Chinese Stories of Drug Addiction Guy Ramsay, 2015-12-22 Addiction to illicit drugs is a pressing social concern across greater China where there are likely several million drug addicts at present This research breaks new ground by examining Chinese people's stories of drug addiction Chinese Stories of Drug Addiction systematically evaluates how drug addiction is represented and constructed in a series of contemporary life stories and filmic stories from mainland China Taiwan and Hong Kong These stories recount experiences leading up to and during drug addiction as well as experiences during drug rehabilitation and recovery Through analysis of these contemporary life stories and filmic stories the book presents a comprehensive picture of how Chinese people from both inside the experience of drug addiction and outside of it make sense of a social practice that is deemed to be highly transgressive in Chinese culture It employs a blended discourse analytic and narrative analytic approach to show how salient cultural political and institutional discourses shape these Chinese stories and experiences Complementing existing humanities research which documents the historical narrative of drug addiction in China at the expense of the contemporary narrative the book also provides health and allied professionals with a rich insight into how Chinese people from different geographical locations and walks of life make sense of the experience of drug addiction Moving beyond historical narrative to examine contemporary stories Chinese Stories of Drug Addiction offers a valuable contribution to the fields of Chinese studies and personal health and wellbeing as well as being of practical use to health professionals Favorite Children's Stories from China & Tibet Lotta Carswell Hume, 2018-07-10 This colorfully illustrated multicultural children's book presents Chinese and Tibetan folk and fairytales and other stories providing insight into a rich literary culture Favorite Children's Stories from China and Tibet is a captivating collection of stories from different parts of China and Tibet Enter a mythical world where animals speak and play tricks on each other and especially on the great striped tiger often characterized as powerful and strong but who can be fooled Also depicted are humans who perform magic both good and bad humans who become animals animals who become human magic pancakes wishing cups fairy boats a Chinese Cinderella and a Tibetan creation story These unique stories are fresh and charming filled with humorous insights into Tibetan and Chinese culture and life including the power and influence of the moon and the importance of festivals They make perfect new additions for story time or bedtime reading and readers of all ages will find much to love within these pages Chinese and Tibetan folk tales include A Chinese Cinderella The Country of the Mice The Wishing Cup The Story of the Tortoise and the Monkey A Hungry Wolf The King of the Mountain How the Deer Lost His Tale The Children's Favorite Stories series was created to share the folktales and legends most beloved by children in the East with young readers of all backgrounds in the West Other multicultural children's books in this series include Asian Children's Favorite Stories Indian Children's Favorite Stories Indonesian Children's Favorite Stories Japanese Children's Favorite Stories Singapore Children's Favorite Stories Chinese Children's Favorite Stories Korean Children's Favorite Stories Balinese Children's Favorite Stories and Vietnamese Children's Favorite Stories
