Stolen Diary:

The Eyewitness Manas Paul, 2009 Over the last three decades Tripura the smallest of North East Indian states surrounded on three sides by Bangladesh was caught in the vortex of highly patterned militant violence deadly ethnic conflicts and planned destruction of thousand year old harmonious and peaceful coexistence of tribal and non tribal people of the state Since the day the TNV took to arms the surfeit of tribal insurgencies in Tripura is marked by brutal civilian massacres abduction of innocent citizens ambushes on security forces large scale extortions and a ruthless ethnic cleansing perpetrated on unarmed non tribals by the National Liberation Front of Tripura and the All Tripura Tiger Force two banned underground organizations The armed insurrections in Tripura at varied levels and colors often abetted by narrow political interest were marked not only by serious threat to human life and civilian security but also by destruction of properties on a colossal scale The blood spilling xenophobic tribal militancy sought homogenization of the land and the subsequent fall out also caused wide ethnic fissures between the majority Bengalis and minority indigenous tribal people One of the important features of the orgy of violent campaigns was that it had taken ominous proportions with the forces inimical to India coming to play the key role to help and support the underground elements The book The Eyewitness Tales from Tripura's Ethnic Conflict creates a matrix of hard facts and figures with personal experiences and stories of witnesses from a cross section of people common men police and security officials administrators militants journalists businessmen victims of militancy et al The book records in cold letters and with appropriate interpretations the painful litany of grisly crimes in the name of insurgency and how and why these happened ILLUSTRATIONS 16 b w photographs Math Mysteries Jack Silbert, 1995 Stories and activities to build math problem solving skills Cinema and the Second Sex Carrie Tarr, Brigitte Rollet, 2016-10-06 Women's filmmaking in France has been a source of both delight and despair On the one hand the numbers are impressive over 250 feature length films were made by over 100 women directors in France in the 1980s and 1990s On the other hand despite the heritage of French feminism French women directors characteristically disclaim their gender as a significant factor in their filmmaking This incisive study provides an informative critical guide to this major body of work exploring the boundaries between personal films intimate psychological dramas relating to key stages in life and genre films which demonstrate women's ability to appropriate and rework popular genres It analyzes the effects of postfeminism women's desire to enter the mainstream and the impact of a new generation of filmmakers enabling readers to take stock of the wealth and diversity of women's contribution to French cinema during the 1980s and 1990s Diverse Stories Lou Richie's Sixth Grade Class, 2006-11 But what I also know is that writing allows students to explore and reveal how they view life based on their frames of references There is no common theme in the Diverse Stories From the Imaginations of Sixth Graders because the students were allowed to write about whatever they wanted How refreshing The stories are equally as unique as the individual writers some melancholy some funny some breathtaking all fantastic Mary B Morrison bestselling author of Nothing Has Ever Felt Like This This charming collection of short stories shares the talents of Lou Richie's sixth grade students from St Lawrence O Toole School in Oakland California Diverse Stories From the Imaginations of Sixth Graders was developed as a class project when Richie requested that each student write a short story Impressed by their creativity and imagination Richie sought to share their stories with the world He approached bestselling author Mary B Morrison about the project and Morrison offered to fully sponsor the publication of their stories Through the combined efforts of the students Morrison and Richie Diverse Stories From the Imaginations of Sixth Graders was born

Melancholy Drift Jean Ma, 2010-06-01 Ma offers an innovative study of three provocative Chinese directors Wong Kar wai Hou Hsiao hsien and Tsai Ming liang Focusing on the highly stylized and nonlinear configurations of time in each director's films she argues that these directors have brought new global respect for Chinese cinema in amplifying motifs of loss nostalgia haunting absence and ephemeral poetics Hou Tsai and Wong all insist on the significance of being out of time not merely out of place as a condition of global modernity Ma argues that their films collectively foreground the central place of contemporary Chinese films in a transnational culture of memory characterized by a distinctive melancholy that highlights the difficulty of binding together past and present into a meaningful narrative Jean Ma is assistant professor in the Department of Art and Art History at Stanford University Melancholy Drift rides the films of three Chinese auteurs right into the heart of its subject the mismatch between private feeling and collective history These crucial films set carefully beside one another begin to pulse anew under the deft touch of Jean Ma's analyses Drawing on a deep reservoir of historical and critical knowledge she helps us hear these films speak of our times then speak of time itself and of its dislocations Dudley Andrew Yale University Theoretically sophisticated and elegantly written Melancholy Drift elucidates the subject of cinematic time in its various configurations as a response to historical ruptures and political upheavals as representational politics and as a reinvention of the art cinema This book is a timely demonstration of the key roles played by Chinese auteurs in shaping the new face of world cinema today and an important contribution to scholarship both within and beyond the field of transnational Chinese cinemas Song Hwee Lim University of Exeter

Now They Lay me Down to Rest Thomas M. Aiken, Connie L. Aiken, 2022-10-31 Now They Lay me Down to Rest Hodgie's Story By Connie L Aiken and Thomas M Aiken About the Book New York State Police Investigator Thomas M Aiken was asked to reopen a 22 year old cold case homicide in August of 1994 It involved a little boy who was abused beaten tortured and starved literally to death A little boy who never felt the love or protection of a mother in his short life with the fatal strike occurring just before his third birthday As they began their grueling investigation they discovered one lie after another by the professionals that were trusted to protect these children allowing a murderous monster to walk free for 22 years and horrendously abuse six additional siblings Until a caring and dedicated prosecutor tenacious investigators and world renowned forensic pathologist Dr Michael Baden put all the broken pieces together and obtained justice for a little boy who no one ever thought anyone would ever care about All the while during the non stop gathering of evidence and statements this book also includes a couple of other chilling homicides that were intertwined during this investigation with all of this adding up to a made for TV movie Now They Lay me Down to Rest was written from the perspective of Connie Tom's wife and mother of six children who navigated her way through a 30 year career involving over 100 homicides and 700 horrendous child abuse cases all coming home to her One case in particular the story of Hodgie has always been on their minds and in their hearts They knew someday they wanted to write a book about this case to bring awareness to help children that are in similar situations Their goal is to educate police CPS doctors teachers neighbors and anyone who is in a position to observe children being abused or hear their cries and to give them the courage to speak up and take action Comments from October 4 2021 Lecture at the University of South Carolina

Beaufort The knowledge of the presenter and how he presented it It was fascinating horrifying and enlightening The most moving and deep presentation I have ever attended outstanding Unbelievable how evil people can be True evil in this world frightening Extremely informative The instructor s work experience More than I expected Excellent Totally riveting Created multitude of emotions Yes I cried during the I Miss You Daddy video song But touched at the passion and dedication to help make a change when evil lives among us Continued success and bless both of you for your caring and dedication I look forward to your book As an aside makes me angry Yes this class has too many WOW factors to adequately recognize here I gained a high level of appreciation for the focus determination and professionalism of our civilian police forces and especially the detectives who work to solve these horrific and unsettling crimes I have not attended a more interesting even though the crime was horrific and unsettling and engaging class The presenter was fabulous mainly because he was genuine and forthcoming in so many ways What these officers go through it is hard to imagine being able to turn if off outside of work Comments from May 2 2022 Lecture at Clemson University Excellent Want more by these folks Would love other classes taught by Mr Aiken
