Stories We Heard About Courage:

Stories We've Heard, Stories We've Told Jeffrey A. Kottler, 2015 If you ask someone the question Tell me a story that changed your life there will almost certainly be a thoughtful pause before a huge grin emerges Everyone's life has been guided and impacted by stories beginning with the earliest fables and nursery rhymes our parents used to instill moral values to the last time you wanted to illustrate a point in a meeting or get a laugh out of a friend over dinner Storytelling is a uniquely human activity among our first and most enduring forms of communication This is a book about the meaning of stories in people's lives especially those that have produced enduring changes in their values behavior lifestyle and worldview Carefully documented and supported by research from the social sciences as well as from neurobiology the humanities media studies and arts Jeffrey Kottler will explore how and why stories are so powerfully influential in people's lives especially those that lead to major life transformations

The American Dream for Students of Color Gretchen Givens Generett, Amy M. Olson, 2021-03-24 In The American Dream for Students of Color the tenets of the American Dream as a merit narrative enacted in schools are examined to better understand how beliefs about talent hard work and perseverance support the status quo rather than critically analyze barriers to educational success for students of color and students from a poverty context Using narrative methodologies this book explores the connections and consistencies within and between their personal narratives and the narratives of school youth and educators that work with them Based on analysis of these shared stories the authors argue for the importance of moving from individualized success stories that reify hard work and perseverance to collective communal stories that serve to break down myths of meritocracy critically examine inequities and move educational advocates forward in authentic audacious hopeful ways

The Courage to Learn Marcia Eames-Sheavly, Paul Michalec, Catherine M. Wehlburg, 2023-07-03 It takes courage to engage in the kind of deep transformational learning that so many people need in their lives and this book is designed to help find and nurture that courage in learners including those that are engaged in facilitating the courageous learning of others Inspired by Parker Palmer's classic book The Courage to Teach the authors have carefully examined the learning side of the teaching and learning relationship and this book shares the resulting wealth of knowledge and experience with readers This book is informed by Palmer's observation that the conversations in teaching can be organized around four questions what how why and who In this book the authors center learning instead of teaching as they ask What is the content of learning How do we learn Why is it necessary what motivates us And who is the self that learns The authors have engaged in conversation with adult learners across the lifespan representing different ages social economic levels and approaches to learning Drawing on these discussions their own experiences and the scholarly literature they weave a tapestry with threads of learning and teaching story and analysis that serve as warp and weft The authors pay tribute to the learner's journey in the fullness of the process and name the distinct forms of courage that learning takes In the concluding chapter the authors explore the implications for educational practice and offer guidance for any educator wishing to bring a Courage to Learn conversation to their community

Dunbar Hill,Angela N. Parker,Mitzi J. Smith,2022-02-28 Bitter the Chastening Rod follows in the footsteps of the first collection of African American biblical interpretation Stony the Road We Trod 1991 Nineteen Africana biblical scholars contribute cutting edge essays reading Jesus criminalization the enslaved and whitened interpretations of the enslaved They present pedagogical strategies for teaching hermeneutics and bible translation that center Black Lives Matter and black culture Biblical narratives news media and personal stories intertwine in critical discussions of black rage protest anti blackness and mothering in the context of black precarity Reflections on Body Dysmorphic Disorder: Stories of Courage, Determination and Hope Nicole Schnackenberg Sergio Petro,2016-11-09 With a Foreword by Professor Katharine Phillips and an Introduction by Professor David Veale and Doctor Rob Willson Body dysmorphic disorder BDD is characterised by a preoccupation with a perceived defect or defects in one's appearance These flaws are either unnoticeable to the outside eye or seen as nothing more than a normal physical variation To the person with BDD however the abhorred aspects of their appearance cause significant shame and distress Some hide away and become housebound sometimes for many years BDD affects males and females almost equally and has one of the highest suicide rates of any mental illness Despite the extreme suffering experienced by people with BDD it is possible to learn to cope with and even completely move beyond it The stories in this volume powerfully attest to this Gathered here are thirty six lived experiences of people with BDD and their loved ones They are stories of tremendous bravery immeasurable determination and incredible hope Calling Men out of the Cave Nigel Mohammed,2015-12-04 In the time of Saul the people of God were in a small minority in a context of spiritual decline yet Jonathan who had an abusive father courageously called six hundred men who were hiding in caves onto the battlefield The battle shifted for God's people because of one man's outstanding courage Through the onslaught of secularism humanism and related ideologies the church is viewed by the culture to be irrelevant a bit like these men hiding in caves because of the odds that are against them Is this because men have been under some kind of enchantment Under a spell from the enemy who is inherently intangible and has caused the decline of Western culture from a biblical worldview to individualism whose central idea now is that society can be composed of individuals without a central values system and heritage holding them together To destroy a nation the enemy has tried to dismantle families and thus masculinity and femininity Therefore a historical father absence is ultimately a spiritual battle and must be seen as such Jesus lived in a little platoon of twelve men trained invested in and released them therefore we have a proven model to follow why then have men been in serious decline from the church Mentors and spiritual fathers who know their calling are needed to produce men who will reproduce disciples who in turn will also be mentors and spiritual fathers with courage and vision to restore the broken foundations The foundations have been progressively dismantled but men are called to be the foundation by knowing that as followers of Jesus Christ we are the beloved of God and this can be a catalyst to finding and living our calling to live in His larger story together New Information on U.S. MIA-POW'S in Indochina? United States.
