Stories From The Heart:

Stories From the Heart Richard J. Meyer, 2013-10-18 Stories from the Heart is for by and about prospective and practicing teachers understanding themselves as curious and literate beings making connections with colleagues and researching their own literacy and the literacy lives of their students. It demonstrates the power and importance of story in our own lives as literate individuals. Readers are encouraged to tell, write or re-create the stories of their literacy lives in order to understand how they learn and teach. It begins the journey into writing the stories of others. Literacy lives find support in their researching endeavors and examine the idea of framing stories by using the work of other teachers and researchers.

Stories from the Heart Marti Tamm Loring, 1997 Perhaps because the symptoms of emotional abuse are less visible to the untrained eye than those of physical abuse, society has traditionally focused its attention on the latter. While both forms of abuse are devastating, it is widely believed that emotional abuse is the more destructive. In Stories from the Heart, Marti Loring seeks to illustrate this belief by presenting case studies of emotional abuse victims. Through intervention and support, these victims have progressed from a life of utter despair and the overwhelming burden of victimhood to one where they are equipped with the ability to survive. Intervention, therapy, counseling, and advocacy are all methods highlighted in this volume to capture the range of innovative procedures and community resources that are available for those in need. Particular emphasis is placed on the reconnection process, a strategy integral to progressing from victim to survivor of emotional abuse.

, Stories from the Heart Lillian Adrian, 2021-11-09 Having searched these long and lonely years for a new kind of normal I realized that with recognition of life gone there was realization of new beginnings without guilt through the process of creating new sweet precious memories Realizing there is HOPE JOY and PEACE knowing without a doubt that my heavenly Father loves me more than life itself That is where I gained my trust Normal is different for everyone For me there was nothing normal about losing my spouse so suddenly at a young age but then what s normal about a kind gentle man being crucified spit upon beaten until blood ran down his face hands and sides cursed and then left to hang on an old rugged cross while his mother sat and watched weeping for the loss of her son It was HOPE JOY and PEACE knowing her heavenly Fathers hands were holding her Even though she KNEW it was not a normal kind of death in the eyes of God it was right He ordained it as His will HIS perfect plan was in place Now mine has not been three days but then again I am certain that Jesus felt as though it was years as he went through the torture he experienced uttering those last words It is FINISHED But GOD had another plan Completeness came as He said it would with His son s resurrection It is only by TRUST and FAITH in Him that
