Asian religions including several scholars reflection on the contentious reaction to their own work Other chapters consider such issues as British colonial epistemologies the relevance of Hegel for the study of South Asia the canonization of Francis Xavier feminist interpretations of the mother of the Buddha and theological dispute among Muslims in Bangladesh and Pakistan By using the themes of boundaries appropriations and resistances this work offers insight into the dynamics and diversity of Western approaches to South Asian religions and the indigenous responses to them that avoids simple active passive binaries

The Dazzle of the Digital Meghna Bal, Vivan Sharan, 2022-10-26 The Dazzle of the Digital is written in the context of digital technology s inextricable link with progress and modernity in India with the COVID pandemic in the backdrop Digital technology such as smartphones and the internet exemplify the popular ideal of a modernity where the proliferation of data and information seamlessly translates into knowledge and value The authors attempt to wrestle with this impulsive conflation of the digital with the modern and argue that the former can sometimes retard progress rather than foster it They provide examples from various spheres ranging from public service delivery to private markets to unpack the pitfalls of a blinkered view on modernity The book presents an objective take on the potential of digital technology written with the hope that it will prompt greater societal reflection on technology as a lever for advancement at a time when the march of everything digital is inexorable

SpaceTime of the Imperial Holt Meyer, Susanne Rau, Katharina Waldner, 2016-11-07 This volume works through spatio temporal concepts to be found in imperial practices and their representations in a wide range of media The individual cases investigated in the volume cover a broad spectrum of historical periods from ancient times up to the present Well known international scholars treat special cases of the topic using cutting edge theory and approaches stemming from historical cartographic religious literary media studies as well as ethnography

Unbecoming Modern Saurabh Dube, Ishita Banerjee-Dube, 2019-06-14 In this volume well known scholars from India and Latin America Enrique Dussel Madhu Dubey Walter D Mignolo and Sudipta Sen to name a few discuss the concepts of modernity and colonialism and describe how the two relate to each other This second edition to the volume comes with a new introduction which extends and critically supplements the discussion in the earlier introduction to the volume It explores the vital impact of the colonial pasts of India Mexico China and even the United States on the processes through which these countries have become modern The collection is unique as it brings together a range of disciplines and perspectives The topics discussed include the Zapatista movement in Southern Mexico the image of the South in recent African American literature the theories of Andre Gunder Frank about the early modernization of Asian countries and the contradictions of the colonial state in India The Routledge Handbook of Subalterns across History Saurabh Dube, Ishita Banerjee, 2025-05-30 Subaltern Studies has marked both a major departure in South Asian studies and indexed broader shifts in the critical humanities and social sciences This volume explores what it means today to set to work studies of subaltern subjects in our rapidly mutating social worlds This handbook spans diverse historical ethnographic and geopolitical spaces drawing in the Antipodes and the Americas Diasporas and Oceanic worlds Africa and the Middle East apart from Europe and many South Asias overlapping arenas in which the subaltern continues to find distinct yet substantive articulations It also seeks to meaningfully juxtapose practices and processes of gender and race indigeneity and indenture age and sexuality slavery and apartheid the Adivasi and the Dalit settler colonialisms and nations nature and environment caste and tribe diaspora and blackness capital and property science and technology media and cinema the body and dance heteronormativity and queerness state and governance and politics and justice In these ways the study unframes disciplinary boundaries and maps emergent terrains exactly articulating pressing subjects and rethinking distinct subalternities This book is aimed at researchers scholars and advanced undergraduate and graduate students in the critical human sciences especially history anthropology social theory and cultural gender and literary studies Soundings in Cultural Criticism Francisco Lozada, Greg Carey, 2013-02-12 A number of disciplines aligned under cultural criticism have changed the shape of contemporary biblical studies not only by offering new methods but by questioning old goals and proposing new ones Soundings in Cultural Criticism offers a collection of succinct essays in these fields by some of the foremost scholars in New Testament studies Questions of historical reconstruction textual interpretation and present cultural deployment are addressed in an ideal second textbook for New Testament courses Peasant Pasts Vinayak Chaturvedi, 2007 Publisher description The British Raj: Keywords Pramod K. Nayar, 2017-02-03 During the course of governing India the Raj a number of words came to have particular meanings in the imperial lexicon This book documents the words and terms that the British used to describe define understand and judge the subcontinent It offers insights into the cultures of the Raj through a sampling of its various terms concepts and nomenclature and utilizes critical commentaries on specific domains to illuminate not only the linguistic meaning of a word but its cultural and political nuances It also provides literary and cultural texts from the colonial canon where these Anglo Indian colloquialisms terms and official jargon occurred Creative Pasts Prachi Deshpande, 2007 The Maratha period of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries when an independent Maratha state successfully resisted the Mughals is a defining era in the history of the region of Maharashtra in western India In this book

Prachi Deshpande considers the importance of this period for a variety of political projects including anticolonial Hindu nationalism and the non Brahman movement as well as popular debates throughout the nineteenth and twentieth centuries concerning the meaning of tradition culture and the experience of colonialism and modernity Sampling from a rich body of literary and cultural sources Deshpande highlights shifts in history writing in early modern and modern India and the deep connections between historical and literary narratives She traces the reproduction of the Maratha period in various genres and public arenas its incorporation into regional political symbolism and its centrality to the making of a modern Marathi regional consciousness She also shows how historical memory provided a space for Indians to negotiate among their national religious and regional identities pointing to history's deeper potential in shaping politics within thoroughly diverse societies A truly unique study Creative Pasts examines the practices of historiography and popular memory within a particular colonial context and illuminates the impact of colonialism on colonized societies and cultures Furthermore it shows how modern history and historical memory are jointly created through the interplay of cultural activities power structures and political rhetoric

