Stories for the Gathering William R. White, 1997 For gatherings large or small this new collection of Christian related stories assembled by a well known storyteller will capture the interest and imagination of any listener More than 50 traditional and contemporary stories are arranged by theme in a treasury to add depth and wonder to gatherings in the home and in church Our House Pam Conrad, 2005 Six stories one from each decade from the 1940s to the 1990s about children growing up in Levittown New York Racketty-Packetty House and Other Stories Frances Hodgson Burnett, 2012-10-11 In addition to Little Lord Fauntleroy The Secret Garden A Little Princess and other beloved classics of childhood Frances Hodgson Burnett created a delightful legacy of short stories for children This volume includes six of the best of these tales Racketty Packetty House the centerpiece of the collection is a touching tale of a once elegant dollhouse and its shabby inhabitants happy creatures who love to dance But the little girl who owns the dolls is tired of them much preferring her new Tidy Castle dollhouse with its haughty upperclass dolls and her nurse wants to burn the Racketty Packetty House Children will love finding out what happens to the old house and its ragtag occupants Also included here are Behind the White Brick a Lewis Carroll like fantasy of a hidden world behind a chimney s brickwork The Story of Prince Fairyfoot a fairy tale about a young man of royalty who because of his tiny feet is rejected by his parents Sara Crewe an early version of A Little Princess as well as Little Saint Elizabeth and The Proud Little Grain of Wheat Heartwarming and instructive these charming stories reprinted here complete and unabridged will enthrall anyone with a love of make believe They are sure to delight today s youngsters as much as they entertained children generations ago Kurdish Women's Stories Houzan

Mahmoud, 2021-01-20 A fascinating inspiring journey Meredith Tax author of A Road Unforeseen Kurdistan has had a tumultuous history and the women who lived there have experienced a life like no other From Saddam Hussein's reign of terror beginning in the 1960s to the fight against ISIS today violence revolution and questions around identity agency survival and resistance have been at the forefront of women's lives for decades This book is a collection of these women's stories written in their own words Each story reveals a tapestry of experiences including political activism under Saddam and armed resistance in Rojava's PKK and YPG and Komala in Rojhalat This is in addition to experiences of FGM and overcoming victimhood life under extreme conservatism as well as a look into the work of artists poets novelists and performers whose work represents a complicated relationship with Kurdistan These rich and nuanced insights come from a group of women from a nation without a state who are now scattered across the world Collectively they take the reader on a journey that will inspire feminist anti fascist and anti racist people across the world

The Preview and Other Stories Sŏn-jak Cho,2003 Cho Sun Jak is a prolific South Korean writer of many novels and short stories Many of his works have been adapted successfully as TV dramas and films but very few of his works have been available in English till now He presents an honest and frank view of the reality behind the successful development of modern Korea with humor and sensitivity The well known novella The Preview depicts the Korean War through the eyes of a young boy and the other stories in this collection reflect the aftermath of the war the desperate lives of the poor the corruption of moral values and the pathos of the lives of good hearted prostitutes The translations capture well the atmosphere and values of the period in which the stories were written Detailed notes clarify linguistic points and the social and cultural context

Haunted — Incredible True Stories of Ghostly Encounters 2-Book Bundle Dorah L. Williams,2014-05-28 It was an irrational decision Despite having just moved into a beautiful new house the Williams family gave in to an odd overwhelming desire to purchase and move into a Victorian home they had come upon by chance They were curious of course as to why the house had in the past had such a high vacancy rate But that curiosity didn't last long because shortly after moving in strange things began to happen At first the family tried telling themselves there were logical explanations for the strange things they all were witnessing But before long they came to accept the fact that they were sharing their home with ghosts Haunted is the Williams family's story from the point of view of the mother Dorah Through her chilling reminiscences we witness the all too real goings on in the house Upon writing Haunted Dorah thought her situation was unique What she didn't realize was how many others would relate to how it feels to be haunted too After being flooded by emails from people with similar experiences Dorah began to realize this wasn't uncommon at all So Haunted Too came to be Not only will it entertain the reader as good ghost stories always have but it will also help the reader to better understand this phenomenon with the inclusion of shared experiences opinions and advice of professionals in this field

June 1967 in Personal Stories of Palestinians and Israelis Regina F. Bendix,Aziz

Haidar,Hagar Salamon,2022 The clash of June 1967 called by Israelis the Six Day War and by Palestinians the Naksa setback is a critical milestone within the longstanding Israeli Palestinian conflict Despite all the scholarly attention ever since there remain unheard voices and untold stories It is the personal stories of people in the region that are at the center of this book How do they remember 1967 How were their lives affected even changed dramatically as a result of that short war Listening to their stories as told some 50 years later an incomplete tapestry of memories and understandings emerge This book is the product of a re search collaboration among Palestinian Israeli and European folklorists cultural anthropologists and sociologists The personal stories were collected in the framework of interviews with men and women from all walks of life on the days before during and after this dramatic confrontation The book is comprised of eleven chapters based on a corpus of several hundred conversations as well as eight representative interviews Together they afford insight into differential memories and sensations visions of euphoria and despair newly revived hopes pain and disappointment disillusionment and repentance

