Ransom, 2009-05-20 This first book-length study of French language science fiction from Canada provides an introduction to the subgenre known as SFQ (science fiction from Quebec). In addition, it offers in-depth analyses of SFQ sagas by Jacques Brossard, Esther Rochon, and Elisabeth Vonarburg. It demonstrates how these multivolume narratives of colonization and postcolonial societies exploit themes typical of postcolonial literatures, including the denunciation of oppressive colonial systems, the utopian hope for a better future, and the celebration of tolerant pluralistic societies. A bibliography of SFQ available in English translation is included. Stories of Quebec Douglas Daymond, Leslie Monkman, 1980 The Quebec Anthology Matt Cohen, Wayne Grady, 1997-10-17 The Quebec Anthology 1830-1990 provides a complete overview of the Quebec short story from its beginnings to the 1990s and offers a unique opportunity for English readers to discover the essence of this fascinating literature. In addition, a detailed biography of each author and an assessment of each story's place in the larger canvas of Quebec literature are included. The Sense of the Sacred in the Early Novels of Quebec Lisa M. Gasbarrone, 2024-10-15 Quebec's early novels are full of sacred themes and motifs: devotional objects and practices, parables and scripture, priests and nuns, transcendence, divinity, and eternity. Yet the critical gaze of the past fifty years has seldom engaged the idea of the sacred in a sustained way. Indeed, the presence of the sacred has alienated modern and postmodern readers who ignore or downplay its significance, leading to misguided assessments of these works as mediocre and even unreadable for contemporary audiences. The Sense of the Sacred in the Early Novels of Quebec reexamines seven classic novels at the foundations of Quebec's national literature: Patrice Lacombe's La Terre paternelle (1846), P. J. O. Chauveau's Charles Guérin (1853), Antoine G. Rivard's Lajoie (1874), Philippe Aubert de Gaspé's Les Anciens Canadiens (1863), Laure Conan's Angeline de Montbrun (1884), Louis Hémon's Maria Chapdelaine (1916), and Félix Antoine Savard's Menaud maître-draveur (1937). Through chapters that focus on sacred themes, character analysis, narrative temporalities, and the hermeneutics of the sacred, Lisa Gasbarrone demonstrates that these novels are more nuanced and innovative than their reputation has allowed. The Sense of the Sacred in the Early Novels of Quebec reintroduces readers to classic works of French Canadian literature that ironically and provocatively cast their quarrel with modernity in that essentially modern form the novel Encounters with Quebec Susan L. Rosenstreich, 1998 Examines works of Québécois narrative fiction from a variety of perspectives The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik, 2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada's flagship genre It continues to attract the country's most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre's beginnings through the twentieth century A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre's development in Canada the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story Reingard M Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany Little Stories of Quebec James Edward Le Rossignol, 1908 Report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction of the Province of Quebec for the Year ... Québec (Province).