Subaltern Lives Clare Anderson, 2012-04-05 Subaltern Lives uses biographical fragments of the lives of convicts captives sailors slaves indentured labourers and indigenous peoples to build a fascinating new picture of colonial life in the nineteenth century Indian Ocean Moving between India Africa Mauritius Burma Singapore Ceylon the Andaman Islands and the Australian colonies Clare Anderson offers fresh readings of the nature and significance of networked Empire She reveals the importance of penal transportation for colonial expansion and sheds new light on convict experiences of penal settlements and colonies as well as the relationship between convictism punishment and colonial labour regimes The book also explores the nature of colonial society during this period and embeds subaltern biographies into key events like the abolition of slavery the Anglo Sikh Wars and the Indian Revolt of 1857 This is an important new perspective on British colonialism which also opens up new possibilities for the writing of history itself

Sovereign Anxiety Javed Iqbal Wani, 2023-11-16 Studies sovereignty and law and argues that public order laws are an expression of sovereign anxiety

Beyond Conversion and Syncretism avid,, Miles Richardson, 2011-10-01 The globalization of Christianity its spread and appeal to peoples of non European origin is by now a well known phenomenon Scholars increasingly realize the importance of natives rather than foreign missionaries in the process of evangelization This volume contributes to the understanding of this process through case studies of encounters with Christianity from the perspectives of the indigenous peoples who converted More importantly by exploring overarching general terms such as conversion and syncretism and by showing the variety of strategies and processes that actually take place these studies lead to a more nuanced understanding of cross cultural religious interactions in general from acceptance to resistance thus enriching the vocabulary of religious interaction The contributors tackle these issues from a variety of disciplinary perspectives history anthropology religious studies and present a broad geographical spread of cases from China Vietnam Australia India South and West Africa North and Central

America and the Caribbean      Religious Individualisation Martin Fuchs,Antje Linkenbach,Martin Mulsow,Bernd-Christian Otto,Rahul Bjørn Parson,Jörg Rüpke,2019-12-16 This volume brings together key findings of the long term research project Religious Individualisation in Historical Perspective Max Weber Centre for Advanced Cultural and Social Studies Erfurt University Combining a wide range of disciplinary approaches methods and theories the volume assembles over 50 contributions that explore and compare processes of religious individualisation in different religious environments and historical periods in particular in Asia the Mediterranean and Europe from antiquity to the recent past Contrary to standard theories of modernisation which tend to regard religious individualisation as a specifically modern or early modern as well as an essentially Western or Christian phenomenon the chapters reveal processes of religious individualisation in a large variety of non Western and pre modern scenarios Furthermore the volume challenges prevalent views that regard religions primarily as collective phenomena and provides nuanced perspectives on the appropriation of religious agency the pluralisation of religious options dynamics of de traditionalisation and privatisation the development of elaborated notions of the self the facilitation of religious deviance and on the notion of dividuality      Indian Village S.C. Dube,2017-10-30 Indian Village is widely considered a classic Since its publication over six decades ago the book has received immense acclaim attaining extraordinary success especially as the first book on a single village in post Second World War South Asia Indeed the work represents a key statement of the wider shift from tribe to village in Indian anthropology part of the movement away from studies of isolated groups toward writings on contemporary communities in the sociology of the subcontinent Written in an accessible intimate manner Indian Village needs to be understood today as a flagship endeavour of the social sciences in a young independent India a study that continues to be generously cited including as a model monograph in the disciplines at large      "Material Women, 1750-1950" Maureen Daly Goggin,2017-07-05 With the volume's global perspective and comparative framework this collection contributes to the ongoing scholarly examination of consumption by taking the topic of women material culture and consumption into new arenas The essays explore the connections between consumption and subjectivity they build upon and complicate the idea that consumption as a form of meaning making is key to the construction of gendered classed and national identities Providing a cross cultural perspective on consumption the essays are historically specific case studies While some essays examine women's consumption in a range of Anglophone and Francophone locations primarily in Britain France Australia Canada and the US other essays on Chinese Senegalese Indian and Mexican women's consumption particularly as it relates to fashion and design provide a comparative framework that will recalibrate ongoing discussions about consumption and domesticity dress and identity and desire and subjectivity In addition to its focus on gender and consumption this volume addresses gender and collecting exploring the tensions between accumulation and systematic collecting Also examined is the way in which the display of collected objects in Impressionists paintings in mass produced illustrations in the glass cases of museums and department stores participates in the construction of particular identities as well as serving as a kind of value producing material practice

Misunderstanding Stories Melinda

McGarrah Sharp, 2013-01-24 How can we work toward mutual understanding in our increasingly diverse and interconnected world Pastoral theologian Melinda McGarrah Sharp approaches this multifaceted interdisciplinary question by beginning with moments of intercultural misunderstanding Using misunderstanding stories from her experience working with the Peace Corps in Suriname Dr McGarrah Sharp argues that we must recognize the limits of our own cultural perspectives in order to have meaningful intercultural encounters that are more mutually empowering and hopeful Bringing together resources from pastoral theology ethnography and postcolonial studies she provides a valuable resource for investigating the complexity of providing care and fostering communities of belonging across cultural differences McGarrah Sharp illustrates a process of moving from disconnection to regard for diverse others as neighbors who share a common yearning for hopeful and meaningful connection Leaders in faith communities practitioners of care and scholars will all be able to use this resource to better understand the conflicts tensions and uncertainties of our postcolonial twenty first century world An included discussion guide facilitates classroom study small group discussion and personal reflection

Courtly Indian Women in Late Imperial India Angma Dey Jhala, 2015-10-06 Examines the political worldview of courtly and royal women in India during the late colonial and post Independence period This book offers a history of the zenana which served as the women s courts or female quarters of the palace where women lived behind pardah in seclusion