The Voices From The Margins: Authentic Recorded Life Stories by Former Slaves Work Projects Administration,2023-11-26 In The Voices From The Margins Authentic Recorded Life Stories by Former Slaves the Works Progress Administration delivers a poignant collection of narratives that illuminate the lived experiences of former enslaved individuals in America This groundbreaking work produced during the 1930s combines oral histories with rich autobiographical accounts providing invaluable insight into the human condition under slavery and the immense struggle for dignity and identity The literary style is both raw and authentic utilizing a range of dialects and personal vernaculars that enhance the readers connection with the narrators while situating their stories within the broader context of American history and social justice movements The WPA created during the Great Depression as part of Franklin D Roosevelt s New Deal aimed to provide jobs and support for the unemployed while also preserving America s cultural heritage This project drew upon the memories of aging ex slaves to document their stories ensuring that their voices would not be lost to history The initiative reflects a critical sociopolitical awareness that underscores the importance of amplifying marginalized voices in a dynamic and changing America This essential volume is highly recommended for readers interested in historical narratives social justice and the power of storytelling The Voices From The Margins not only serves as a vital resource for scholars but also invites all readers to engage with the complexities of race memory and resilience in America fostering a deeper understanding of the country s collective past

The Day My Mother Changed Her Name and Other Stories William D. Kaufman,2008-08-18 William Kaufman grew up on his mother s kugel and his father s boyhood stories The son of Jewish immigrants from Lithuania and the Ukraine and one of five children he learned how to translate his colorful childhood into tales of his own regaling audiences of family friends and eventually his retirement community with periodic public readings Now at the age of 93 Kaufman makes his stories filled with a sharp wit and telling detail available to a wider audience for the first time In the title story a young Jewish boy is shamed by his narrow minded teacher when she forces him to admit before the whole class that his mother cannot read English His mother s eventual encounter with the teacher offers a lesson in self respect with just the right balance of grace and moxie In The Search for God in the A the expedition meets with comic results when the young boy refuses to be bullied in this David and Goliath style parable These semi autobiographical stories populated with outsized and magnetic characters subtly layer the specifics of the Jewish experience with universals dilemmas of childhood growing up and old age

Stories of Other Worlds Colin Everard,2024-11-28 A unique collection of non fiction stories drawn from the author s lifetime experiences where the author lived and worked in seven countries and visited more than fifty countries for professional purposes The Stories are disparate and cover events in Africa Asia and Europe

Sherwood Anderson: Collected Stories (LOA #235) Sherwood Anderson,2012-12-27 The first complete anthology of short stories by the creator of the American short story includes the landmark collection Winesburg Ohio Michael Dirda Pulitzer Prize winning book critic In the winter of 1912 Sherwood Anderson 1876 1941 abruptly left his office and spent three days wandering through the Ohio countryside a victim of nervous exhaustion Over the next few years abandoning his family and his business he resolved to become a writer Novels and poetry followed but it was with the story collection Winesburg Ohio that he found his ideal form remaking the American short story for the modern era Hart Crane one of the first to recognize Anderson's genius quickly hailed his accomplishment America should read this book on her knees Here for the first time in a single volume are all the collections Anderson published during his lifetime Winesburg Ohio 1919 The Triumph of the Egg 1921 Horses and Men 1923 and Death in the Woods 1933 along with a generous selection of stories left uncollected or unpublished at his death Exploring the hidden recesses of small town life these haunting understated often sexually frank stories pivot on seemingly quiet moments when lives change futures are recast and pasts come to reckon They transformed the tone of American storytelling inspiring writers like Hemingway Faulkner and Mailer and defining a tradition of midwestern fiction that includes Charles Baxter editor of this volume LIBRARY OF AMERICA is an independent nonprofit cultural organization founded in 1979 to preserve our nation's literary heritage by publishing and keeping permanently in print America's best and most significant writing The Library of America series includes more than 300 volumes to date authoritative editions that average 1 000 pages in length feature cloth covers sewn bindings and ribbon markers and are printed on premium acid free paper that will last for centuries God'S Stories Sharyn

Branson,2017-01-26 This book is a collection of Gods stories that I have been blessed to witness or be a part of during my twenty plus years in full time overseas ministry God is always with us He is faithful true and never changing The God that we read about in the Bible is the same God who is holding our hand and walking with us today In these pages read about Gods faithfulness His Miracles and how He takes care of His children every day without ceasing The Novels and Stories of Frank R. Stockton: Plain fishing Frank R. Stockton,1900 Writing Still - New stories from Zimbabwe Irene

Staunton,2003-06-15 The history of Zimbabwe has always been reflected in its oral and written literature Much of the serious fiction written in the 1980s and early 1990s focused on the effects of Zimbabwe's war of liberation Little has yet been written about post independence Zimbabwe and the complex and challenging issues that have arisen in the last twenty years This anthology of twenty two short stories provides a representative sample of the range and quality of writing in Zimbabwe at the turn of the century and an impressionistic reflection of the years since independence in 1980 Included are stories by established writers Shimmer Chinodya Charles Mungoshi Brian Chikwava and some younger or less established writers Clement Chihota Wonder Guchu Chiedza Musengezi Mary Ndlovu Vivienne Ndlovu and Stanley Nyamfukudza The collection also reflects a slightly broader perspective with stories by Alexandra Fuller Derek Huggins Pat Brickhill and Chris Wilson who engage with historical memory of the conflicts out of which Zimbabwe arose and the lessons to be drawn from living within a culture other than one's own Overall the anthology reaffirms the persistent value attached to imaginative writing in Zimbabwe and illustrates that the country's literary tradition is alive and well and reshaping itself for new times Stories of Life, Love and Laughter Donna Davis Prine,2020-01-22 A memoir of family stories over the years created to last for an eternity
